2013 FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

If the USC football team wants inspiration heading into 2013, it needs only to look back to 2002.

That was the last time Troy entered a season coming off a 6-loss campaign. That Trojan squad rebounded by going 10-2, capturing the league title and winning a BCS bowl.

The 2013 USC team certainly has the ingredients to put together a similarly successful run.

The Trojans return 16 starters (8 on offense), including the kicker, from 2012 (they also welcome back a 2-year starter who was sidelined last fall with an injury). In all, 76 squadmen are back from last year, including 60 who saw action in 2012, 57 who lettered, 34 who were on USC's season ending 2-deep and 30 who have started at least once in their career.

Add to that a small (13 players), but highly-ranked, class of recruits. Eight of those new players were listed among the ESPN 100. USC's average star ranking per player (4.4 stars), as calculated by various recruiting outlets, was significantly higher than any other school. Seven newcomers—including USA Today's Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year, the Gatorade National and California Players of the Year and Cal-Hi Sports' California Mr. Football—enrolled at USC this past spring semester and participated in 2013 spring practice.

The Trojans, however, will begin the 2013 campaign with only 69 scholarship players (and one of those is sidelined for the season with an injury). USC is in the second of a 3-year NCAA sanction that limits its overall roster to 75 scholarship players annually and no more than 15 signees per year, both 10 fewer than the NCAA maximum.

The 2012 Trojans, who began last year at 6-1 before dropping 5 of their last 6 games, finished tied for second in the Pac-12 South Division at 5-4 and, after a 2-year NCAA-imposed bowl ban, played in the Hyundai Sun Bowl. All 7 of USC's victories were by double digits.

As difficult as USC's 2012 season was for Trojan fans, it was only the 13th time in its 120 years of football that Troy has lost at least 6 games. So, the odds are high that last year's 7-6 outcome was an aberration in USC's glorious gridiron history.

The school is celebrating its 125th anniversary of athletics, with the first football team dating to 1888. Since then, USC football has won 11 national championships and 31 bowls and has produced 160 All-American first teamers, 6 Heisman Trophy winners, 462 NFL players and 22 Academic All-American first teamers. (USC athletics, currently fielding 21 men's and women's sports, claims 120 national team championships, an unprecedented 419 Olympians and 52 NCAA Postgraduate Scholars.)

"Last season did not finish up as we all hoped, leaving our players, coaches and fans terribly disappointed," said fourth-year USC head coach Lane Kiffin. "We have worked hard since then to focus on the positives while learning from the negatives. We analyzed our entire program and made necessary changes as we strive to get back to the level of play we had when we won 17 out of 20 games before our slump at the end of last season.

"The most important thing we must do is develop our depth at all positions as we continue to manage our reduced numbers due to our NCAA scholarship sanctions."

Headlining the 2013 Trojan roster is dynamic wide receiver/returner Marqise Lee, a unanimous 2012 All-American first team selection who won USC's first-ever Biletnikoff Award last fall when he finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy voting. The 2012 Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year owns or shares 22 USC records (5 are Pac-12 marks), including most receptions (118) in a season and most receiving yards in a season (1,721) and game (345), all league standards he set last year. He was second nationally in receptions and receiving yards in 2012. He is on target to break USC's career records for receptions and kickoff return yards.

Also back as starters on offense are tailback Silas Redd, a 2,500-yard career rusher (905 of those yards came last fall at USC after he transferred from Penn State), tight ends Xavier Grimble and Randall Telfer, who have combined for 82 career catches with 18 TDs, offensive linemen Kevin Graf, John Martinez, Marcus Martin, Aundrey Walker and 2012 Freshman All-American first teamer Max Tuerk, and fullback Soma Vainuku.

Other offensive players with career starts are wide receiver Nelson Agholor, quarterback Max Wittek, tailbacks D.J. Morgan and Tre Madden, fullback Jahleel Pinner and lineman Cyrus Hobbi.

Starters returning on the other side of the ball are outside linebacker Morgan Breslin, a 2012 Hendricks Award finalist when he posted 19.5 tackles for loss and 13 sacks (the most at USC since 2003), 2012 Freshman All-American first team defensive end Leonard Williams, who was the Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year (he had 13.5 tackles for loss and 8 sacks), 2-year starting linebackers Hayes Pullard, Dion Bailey (now possibly a safety) and Lamar Dawson (they have 451 career tackles combined), defensive end George Uko and safety-cornerback Josh Shaw (he started at cornerback last year). Also back after sitting out 2012 with a chest injury is outside linebacker Devon Kennard, who had 18 starts and 135 tackles in his first 3 years at USC.

Andre Heidari, who has 25 career field goals, returns after spending the past 2 years as the placekicker. Alex Wood, who filled in when Heidari was out with a knee injury last fall, also is back.

Although USC must replace only 8 starters from 2012, the losses are significant.

Gone are:

—quarterback Matt Barkley, a 4-year starter who set Pac-12 career records for passing yards (12,327), completions (1,001), touchdowns (116) and total offense (12,214) as he won the 2012 Wuerffel Trophy, was a finalist for the Manning Award, Unitas Golden Arm Award, Senior CLASS Award and ARA Sportsmanship Award and was a National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete (he was chosen in the fourth round of the NFL draft);

—2011 All-American and 3-year starting wide receiver Robert Woods, USC's career pass catching leader (252 receptions) who declared for the NFL after his junior season (he was a second rounder);

—2011 All-American safety T.J. McDonald, a 3-year starter who had 275 career tackles and 8 interceptions (his 112 tackles last year were the most by a Trojan since 2001) and then was an NFL third round selection;

—2012 Rimington Award finalist center Khaled Holmes, a 3-year starter who made last season's All-Pac-12 first team, Academic All-American second team and Pac-12 All-Academic first team (he was an NFL fourth round pick);

—Nickell Robey, a 3-year starting lockdown cornerback who left early for the NFL after making 163 tackles, 7 interceptions and 17 deflections in his career (his 3 picks for TDs tied the USC career record);

—tailback Curtis McNeal, who had 1,739 career rushing yards (including 701 last year while sharing time with Redd);

—defensive end Wes Horton, who had 117 career tackles with 13.5 sacks while starting 32 times;

—3-year starting safety Jawanza Starling;

—and directional punter Kyle Negrete, who averaged 41.5 yards per boot in his career and never had a touchback among his 83 punts (he pinned opponents within the 20-yard line 39 times).

Kiffin reconstructed his coaching staff in the off-season, bringing in 4 new assistants and re-defining roles for some of the others.

Clancy Pendergast, who coordinated some of the top defenses in the NFL and college (the past 3 seasons at California), is the new defensive coordinator and will coach the secondary. His recent experience in the Pac-12 will be valuable when combatting the many styles of offense seen in the league. Mike Summers, who helped produce some of the most productive offenses in the history of schools such as Arkansas, Louisville, Kentucky, Oregon State and Ohio, is the running game coordinator and offensive line coach. Tommie Robinson, another veteran collegiate and NFL coach (most recently with the Arizona Cardinals), is the passing game coordinator and running backs coach. Mike Ekeler, who helped turn out defenses that ranked among the nation's best while at Oklahoma, LSU and Nebraska, will coach the linebackers after serving as Indiana's co-defensive coordinator the past 2 seasons.

Of the returning coaches, quarterbacks coach Clay Helton takes on the offensive coordinator duty. Associate head coach/special teams coordinator John Baxter has added tight ends to his duties. James Cregg will work with Summers coaching the offensive line. Ed Orgeron remains in his role assistant head coach/recruiting coordinator/defensive line coach and Tee Martin remains as the wide receivers coach. Graduate assistant Ross Cummings will now work with the outside linebackers and he'll be joined by new grad assistants Jon Farmerie (secondary), Kyle Williams (secondary) and Jaron Fairman (special teams).

"We all are looking forward to moving forward," said Kiffin. "During this past spring's practice, the players understood there was no depth chart, and they competed well with intensity and very physically. With the new coaches, they got a clean slate and a fresh start. We need to carry over that momentum from the spring into fall drills."

The Trojans will play seven home games in the Coliseum in 2013. Overall, USC's 13-game schedule features seven teams that played in a bowl this year, all winning at least 8 games, and four who finished ranked in the final AP Top 25. Four opponents will be guided by new coaches. USC will play twice on Thursday nights, including once at home, and one time on Friday night. The Trojans will not play Pac-12 foes Oregon or Washington in the regular season in 2013 or 2014.

USC will open its 2013 slate with a Thursday night road game on Aug. 29 against Norm Chow's Hawaii team, the fourth time that the Trojans have opened a season facing the Warriors in Honolulu's Aloha Stadium. Troy then begins Pac-12 play by hosting Washington State on Sept. 7, the first of three consecutive home games for the Trojans. USC then welcomes a pair of squads that last visited the Coliseum in the 1980s: Boston College with new head coach Steve Addazio on Sept. 14 and defending Western Athletic Conference champion Utah State and new coach Matt Wells on Sept. 21. The Trojans return to Pac-12 action at Arizona State on Sept. 28, then have a bye before hosting Arizona in a Thursday night contest on Oct. 10, the first-ever non-Thanksgiving or non-bowl Thursday game USC has played in the Coliseum (the last time USC played a weekday game at home was the 2002 opener against Auburn on Labor Day). USC next travels to BCS Championship Game participant Notre Dame on Oct. 19 for its annual intersectional clash before returning home to host Utah on Oct. 26 on Trojan Family Weekend. The Trojans then go to Oregon State for a Friday night game on Nov. 1, the first of three road trips in a four-game span. After visiting California, guided by new coach Sonny Dykes, on Nov. 9, USC returns to the Coliseum to play defending Pac-12 champ Stanford on Nov. 16 on Homecoming/Reunion Weekend before going to Colorado (under new coach Mike MacIntyre) on Nov. 23. Troy concludes its regular season by hosting crosstown rival UCLA in a Thanksgiving weekend battle on Nov. 30.

"Our focus now is forward looking," said Kiffin. "Nothing matters but winning the game in front of us."

OFFENSE

Eight starters return on offense from 2012: wide receiver Marqise Lee, tailback Silas Redd, co-starting tight ends Xavier Grimble and Randall Telfer, tackle Kevin Graf, guard John Martinez, center-guard Marcus Martin, tackle Aundrey Walker and guard-tackle-center Max Tuerk (they shared 2012 starts) and fullback Soma Vainuku. Others back with starting experience are wide receiver Nelson Agholor, quarterback Max Wittek, tailbacks D.J. Morgan and Tre Madden, fullback Jahleel Pinner and center-guard Cyrus Hobbi.

USC's top rusher (and 7 of its top 9 ground gainers) and leading pass catcher (and 11 of the 13 players who caught a pass) from 2012 are back. USC averaged 32 points and 432 yards of total offense per game in 2012, numbers that were just slightly lower than those from its 10-win season of 2011. Troy was ranked in the national Top 41 in passing efficiency (147.7), passing offense (282.3), total offense (432.9), scoring offense (32.1) and sacks allowed (1.3) in 2012. But the Trojans struggled on third down conversions (34.2%) and in the red zone (74.5%) last season and had 34 turnovers, all areas where improvement is needed.

"With a revamped offensive coaching staff now in place, we had a very competitive spring from our offense," said Kiffin. "We will continue to strive to put together a balanced offense while shoring up our depth at all positions as we enter this fall.

"Our biggest challenge offensively will be to adequately replace a pair of recordbreaking Trojans, Matt Barkley and Robert Woods, along with the steady play that Khaled Holmes gave us. Whoever ends up starting in their places will be well-served by the 8 returning offensive starters, led by the play and leadership of Marqise Lee."

QUARTERBACKS

USC's most pressing challenge in 2012 will be replacing the play and leadership of 4-year starting quarterback Matt Barkley, the Pac-12 career recordholder for total offense (12,214), passing yards (12,327), completions (1,001) and touchdown passes (116). He set 20 USC career, season and game records (10 were Pac-12 standards). Last fall, he completed 63.6% of his passes for 3,273 yards and 36 TDs. USC's first-ever 3-time captain, he won the 2012 Wuerffel Trophy (athletics/academics/community service) and was a National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete. He was an NFL fourth round draft selection.

Three young signalcallers will vie for the starting job in 2013: sophomores Max Wittek (36-of-69, 52.2%, 388 yds, 3 TD, 5 int in 2012) and Cody Kessler (2-of-2, 100.0%, 9 yds in 2012) and first-year freshman Max Browne. Wittek started USC's final 2 games of 2012 when Barkley was sidelined with a shoulder injury, acquitting himself well against Notre Dame but struggling in the cold and wind in the Sun Bowl versus Georgia Tech. Kessler, who was the holder on placekicks in the second half of 2012, appeared briefly in 2 games last season. Prep All-American Browne (Skyline High in Sammamish, Wash.), who graduated high school a semester early so he could enroll at USC this spring, was the 2012 Gatorade National Player of the Year and USA Today's Offensive National Player of the Year as he led Skyline to a pair of Washington state championships and set state career records for passing yards (12,953) and completions (882) while competing 70.4% of his passes for 146 TDs.

Also available is walk-on redshirt freshman Conner Sullivan.

"The biggest individual shoes to fill on our team are at quarterback," said Kiffin. "We were incredibly fortunate to have Matt Barkley lead our team these past 4 years. There was a 3-way competition in the spring between our talented young quarterbacks and that will continue in fall camp until a starter emerges. I'm excited to watch them compete and see how it goes."

RUNNING BACKS

Although Curtis McNeal, who accumulated 1,739 career rushing yards (including 701 last year) while starting 12 times (8 in 2012), is gone, USC is well-stocked at the tailback position.

Returning is veteran senior Silas Redd (167 tcb, 905 yds, 5.4 avg, 9 TD in 2012, plus 9 rec, 113 yds, 12.6 avg, 1 TD and 1 tac), who started 6 games last fall after transferring from Penn State. He has run for 2,583 yards in his career at both schools, including 10 career 100-yard rushing games (3 at USC).

Junior D.J. Morgan (41 tcb, 201 yds, 4.9 avg, 1 TD in 2012, plus 1 rec, 24 yds, 24.0 avg, 1 TD), also a hurdler on the Trojan track team who started twice at tailback in 2011, and sophomore Javorius Allen (6 tcb, 32 yds, 5.3 avg in 2012) add quality depth. So does high-potential soph Tre Madden, who was switched from linebacker to tailback in 2012 spring practice and was very impressive before suffering a knee injury that sidelined him last fall.

Joining the tailback fray as freshmen are a pair of prep All-Americans in Justin Davis (Lincoln High in Stockton, Calif.), who enrolled at USC this past spring after graduating a semester early from high school and participated in spring drills (he was impressive), and Ty Isaac (Joliet Catholic Academy in Joliet, Ill.), who comes aboard in the fall.

There also are a trio of walk-on tailbacks: senior John Akiba (4 tcb, 17 yds, 4.2 avg in 2012), who will miss spring ball after having shoulder surgery, junior Alec Jaffe and sophomore Taylor Ross, who is out of spring practice while recuperating from surgery on a fractured foot.

USC's fullback corps is thin and young, but it is experienced. Sophomores Soma Vainuku (7 tcb, 26 yds, 3.7 avg in 2012, plus 8 rec, 50 yds, 6.2 avg and 6 tac) and Jahleel Pinner (1 tac in 2012), used primarily as blockers so far, both notched starts last year. Senior Simione Vehikite (9 tac in 2012), who mainly has played linebacker in his USC career, will begin the 2013 season as a fullback.

"We need more production out of our run game in 2013," said Kiffin. "We will make it an emphasis to establish the run. Silas Redd is a talented veteran runner and we expect a big senior year out of him. We need the younger running backs to step up. And, although we don't have much depth at fullback, we would like to get that position more involved in the offense."

WIDE RECEIVERS

USC returns the nation's best wide receiver—and perhaps the nation's premier player—in junior Marqise Lee (118 rec, 1,721 yds, 14.6 avg, 14 TD in 2012, plus 13 tcb, 106 yds, 8.2 avg and 30 KOR, 856 yds, 28.5 avg, 1 TD and 2 tac). The unanimous 2012 All-American first teamer and Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year won USC's first-ever Biletnikoff Award last season and he is now a top candidate for the Heisman Trophy (he finished fourth in 2012). Also a dangerous kick returner, he owns or shares 22 USC records (5 are Pac-12 marks), including most receptions (118) in a season and most receiving yards in a season (1,721) and game (345), all league standards he set last year. He was second nationally in receptions (9.1) and receiving yards (132.4), third in all-purpose yards (206.4) and eighth in kickoff returns (28.5) in 2012. Last year, he averaged 16.7 yards every time he touched the ball, the average length of his 15 TDs was 40.8 yards, he had 16 plays of 40-plus yards and more than half of his 118 receptions went for first downs. Also a long jumper on the Trojan track team, he is on target to break USC's career records for receptions (he is sixth with 191 catches) and kickoff return yards (eighth with 1,141 yards).

USC, however, will miss Lee's receiving mate, Robert Woods. The 2011 All-American first teamer and 3-year starter, who is USC's career pass catching leader (252 receptions), declared for the NFL after his 2012 junior season (he was a second round pick). He owns or shares 12 USC records; in addition to the career receptions mark, he also set game standards for receptions (17) and TD catches (4). His 32 career scoring receptions are second most in USC history. He had a catch in his last 33 games. He had 76 catches and 11 TD grabs in 2012, plus he returned 17 punts.

Looking to fill Woods' spot will be often-used sophomore Nelson Agholor (19 rec, 340 yds, 17.9 avg, 2 TD in 2012, plus 1 tcb, 7 yds, 7.0 avg and 5 KOR, 121 yds, 24.2 avg and 4 tac, 1 FR), who also returned kicks in 2012, senior De'Von Flournoy (1 rec, 21 yards, 21.0 avg in 2012) and soph Victor Blackwell (1 rec, 9 yds, 9.0 avg in 2012). Speedy junior George Farmer (1 rec, 7 yds, 7.0 avg in 2012) will be sidelined in 2013 while recuperating from torn knee ligaments suffered in this past spring's practice.

Two freshmen who were prep All-Americans have joined the wide receiver competition: Darreus Rogers (Carson High in Carson, Calif.), who originally signed with USC in February of 2012 but did not enroll until this past spring semester and participated in spring drills, and Steven Mitchell (Bishop Alemany High in Mission Hills, Calif.), who enrolls this fall. Mitchell will miss the 2013 season after tearing ligaments in his knee this summer.

There also are 4 walk-on wideouts: senior Cody Skene, sophomores George Katrib and Christian Tober and redshirt freshman Robby Kolanz.

"We have the best player in the country in Marqise Lee and we will continue to take advantage of his skills," said Kiffin. "But we also lost one of the best receivers in college football history in Robert Woods. So our younger wideouts must find a way to fill in and help our offensive attack."

TIGHT ENDS

Tight end might be USC's most solid position, as equally-proficient juniors Xavier Grimble (29 rec, 316, 10.9 avg, 5 TDs in 2012, plus 3 tac) and Randall Telfer (12 rec, 100 yds, 8.3 avg, 4 TD in 2012, plus 1 BLK FG) return as co-starters once again. The duo, which combined for 41 grabs and 9 touchdowns in 2012, has 82 catches with 18 TDs between them in their careers.

Sophomore Jalen Cope-Fitzpatrick (2 rec, 12 yds, 6.0 avg in 2012) adds young talent to the tight end corps.

"Xavier Grimble and Randall Telfer are exceptional tight ends," said Kiffin. "They can block, they can catch, they are very coachable and they do all the little things well. We need to continue to find ways to keep them involved in our offense."

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

Although starters return at 4 offensive line spots, the loss of 2012 Rimington Award finalist center Khaled Holmes cannot be discounted. To wit: when an injured Holmes had to miss the Stanford game last fall, the Cardinal took advantage with its defensive game plan and upset the Trojans. The 3-year starter starred on the field and classroom as he made the All-Pac-12 first team, Academic All-American second team and Pac-12 All-Academic first team last year. He was a fourth round NFL draft pick.

Tackle Kevin Graf (1 tac in 2012) and guard John Martinez, both seniors, and junior center-guard Marcus Martin all return after starting the past 2 years (Martin likely will slide into Holmes' center spot after previously playing guard). Also back are junior Aundrey Walker and versatile sophomore Max Tuerk, co-starters last fall at tackle. Tuerk, a 2012 Freshman All-American first teamer who even started the Sun Bowl at guard, will be tried in 2013 at guard, but can play all the line positions.

Other returners, all relatively inexperienced, angling to get into the offensive line playing rotation are senior guard-tackle David Garness, junior guard-center Giovanni Di Poalo, sophomore center-guard Cyrus Hobbi and redshirt freshmen tackles Chad Wheeler (he was impressive in the spring before getting hurt) and Zach Banner (he also was on the USC basketball team) and redshirt frosh guard-tackle Jordan Simmons (he can also play guard), as well as a pair of walk-ons, junior tackle Nathan Guertler and soph guard-center Erick Jepsen.

Linemen enrolling in the fall as freshmen were prep All-Americans Nico Falah (St. John Bosco High in Bellflower, Calif.), a tackle, and guard-center Khaliel Rodgers (Eastern Christian Academy in Elkton, Md.).

"We have a lot of returning frontline players on the offensive line, but they need to continue improving," said Kiffin. "Adding another coach to work with this group will go a long ways in achieving that. This spring, we made a commitment to having the offensive line return to the toughness and form it had 2 years ago. That physical mindset needs to continue this fall."

DEFENSE

Seven defensive starters return from 2012: outside linebacker Morgan Breslin, defensive end Leonard Williams, linebackers Hayes Pullard and Lamar Dawson, safety-linebacker Dion Bailey, defensive end George Uko and safety-cornerback Josh Shaw. Other defensive players with career starts are outside linebacker Devon Kennard, cornerbacks Torin Harris, Anthony Brown and Kevon Seymour, defensive linemen Antwaun Woods and J.R. Tavai and linebacker Anthony Sarao.

Five of USC's 6 top tacklers of 2012 are back, as are its leaders in tackles for loss, sacks, interceptions, deflections, forced fumbles and fumble recoveries. Last season, the Trojans ranked fourth nationally in sacks (3.5) and 11th in tackles for loss (11.5) and were in the national Top 41 in pass efficiency defense (124.0) and scoring defense (24.3). Troy forced 32 turnovers last year, nearly double its 2011 total, including picking off 19 passes (more than twice its 2011 total). However, USC will look in 2013 to shore up a defense that allowed among the most yards and points in school history: the 394.0 total defense average in 2012 was the second highest ever, the 24.3 scoring defense average was fourth highest and the 227.0 pass defense average was the eighth highest.

New defensive coordinator Clancy Pendergast has changed USC's defensive scheme from a 4-3 to a 5-2 base (2 outside linebackers on the line bookending 3 down linemen). But he has said this new defense will be adaptable depending on the situation, especially with the various offenses employed in the Pac-12. At times, USC could run a 3-4 or it could even revert back to last year's 4-3 alignment.

"We're looking forward to implementing a new defensive system," said Kiffin. "It will be very multiple up front, able to change from a 5-2 to 3-4 to a 4-3. We believe this new system, which will utilize an attacking style, will make us a better defense, as we really need to show improvement on this side of the ball. We must be more physical and more aggressive, and we need to do a better job of shutting down opponents and taking the ball away.

"Our defensive players are excited to get a fresh start with new coaches and a new system."

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

USC lost only 1 defensive lineman of note from 2012—end Wes Horton, who had 117 tackles with 13.5 sacks while starting 32 times in his career—so the depth is good at this position, which will be important as more frontline players will be required this year in the new 5-2 defensive system. The line now will consist of tackles, ends and outside linebackers. USC's defensive linemen have proven particularly adept at pressuring the quarterback, considering 35 of Troy's 45 sacks last fall were by the defensive front.

Three line starters return from 2012: high-motor senior outside linebacker Morgan Breslin (62 tac, 19.5 for loss, 13 sack, 1 FR, 1 FF, 4 dfl in 2012), dominating sophomore end Leonard Williams (64 tac, 13. 5 for loss, 8 sacks, 2 FR, 1 int, 4 dfl in 2012) and junior end George Uko (31 tac, 9 for loss, 5 sack, 1 FR for TD, 1 FF, 1 dfl in 2012). Breslin, in his first year at USC in 2012 after transferring from a junior college, was a Hendricks Award finalist last year while playing end. He was fifth nationally in sacks (1.0) and 15th in tackles for loss (1.5) in 2012. His sacks and tackles for loss totals were the most at USC since 2003. Williams was a 2012 Freshman All-American first teamer and the Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year while playing mainly at tackle (as did Uko).

Also back after sitting out last season with a chest injury is senior outside linebacker Devon Kennard, who notched 135 tackles while making 18 starts in his first 3 years at USC as an end and linebacker.

There are other experienced linemen who can be called on: senior outside linebacker Kevin Greene (5 tac, 2 for loss, 2 sack, 2 FF, 1 FR in 2012), junior end-tackle J.R. Tavai (17 tac, 2.5 loss, 1 dfl in 2012), sophomore tackle Antwaun Woods (16 tac, 4.5 for loss, 3 sack in 2012), who started the first 4 games of 2012, and soph end Greg Townsend Jr. (15 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1.5 sack in 2012).

Other less-tested linemen in the mix are senior outside linebacker Marquis Simmons (9 tac in 2012) sophomores Charles Burks, an end, and tackle Cody Temple, as well as redshirt freshman outside linebacker Jabari Ruffin. There there is a pair of walk-on ends who saw limited action last year: senior Michael Arakelian and sophomore Jeff Miller (he will miss 2013 spring practice recovering from 2012 surgery on an ankle fracture).

Looking to make an immediate impact on the line are freshman tackle Kenny Bigelow (Eastern Christian Academy of Elkton, Md.), a prep All-American who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC this spring (he participated in spring drills), and outside linebacker Quinton Powell (Mainland High in Daytona Beach, Calif.), a prep All-American who arrived this fall.

"We have a lot of veteran players coming back up front, some real impact players like Morgan Breslin and Leonard Williams," said Kiffin. "It will be crucial to build our depth on the defensive line and develop a number of players who we can count on to come through for us."

LINEBACKERS

Linebacker figures to be a position of strength for USC in 2013, as all 3 starters from the past 2 seasons return.

The trio of returning starters, all juniors, are Hayes Pullard (107 tac, 8 for loss, 2 sack, 1 int for TD, 1 FF, 1 dfl in 2012), Dion Bailey (80 tac, 8 for loss, 1 sack, 4 int, 5 dfl, 1 FF in 2012) and Lamar Dawson (77 tac, 2 for loss, 1 FF, 2 dfl, 2 int in 2012). Combined, they have made 451 tackles in their careers. Last fall, Pullard (along with safety T.J. McDonald) became the first Trojan since 2004 with at least 100 stops in a season. Bailey, whose 4 interceptions in 2012 were second most in the nation by a linebacker, however will likely be tried at safety when 2013 fall camp begins.

Other experienced linebackers aiming to make a contribution are sophomore Anthony Sarao (40 tac, 4 for loss, 3 sack, 1 FR, 1 dfl in 2012), who had an strong showing in the spring, and redshirt freshman Scott Starr (2 tac in 2012), who had 2012 neck surgery that allowed him to redshirt last fall despite seeing action in 3 early-season games.

Then there are 4 walk-on linebackers available: seniors Will Andrew (7 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 FR in 2012), Kyle Yatabe and Julian Coleman and redshirt freshman Nick Schlossberg.

Joining the linebacker corps in the fall as a freshman is prep All-American Michael Hutchings (De La Salle High in Concord, Calif.), who was the 2012 Cal-Hi Sports' California Mr. Football.

"This is another veteran group for us," said Kiffin. "Pullard and Dawson are high-quality, experienced linebackers, as is Bailey, who could end up at safety. Like elsewhere on the team, we need to shore up our depth here because we will ask a lot of the linebackers in our new defensive scheme."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

USC's secondary will have a completely new look to it, as a trio of 3-year starters have departed and another starter might switch positions.

Gone are hard-hitting 2011 All-American safety T.J. McDonald, who had 275 career tackles and 8 interceptions (his team-best 112 tackles last year were the most by a Trojan since 2001) before being an NFL third round draft pick, lockdown cornerback Nickell Robey, who left early for the NFL after making 163 tackles, 7 interceptions and 17 deflections in his career (his 3 scoring interception returns tied the USC career record) and reliable safety Jawanza Starling.

Junior Josh Shaw (30 tac, 2 for loss, 2 int, 6 dfl in 2012), who transferred to USC last fall from Florida as a safety but was moved midseason to cornerback and started the final 7 games there, has been shifted back to safety for 2013.

He'll battle for a starting job with seniors Demetrius Wright (9 tac, 0.5 for loss in 2012) and Gerald Bowman (11 tac, 1 int in 2012), as well as junior Dion Bailey (80 tac, 8 for loss, 1 sack, 4 int, 5 dfl, 1 FF in 2012), who started the past 2 seasons at linebacker (his 4 interceptions in 2012 were second most in the nation by a linebacker). Also in the safety mix are walk-ons John Auran, a senior, and redshirt freshman Rob Dooley.

And consideration will be given to freshman safety Su'a Cravens (Vista Murrieta High in Murrieta, Calif.), a prep All-American who was the 2012 USA Today Defensive National Player of the Year and the Gatorade California Player of the Year. He graduated a semester early from high school in order to enroll at USC for this spring semester and participate in spring practice.

Contesting for starting roles at cornerback will be some experienced veterans along with some youngsters. Senior Torin Harris (30 tac, 1 for loss, 6 dfl in 2012) has 9 career starts at corner, including 5 mid-season starts last year. He entered the 2012 lineup after junior Anthony Brown (18 tac, 2 dfl, 1 BLK P in 2012, plus 1 PR, 21 yds, 21.0 avg, 1 TD) started the first 2 games. Then there are sophomores Kevon Seymour (5 tac in 2012) and Ryan Henderson (5 tac in 2012) and redshirt freshman Devian Shelton, as well as walk-on sophomore Ryan Dillard (3 tac in 2012).

Two prep All-Americans who enrolled at USC this spring after graduating from high school a semester early will also battle for time: Leon McQuay III (Armwood High in Seffner, Fla.) at safety and Chris Hawkins (Rancho Cucamonga High in Rancho Cucamonga, Calif.) at cornerback.

"By far, the secondary faces the biggest overhaul on our team as we look for 4 new starters," said Kiffin. "It's not comforting when you lose players the caliber of T.J. McDonald and Nickell Robey, but we must find a way to replace them. We need to improve our play in the secondary and we need to do that with all new starters. There will be a spirited battle among all our defensive backs to earn places in the lineup and it will be exciting to watch that competition play out."

SPECIAL TEAMS

USC's placekicker (Andre Heidari), snapper (Peter McBride), holder (Cody Kessler) and kickoff returners (Marqise Lee, Nelson Agholor) are back from 2012. But the Trojans will be fielding a new punter and punt returner.

USC continued in 2012 its recent penchant for making big plays on special teams (Troy had 4 blocks, including 1 returned for a TD, and a scoring kickoff return last fall). The Trojans ranked fourth nationally in kickoff returns (26.4) and 29th in net punting (38.6) last year. Only 14 of USC's 45 punts were returned in 2012 and none of the punts were touchbacks.

"Good special teams play has always been an area of emphasis in our program," said Kiffin. "The amount of time we spend preparing our special teams pays off with big plays that often turn into game changers.

"Marqise Lee gives us a strong return game. Opponents know he can score every time he touches the ball. We need to get better production at placekicker. And we hope that we can compensate for the loss of Kyle Negrete, whose ability to punt to a spot took the punt return game away from our opponents the past 2 years."

PUNTERS

Sophomore Kris Albarado, who has yet to punt at USC, will take over for Kyle Negrete, who handled the punting duties the past 2 seasons. Negrete, known as an accurate directional punter, averaged 41.5 yards per boot in his career and never had a touchback among his 83 punts. He pinned opponents within the 20-yard line 39 times.

Walk-on sophomore Joey Krassenstein, who prepped in China where he played semi-pro rugby, is also available to punt.

PLACEKICKERS

Junior Andre Heidari (39-of-41 PAT, 10-of-16 FG in 2012) has been USC's placekicker the past 2 seasons, hitting 25 field goals. After a Freshman All-American and All-Pac-12 first team showing in 2011 when he nailed 15-of-17 field goals, he struggled with his accuracy somewhat in 2012, especially after missing 2 early-season games following arthroscopic knee surgery.

When Heidari was sidelined last fall, sophomore walk-on Alex Wood (8-of-8 PAT in 2012) filled in admirably.

Junior Craig McMahon (3 tac in 2012) handled the kickoff duty in 2012 and could do so again in 2013.

SNAPPERS

Sophomore Peter McBride (1 tac in 2012) returns after handling the long snapping duties all of last year and the short snapping role up until late last season.

HOLDERS

RETURNERS

Junior Marqise Lee (30 KOR, 856 yds, 28.5 avg, 1 TD in 2012) is back as one of the most feared kickoff returners in the country. He was eighth nationally in kickoff returns (28.5) last fall. He is eighth on USC's career kickoff return list (1,141 yards) and has 2 scoring runbacks so far. Sophomore wide receiver Nelson Agholor (5 KOR, 121 yds, 24.2 avg in 2012) joined Lee returning kicks last year and could do so again in 2013.

A new punt returner must be found with the departure of wide receiver Robert Woods and cornerback Nickell Robey, who more-than-capably shared that duty the last 2 years. Junior cornerback Anthony Brown might be tried in this role, and Lee could be used here, too.

HEAD COACH LANE KIFFIN

USC head football coach Lane Kiffin is regarded as one of the game's brightest young coaches. At just 38 (he is the seventh youngest current FBS head coach), he already has been a head coach at football's top levels, both professionally and collegiately. He is known for his high football IQ, as well as for being a master playcaller and a superb recruiter.

The one-time Trojan offensive coordinator who then became the head coach of the Oakland Raiders and the Tennessee Volunteers returned to the USC program on Jan. 12, 2010, when he was named its head football coach.

His 3-year record at USC is 25-13 (.658) and he is 32-19 (.627) in 4 years as a college head coach. Only College Football Hall of Famers Howard Jones and John Robinson (with 19 wins) had more victories in their first 2 years as a Trojan head coach than Kiffin's 18. Among Kiffin's signature USC wins were road victories at No. 18 Arizona in 2010 and at both Notre Dame and No. 4 Oregon in 2011. Six of his 13 USC losses were by a total of 25 points, with 4 coming on opponent scores late in the game (2 on field goals at the gun, 1 in triple overtime and 1 on a TD with 2:23 to go) and 2 on TDs in the game's final 10 minutes

In 2012, his Trojans were the pre-season AP No. 1-ranked team and started off 6-1 before finishing with a 7-6 overall mark (5-4 for second place in the Pac-12 South Division) and advancing to a bowl (Sun) after a 2-year NCAA-imposed bowl ban. Each victory was by double digits. USC was ranked in the national Top 41 in passing efficiency, passing offense, total offense, scoring offense, pass efficiency defense, scoring defense, sacks, tackles for loss, sacks allowed, net punting and kickoff returns. Unanimous All-American first team wide receiver Marqise Lee won the Biletnikoff Award, was the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Hornung Award and Walter Camp Player of the Year Award as he set 20 USC records, including Pac-12 season records for receptions and receiving yards. Quarterback Matt Barkley became the Pac-12 recordholder for passing yards, completions, touchdowns and total offense as he won the Wuerffel Trophy, was a finalist for the Manning Award, Unitas Golden Arm Award, Senior CLASS Award and ARA Sportsmanship Award and was a 2012 National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete. Wide receiver Robert Woods set the USC career receptions record. Rimington Award finalist center Khaled Holmes made the All-Pac-12 first team, Academic All-American second team and Pac-12 All-Academic first team, while Freshman All-American first team defensive tackle Leonard Williams was the Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year, defensive end Morgan Breslin was a Hendricks Award finalist and offensive lineman Max Tuerk was a Freshman All-American first teamer.

In 2011, he led USC (in its second year of a post-season ban) to a 10-2 overall record, a first place finish in the Pac-12 South Division at 7-2 (Troy beat both representatives in the Pac-12 Championship Game, Oregon and UCLA) and a No. 6 AP ranking (its highest finish since 2008). USC's 2011 win at Notre Dame made him the first Trojan head coach to win his first away game against the Irish and its 50-0 victory over UCLA was the third largest margin in the series' history. He was the 2011 CBSSports.com and CollegeFootballNews.com Pac-12 Coach of the Year, and the Los Angeles Sports Council L.A. Sports Awards Southern California Coach of the Year. His offense produced a 3,500-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard receivers and a 1,000-yard rusher. USC's passing, total offense and scoring averages increased from 2010. The Trojans were sixth nationally in passing efficiency and in the nation's Top 25 in passing, scoring and total offense. USC's yards-per-play average (6.5) was the third highest in school history, while its averages for total offense (456.8) and passing offense (294.2) were the fourth highest and its scoring offense average (35.8) was the fifth highest. Troy's 8 sacks allowed were the fewest at USC since records were kept in 1987 (despite not starting a senior on the offensive line) and ranked the Trojans second nationally in 2011. On the other side of the ball, the Trojans improved from the previous year in rushing, total and scoring defense, with the rushing defense (111.4) and sack averages ranking in the national Top 20. USC held 8 of its 12 opponents to 17 points or less. USC led the Pac-12 in fewest penalty yards and was in the league's Top 3 in third down conversions, time of possession, first downs and red zone defense. And, for the second consecutive year, USC blocked 7 kicks. Kiffin's 2011 Trojans had 3 All-American first teamers (Matt Kalil, Robert Woods, T.J. McDonald), 7 All-Pac-12 first teamers, the Pac-12 Morris Trophy winner (Kalil), the Pac-12 Freshmen Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year (Marqise Lee and Dion Bailey), 5 Freshman All-American first teamers and 3 NFL draftees (including first rounders Kalil and Nick Perry), plus finalists for the Biletnikoff (Woods), Hendricks (Nick Perry) and Manning (Matt Barkley) Awards. Barkley set the Pac-12 season record for TD passes and the USC season mark for pass completion percentage, as well as school game standards for completions, pass yardage, passing TDs and total offense. Woods set the Pac-12 season receptions record and USC game receptions mark, while Woods and Lee combined for more receptions and receiving yardage in a season than any other Trojan duo (they also were the first pair of Trojans to both catch at least 10 passes in the same game). Lee's 11 TD catches were the most by any freshman in the country in 2011 and Randall Telfer's 26 receptions were the most ever by a USC freshman tight end. Bailey and Hayes Pullard were the first Trojan freshmen to lead the team in tackles. Perry led the Pac-12 in sacks (10th nationally).

In 2010 in his first year guiding USC, Kiffin led Troy to an 8-5 overall record (2 of the losses were on field goals at the gun in consecutive games and another came on a touchdown with 2:23 to play) and a third place tie in the Pac-10 at 5-4. He inherited a USC team that was ruled ineligible for post-season play because of an NCAA penalty for violations dating to the previous coaching regime and was short on personnel because of players who transferred once the penalty was announced (Troy had just 72 scholarship players, 13 shy of the NCAA limit). Despite this handicap, only Howard Jones in 1925 and John Robinson in 1976 (both with 11 wins) won more games in their Trojan coaching debut. Kiffin became the first USC head coach since Jess Hill in 1951 to begin his Trojan career with a 4-0 mark. With Kiffin calling the plays, the 2010 Trojan offensive numbers improved from 2009: total offense (431.5, +42.4), rushing offense (189.3, +22.5), passing offense (242.2, +19.9) and scoring offense (31.0, +4.5). USC averaged 6.0 yards per play in 2010, its sixth highest ever, and the Trojans twice had 600-yard offensive outputs. In 2010, offensive tackle Tyron Smith won the Pac-10's Morris Trophy and wide receiver Robert Woods was the Pac-10 Offensive Freshman of the Year (and a Freshman All-American first teamer). Smith was a first round pick in the 2011 NFL draft and was among a national-best 9 Trojan draftees.

Kiffin came back to Troy after guiding Tennessee to a 7-6 record in 2009 in his only season there. The Volunteers finished second in the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division at 4-4 and played in the Chick-Fil-A Bowl. Four of Tennessee's losses were by 10 points or less, including a 2-point road loss to eventual national champion Alabama and 10 points at then-No. 1 Florida. His Vols offense jumped at least 34 places in every national statistical category over the 2008 figures, while the defense was in the nation's Top 25 in pass and total defense. He was the youngest active head coach in the NCAA FBS ranks while at Tennessee.

Before that, Kiffin was the head coach of the NFL's Raiders for 2 years (2007-08), where at age 31 he was the youngest head coach in the NFL's modern era. He was 5-15 with the Raiders (4-12 in 2007 and 1-3 in 2008). His first year, Oakland's offensive numbers improved significantly from 2006 (its scoring offense improved by 7.2 points per game as the Raiders threw 10 more TD passes and its total offense went up 48.6 yards per game, including 35.5 rushing).

Kiffin spent 6 seasons (2001-2006) as an assistant at USC under Pete Carroll. He was the tight ends coach in 2001, then handled the wide receivers the next 5 years. He added the duty of passing game coordinator in 2004, then was promoted to offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator in 2005 and 2006.

He coached a trio of All-American first team wide receivers in his first stint at USC: Mike Williams (2003), Dwayne Jarrett (2005-06, USC's first 2-time All-American wideout) and Steve Smith (2006). Jarrett set the Pac-10 record for career touchdown catches (39) and the USC career mark for receptions (216).

While the offensive coordinator in 2005, USC's offense was in the national Top 6 in every statistical category, including tops in total offense (579.8) and second in scoring offense (49.1), and set Pac-10 records for total offense yardage, first downs, points scored, touchdowns and PATs. The Trojans scored 50 points a school-record 7 times. USC became the first school to have a 3,000-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard runners and a 1,000-yard receiver in a season.

In 2003, Williams set USC career (30) and season (16) touchdown reception records, while fellow wide receiver Keary Colbert set the school career reception record (207). In 2002, Williams and Colbert became USC's first pair of 1,000-yard receivers in a season and wide receiver Kareem Kelly became the Trojan career reception leader (204). Williams, Jarrett, Smith and Colbert all played in the NFL.

Quarterback Matt Leinart won the Heisman Trophy in 2004 while Kiffin was the passing game coordinator and tailback Reggie Bush was the 2005 Heisman winner (later vacated) with Kiffin as the offensive coordinator.

While serving as USC's recruiting coordinator, Troy's recruiting classes in 2005 and 2006 were ranked by some as No. 1 in the nation. He was named one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com in 2005.

Kiffin was a member of USC staffs that helped the Trojans win a pair of national championships (2003-04), post a 51-11 record (not including 14 wins and 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty) and appear in a bowl game each of his initial 6 seasons: 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game, later vacated), 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game, later vacated) and 2007 Rose Bowl.

Before coming to USC the first time, Kiffin was the defensive quality control coach for the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars in 2000 (he worked with the secondary).

He began his coaching career at Fresno State, his alma mater, where for 2 seasons (1997-98) he worked with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and defensive backs as a student assistant.

He then was an assistant at Colorado State in 1999, working with the offensive line. The Rams played in the Liberty Bowl that season.

Kiffin was a quarterback at Fresno State for 3 seasons (1994-96). He earned his bachelor's degree in leisure service management from Fresno State in 1998.

He prepped at Bloomington (Minn.) Jefferson High, where he played football, basketball and baseball.

He was born May 9, 1975. He and his wife, Layla, have 2 daughters, Landry, 6, and Presley, 5, and a son, Knox, 3.

His father, Monte (he is with the Dallas Cowboys after serving as USC's defensive coordinator in 2010 and 2011), has 47 years of coaching experience on the collegiate and NFL levels, having been on the staffs of programs that won 2 national championships (at Nebraska) and a Super Bowl (Tampa Bay Buccaneers). His brother, Chris, was a defensive lineman at Colorado State (2001-04) who was then an offensive intern at Nebraska and in 2010 was a defensive assistant at USC (he now is the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Mississippi after previously serving at Arkansas State). His father-in-law, John Reaves, was a former quarterback at Florida and 11 years in the NFL (Philadelphia Eagles, Cincinnati Bengals, Minnesota Vikings, Houston Oilers, Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and 3 years in the USFL (Tampa Bay Bandits) who then was an assistant coach at Florida and South Carolina. His brother-in-law, David Reaves, was a quarterback at Appalachian State, then an assistant coach at South Carolina, Tennessee and New Mexico, a quarterback instructor at the IMG Football Academy and now an assistant at South Florida. Another brother-in-law, Stephen Reaves, played quarterback at Michigan State and Southern Miss and for the CFL's Toronto Argonauts (he then was an offensive assistant at USC).

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT LANE KIFFIN

John Taylor, NBCSports.com: "Considering the sanctions with which Kiffin and the football program had to deal, the coach that everybody loves to hate has done an outstanding job."

Former UCLA head coach Terry Donahue: "I know there's a lot of controversy around Lane, but people don't have the proper appreciation of his ability to coach. He's a very fine young developing coach."

Tom Lemming, MaxPreps.com: "He's personable and the players absolutely love him. He works as hard as any coach in the country."

Matt Hayes, Sporting News: "Kiffin has more than proved he can develop quarterbacks and expose defenses as a play-caller."

Greg Biggins, ESPNRise.com: "To the recruits and parents we've talked to, USC hired Vince Lombardi."

Former USC quarterback Matt Barkley: "I think it's really good USC has someone who knows Trojan football and the traditions and knows how we rock."

Grant Tunkel, Daily Trojan: "The Kiffin hire was exactly what USC needed to continue the legacy that Pete Carroll built. Hiring Kiffin provides the Trojans with a perfect mix. He is enough of a link to the Carroll era to instill continued confidence in the program from the start, but he's still his own coach with the drive to succeed. He knows the landscape well. He brings with him the mentality necessary to succeed at an elite program. He is young and charismatic, making him the perfect choice to connect with current players and recruit new ones."

Former USC and current Seattle Seahawks head coach Pete Carroll: "It's good that USC acted quickly to get a coach connecting with our history. Lane's going to do great."

Former Tennessee head football coach Johnny Majors: "I was around him at Tennessee. I watched practice, talked to the squad a couple of times, and spent some time in his office. And I believe he is a very good football coach. He's very aggressive and well organized. He's demanding and he and his staff attacked recruiting very aggressively. I think he is going to be very, very successful in the long run."

Former USC All-American and NFL wide receiver Mike Williams: "God is shining on the Trojan faithful. I couldn't imagine a better pick. I think Kiff is the closest thing you can get to what Coach Carroll brought. It's a no-brainer."

Former USC and NFL wide receiver Keary Colbert: "He's just like Coach Carroll. He's high-spirited and likes to have fun."

Allen Wallace, Scout.com: "Kiffin is one of the best evaluators of talent I've ever come across. He likes to work very hard. I can't imagine a better choice for USC."

Former Tennessee linebacker Nigel Mitchell-Thornton: "I liked his oomph, liked that energy. He definitely threw you out there on the field and let you compete, which a lot of us liked."

Former USC athletic director Mike Garrett: "I was able to watch Lane closely when he was an assistant with us and what I saw was a bright, creative young coach who I thought would make an excellent head coach here if the opportunity ever arose. He brings a lot to the table. He has a coaching background both in the pros and in the best collegiate conferences. He has a great command of the X's and O's. He is familiar with the Trojan landscape. He keeps the game fun. And, very importantly, he has proven to be one of the finest recruiters anywhere."

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOHN BAXTER
Associate Head Coach
Special Teams Coordinator
Tight Ends

John Baxter, known for producing extremely-productive special teams play on the field and developing academic success for players off the field, is in his fourth year at USC as the associate head coach and special teams coordinator. He added the tight ends to his coaching duties in 2013. He joined the USC staff in March of 2010 after spending 13 seasons on the Fresno State coaching staff.

In 2012, punter Kyle Negrete was a finalist for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.

He was named the 2011 FootballScoop.com Special Teams Coordinator of the Year. For the second consecutive year, USC blocked 7 kicks. The Trojans also had a scoring kickoff return, made a 2-point conversion and converted a fake punt for a first down. In 2011, placekicker Andre Heidari made Freshman All-American first team and All-Pac-12 first team, and his 88.2% field goal percentage was third in the nation among kickers with at least 10 made field goals (and the best among freshmen kickers). Tight end-fullback Rhett Ellison made the All-Pac-12 first team as a special teams performer.

In 2010, USC's special teams blocked 7 kicks and punts, returned a punt and kickoff for a touchdown, scored 5 times on 2-point conversions, had a defensive PAT and made first downs on a fake punt and fake field goal. USC ranked high nationally in punt returns (seventh at 14.6) and kickoff returns (17th at 24.5) with wide receiver Ronald Johnson placing 12th nationally in punt returns (14.2). Wide receiver Robert Woods made the All-Pac-10 first team as a kick returner. Johnson was a sixth round pick in the 2011 NFL draft.

In his 13 years (1997-2009) at Fresno State, Baxter was the associate head coach and special teams coach in addition to handling either the tight ends (1997-2001, 2003, 2009) or wide receivers (2002, 2004-2008).

Baxter turned the Bulldogs' special teams into one of the top units in the nation annually. During his time, Fresno State blocked 84 kicks and punts (including a national-best 49 from 2002 through 2009) and scored 39 special teams touchdowns (with 3 safeties). The Bulldogs topped the nation in fewest punt return yards allowed in 2004 and 2005. A.J. Jefferson led the nation in kickoff returns in 2007. Clifton Smith's 189 punt return yards with 2 touchdowns against Weber State in 2005 were Fresno State game records, while his 5 career scoring punt returns also was a school mark. Six of Baxter's Bulldog kickers and punters earned All-Western Athletic Conference first team honors.

During his time at Fresno State, the Bulldogs posted a 100-66 record, played in 10 bowls (1999 Las Vegas, 2000-01-02-03 Silicon Valley, 2004 MPC Computers, 2005 AutoZone Liberty, 2007 Roady's Humanitarian and 2008-09 New Mexico) and won the WAC title in 1999.

Along with his coaching duties at Fresno State, Baxter developed the highly-successful and nationally-regarded program, "Academic Gameplan." His innovative and comprehensive study-skills program teaches students the rules, fundamentals, techniques and life skills needed to succeed in the classroom. "Academic Gameplan," which is now being used at schools throughout the country, was a key reason for the academic success of the Fresno State football program, which during Baxter's tenure produced 141 Academic All-WAC players and an NCAA APR score nearly 20 percentage points higher than the national average.

He was selected as the Clovis Co-Citizen of the Year in 2006, along with Fresno State head coach Pat Hill.

Baxter, 50, has 32 years of coaching experience. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Loras College, where he served for 5 seasons (1981-85) as a student assistant (working with the running backs) during his undergraduate time.

He then moved on to Iowa State for 2 seasons (1986-87) as a graduate assistant working with the defensive line and special teams before the first of 2 stints at Arizona. He was with the Wildcats in 1988 (as a graduate assistant working with the defensive backs and special teams), went to Maine in 1989 for his first full-time job coaching the outside linebackers and special teams when the Black Bears made it to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs and returned to Arizona in 1990 and 1991 as the tight ends and special teams coach (the Wildcats played in the 1990 Aloha Bowl). He then was at Maryland for 2 seasons (1992-93) handling the running backs and special teams and Tulane for 3 years (1994-96) in charge of the tight ends and special teams before going to Fresno State.

He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Loras in 1985 and then his master's in higher education from Iowa State in 1987.

He prepped at Loyola Academy in Chicago (Ill.).

He was born on June 28, 1963. He and his wife, Jill, have 2 daughters, Kelly, 17, and McKenzie, 15. His father-in-law is former Utah and Weber State head coach Ron McBride.

JAMES CREGG
Offensive Line

James Cregg is in his fourth year at USC as the offensive line coach. He joined the USC staff in January of 2010 after spending 13 years coaching on the collegiate and NFL levels.

In 2012, center Khaled Holmes was a Rimington Award finalist and made All-Pac-12 first team, as well as Academic All-American second team and Pac-12 All-Academic first team. He was a fourth round pick in the 2013 NFL draft.

In 2011, USC was second in the nation in sacks allowed, surrendering just 8 (the fewest since records were kept in 1987) and did so while not starting a senior on the line. Offensive tackle Matt Kalil was an All-American first teamer and won the Pac-12 Morris Trophy before being the fourth pick of the 2012 NFL Draft, while offensive guard Marcus Martin was a Freshman All-American first team pick.

In 2010, offensive tackle Tyron Smith won the Pac-10 Morris Trophy, made All-Pac-10 first team and was a first round pick in the 2011 NFL draft.

Cregg spent 2009 at Tennessee as the offensive line coach. The Vols tied for the Southeastern Conference regular season lead with only 12 sacks allowed. Cregg's line helped tailback Montario Hardesty rush for 1,345 yards and 13 touchdowns (nearly a 1,000 more yards than he previously had in any season). Tackle Aaron Douglas made the SEC All-Freshman team.

Before that, he was an offensive line assistant with the NFL's Oakland Raiders for 2 years (2007-08).

Cregg, 40, began his coaching career at his alma mater, Colorado State, where he was a student assistant working with the offensive line in 1996 and then a graduate assistant for 3 seasons (1997-99). The Rams went 11-2 in 1997 as they captured the Western Athletic Conference title and won the Holiday Bowl, while the 1999 squad was the Mountain West Conference co-champion and played in the Liberty Bowl.

He then coached the defensive line at Colgate for 4 years (2000-03). The Raiders advanced to the 2003 NCAA Division I-AA championship game, but lost to Delaware to snap a school-record 21-game winning streak. In both of his final 2 seasons, Colgate won the Patriot League title, finished in the Top 10 nationally in rushing defense and was first in the conference in total defense.

He next spent 3 seasons (2004-06) coaching the defensive line at Idaho before moving on to the NFL.

Cregg was a 3-year (1993-95) letterman at Colorado State, starting on the offensive line his final 2 seasons and earning All-WAC honors as a senior. The Rams won the WAC title in 1994 and 1995 and played in the Holiday Bowl both seasons.

He received his bachelor's degree in social science from Colorado State in 1997.

He prepped at Norco (Calif.) High and was elected into the Norco High Hall of Fame in 2001.

He was born Aug. 18, 1973. He and his wife, Dayna, have a daughter, McKenzie, 8.

He also was a 2012 National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete. He was a fourth round pick in the 2013 NFL draft.

In 2011, Barkley was a Manning Award and Wuerrfel Trophy finalist as he set the Pac-12 season record for TD passes (39) and the USC season mark for pass completion percentage (69.1%), as well as school game standards for completions (35), pass yardage (468), passing TDs (6) and total offense (470). Helton, 41, began his 10-year (2000-09) Memphis career as the running backs coach for 3 seasons, then coached the Tigers' receivers for the next 4 seasons before becoming the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach the final 3 years.

Among the Tigers' running backs he tutored was school rushing/scoring/all-purpose running recordholder DeAngelo Williams, who went on to finish seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting in 2005 and be an NFL first round selection.

As the receivers coach, he produced a pair of Conference USA All-Freshman picks in Maurice Jones (2005) and Duke Calhoun (2006), as well as the school's No. 4 all-time receptions leader in Ryan Scott. In 2003, Memphis set school season records for receptions and receiving yardage.

As the Tigers' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, the 2007 and 2008 offenses were among the top 6 in school history in total yards and points. Both squads were ranked in the top 26 nationally in total offense. Quarterback Martin Hankins became Memphis' No. 2 career passer and set single season records for completions, passing yards and touchdown passes in 2007. In 2009, Curtis Steele had his second consecutive season with 1,000 rushing yards, Calhoun became the school's all-time leading receiver and Carlos Singleton set the career mark for receiving touchdowns.

Memphis played in 5 bowls during Helton's time: the 2003 and 2007 New Orleans Bowls, 2004 GMAC Bowl, 2005 Motor City Bowl and 2008 St. Petersburg Bowl.

Helton was hired as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas State after the 2009 season, but was there just 2 months before coming to USC.

He played quarterback at Houston in 1993 and 1994, playing for his father both seasons and captaining the Cougars as a 1994 senior. In 1993, he completed 1-of-3 passes in late duty in Houston's 49-7 loss to USC in the Coliseum.

He spent 1991 and 1992 at Auburn, where he earned 1992 SEC All-Academic honors. He redshirted there in 1990.

He earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics and interdisciplinary science from Houston in 1994.

He prepped at Clements High in Sugarland (Tex.)

He was born on June 24, 1972. He and his wife, Angela, have 3 children: sons Reid, 16, and Turner, 10, and daughter Aubrey, 14. Besides being Houston's head coach from 1993 to 1999, his father, Kim, was an assistant in college (Florida, Miami and Alabama Birmingham), the NFL (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Houston Oilers, Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins) and the CFL (Toronto Argonauts) following his playing career at Florida. His brother, Tyson, is the running backs coach at Alabama Birmingham after assistant coaching stops at Memphis and Hawaii and playing at Houston.

ED ORGERON
Assistant Head Coach
Recruiting Coordinator
Defensive Line

Ed Orgeron, one of the most popular assistant coaches in USC history, is in his fourth year back at Troy as the recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach after returning to the Trojan staff in January of 2010. He also was the defensive coordinator in 2010 and 2011 and then the assistant head coach starting in 2012. It's his 10th overall season at USC.

In 2012, Sporting News selected him as the nation's No. 2 recruiter and Rivals.com named him one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters. Defensive end Morgan Breslin was a Hendricks Award finalist, while defensive tackle Leonard Williams was named a Freshman All-American first teamer and the Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year.

In 2011, he was named the Scout.com/FOXSports.com National Recruiter of the Year, ESPNU/ESPN The Magazine named him the top recruiter in college football (and third best in all of collegiate athletics) and Rivals.com ranked him as the second-best recruiter of the previous 10 years (2002-11). USC in 2011 improved from the previous year in rushing, total and scoring defense, with the rushing defense (111.4) and sack averages ranking in the national Top 20. USC held 8 of its 12 opponents to 17 points or less. Defensive end Nick Perry, who tied for 10th nationally in sacks (tops in the Pac-12), was a 2011 All-Pac-12 first teamer and a finalist for the Hendrick Award before being an NFL first round selection.

In 2010, defensive tackle Jurrell Casey was an All-Pac-10 first teamer and a third round pick in the 2011 NFL draft.

Orgeron left USC after 7 seasons there to become the head coach at Mississippi for 3 years (2005-07), where he went 10-25.

He then was the defensive line coach with the NFL's New Orleans Saints in 2008 and spent 2009 as Tennessee's assistant head coach, recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach.

He was named the 2004 National Recruiter of the Year by The Sporting News and Rivals.com.

He coached All-American first team defensive linemen Kenechi Udeze (2003), Shaun Cody (2004) and Mike Patterson (2004), all future NFLers. The Trojans led the nation in rushing defense in 2003 behind the highly-regarded "Wild Bunch II" defensive line and were second in 2004. USC won the 2003 and 2004 national championship and played in 5 bowls games when he was on the staff: 1998 Sun Bowl, 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl and 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game).

Orgeron, 52, has 28 years of coaching experience. Before coming to USC, he was Syracuse's defensive line coach for 3 seasons (1995-97) and the Orangemen played in a bowl game each year (1996 Gator, 1996 Liberty and 1997 Fiesta).

He came to Syracuse from Nicholls State, where he was the linebackers coach in 1994.

CLANCY PENDERGAST
Defensive Coordinator
Secondary

Clancy Pendergast, who has coordinated some of the top defenses in the NFL and in college during the past nine years, was named USC's defensive coordinator in January of 2013. He will also work with USC's secondary.

The 45-year-old Pendergast, who spent 1992 as a defensive assistant at USC, is known for his aggressive defenses that use creative schemes to create pressure.

He spent the past three years (2010-12) as the defensive coordinator at California. The Golden Bears led the conference in total defense, pass defense and fewest first downs allowed in each of his first two seasons while producing nine NFL players, including first rounder Cameron Jordan, and three All-Conference first teamers, including 2011 Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year Mychal Kendricks.

In 2010, Cal topped the Pac-10 in sacks and was in the league's top five in scoring defense, rushing defense, pass efficiency defense and opponent third down conversions while holding four opponents to 10 or less points (the most by a Golden Bear defense since 1968) and three foes to under 200 total yards.

In 2011, Cal was in the Pac-12's top three in rushing defense, pass efficiency defense, sacks and tackles for loss while notching 23 turnovers and 34 sacks and holding five teams under 70 rushing yards. The Golden Bears played in the Holiday Bowl.

His young 2012 Cal defense, with only five returning starters, held the wide-open offenses of UCLA and Washington State to just 17 points each.

Pendergast went to Cal after six seasons as an NFL defensive coordinator with the Arizona Cardinals (2004-08), including when the Cardinals won the 2008 NFC title to earn a berth in Super Bowl XLIII, and Kansas City Chiefs (2009). His squads had 176 takeaways during those six years.

In his five seasons with Arizona, his defense finished 20th or better in the final NFL rankings 37 times in categories such as points allowed, total yards allowed, rushing yards allowed, passing yards allowed, yards allowed per play, opponents third down percentage, sacks, interceptions and fumbles recovered.

Cardinal linemen Bertrand Berry and Darnell Dockett were Pro Bowlers in his defense. He also worked with Arizona's secondary, coaching safety Adrian Wilson to a pair of Pro Bowls.

In 2004, Arizona was 12th in the NFL in total defense and scoring defense, as well as in the top five in third down defense and fumble recoveries, and it forced 30 turnovers. Linebacker Karlos Dansby was an All-Rookie honoree.

His 2005 unit was in the NFL's top 10 in total defense, third down efficiency, first downs allowed and fumble recoveries, while his 2006 defense forced 33 turnovers, the most by the Cardinals since 1998 and tied for fifth in the NFL that year.

In 2007, Arizona was ninth in the NFL in run defense and set a modern-day NFL record by holding the Detroit Lions to minus 18 rushing yards. Its six scoring interception returns and 551 interception return yards that season were franchise records as the Cardinals tied for 10th in the NFL in interceptions.

In 2008, Arizona tied for fifth in the league with 30 takeaways, including forcing 13 turnovers during its playoff run.

In 2009 with Kansas City, a young Chiefs defense had 28 takeaways and 22 sacks. The unit improved significantly in sacks, rushing touchdowns allowed and third down conversions from the previous year.

Pendergast began his NFL coaching career in 1995 as a defensive assistant/quality control coach with the Houston Oilers.

He then spent seven seasons (1996-2002) with the Dallas Cowboys as part of staffs that won two NFC East titles (1996 and 1998) and made three NFC playoff appearances (1996, 1998-99). He was a defensive assistant and quality control coach his first four seasons (1996-99), then oversaw Dallas' nickel defense packages in 2000 before coaching the defensive backs in his final two campaigns (2001-02). The Cowboys were third in the NFL in pass defense in 2000 and 2001. He tutored safety Roy Williams, who was an All-Rookie selection in 2002, as well as All-Pro and three-time Pro Bowl safety Darren Woodson.

He then was the linebackers coach with the Cleveland Browns in 2003.

Pendergast started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State in 1991 before becoming a Trojan defensive assistant in 1992 under head coach Larry Smith. He then was a graduate assistant/tight ends at Oklahoma for two seasons (1993-94). Each of those college teams played in a bowl, as Mississippi State qualified for the Liberty Bowl, USC for the Freedom Bowl and Oklahoma for the John Hancock and Copper Bowls.

He prepped at Tolleson (Ariz.) High, then received his bachelor's degree in agriculture from Arizona in 1990.

Born on Nov. 29, 1967, he is single.

TOMMIE ROBINSON
Passing Game Coordinator
Running Backs

Tommie Robinson, who has coached running backs at the collegiate and NFL levels, joined the USC staff in Feburary of 2013 as the running backs coach.

Robinson, 50, handled the Arizona Cardinals' running backs the past 3 years (2010-12). In 2011, he helped Beanie Wells become the first player in franchise history to run for at least 1,000 yards and 10 touchdowns. Wells also set a franchise game rushing record with 228 yards against the St. Louis Rams that season. The Cardinals' rushing attack was hampered in 2012 by injuries and the 2010 offense was primarily pass oriented.

He spent the previous 3 seasons (2007-09) as the running backs coach at Miami (Fla.), helping the Hurricanes to the 2008 Emerald Bowl and 2009 Champs Sports Bowl, after working in 2006 with the running back at Memphis.

Before Memphis, he coached 4 seasons (2002-05) at Georgia Tech, coaching wide receivers the first year and then tight ends the next 3 seasons. Tech wideouts Kerry Watkins and Will Glover finished their careers in 2002 among the school's Top 5 all-time receivers. Tight ends John Paul Foschi and Darius Williams played in the NFL. The Yellow Jackets played in the 2002 Silicon Valley Classic, 2004 Humanitarian Bowl and 2004 Champs Sports Bowl.

He spent 2001 as the running backs coach at Oklahoma State, working with future NFLer Tatum Bell.

He was an offensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys for 3 years (1998-2000), working with the wide receivers (including future Hall of Famer Michael Irvin) and special teams. The 1998 and 1999 Cowboys advanced to the NFL playoffs and the 1998 squad won the NFC East title.

He went to the Cowboys after a 3-month stop as the running backs coach at UNLV early in 1998. Before that, he coached running backs at Utah State for 2 years (1992-93), helping the Aggies to the 1993 Las Vegas Bowl, and wide receivers at TCU for 4 seasons (1994-97), as the Horned Frogs played in the 1994 Independence Bowl.

He began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1991, as the Razorbacks played in the 1991 Independence Bowl.

He started coaching at the high school level, guiding Woodham High in Pensacola (Fla.) in 1986 and 1987 and Central High in Phenix City (Ala.), his alma mater, from 1988 to 1990.

During his various college stops, he also served minority coaching internships with the New Orleans Saints, St. Louis Rams, Dallas Cowboys and Miami Dolphins.

He was a 3-year starter at strong safety and team captain as a senior at Troy State, where he was a member of the 1984 Division II national championship team. He received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice at Troy State in 1985.

He was born on April 4, 1963. He and his wife, Lartonyar, have 3 children: sons Dantrell, 27, and Trey, 17, and daughter Tawanda, 20.

Mike Summers, who has helped develop some of the most productive offenses in the history of various football powers during his 33 years as a coach, joined the USC staff in February of 2013 as the running game coordinator and offensive line coach.

Summers, 57, was hired in January of 2013 as Western Kentucky's offensive line coach before coming to USC.

Before that, he was the run game coordinator and offensive line coach at Kentucky for 3 seasons (2010-12). The 2010 Wildcats' offense averaged 6.1 yards per play behind his line that had only 1 returning starter and the 2012 squad averaged nearly 140 rushing yards despite the line's injury-plagued season. Kentucky played in the 2011 BBVA Compass Bowl.

He spent the 2 previous seasons (2008-09) at Arkansas, where he was the assistant head coach and offensive line coach. Arkansas led the Southeastern Conference in scoring in 2009 and won the 2010 AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Both center Jonathan Luigs, who was a finalist for the 2008 Rimington Trophy, and guard Mitch Petrus, a 2009 All-SEC first teamer, played in the NFL.

He was the Atlanta Falcons' offensive line coach in 2007 after spending 4 years (2003-06) coaching the offensive line at Louisville. In 2006, his line helped the Cardinals rank second nationally in total offense (475.3), seventh in passing (290.0) and 12th in rushing (185.3) as 3 of his linemen (Renardo Foster, Kurt Quarterman and George Bussey) were All-Big East first team picks. The 2004 line helped Louisville, which set a school record with 6,468 total yards, 3,005 rushing yards, 597 points and 47 rushing TDs while allowing only 20 sacks, lead the nation in total offense (539.0) and scoring offense (49.8). In 2003, the Cards set a set a then-school rushing record while ranking fifth nationally in total offense (488.9) and 10th in rushing offense (228.2). Two of his other linemen, Jason Spitz and Travis Leffew, were All-Conference USA first team in 2004 and All-Big East first team in 2005. Foster, Quarterman, Bussey, Spitz, Leffew and center Eric Wood all made NFL rosters, with Wood a first round selection. During his tenure, Louisville won the 2004 Conference USA championship and 2006 Big East title, and played in the 2007 Orange Bowl, 2006 Gator Bowl, 2004 Liberty Bowl and 2003 GMAC Bowl. The 2004 and 2006 Cardinal teams both finished ranked No. 6 by AP.

He spent 2 seasons (2001-02) at Ohio as the offensive line coach. The Bobcats were sixth nationally in rushing offense in 2001 (240.1) and eighth in 2002 (239.8).

In 2000, he was the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State.

The previous 4 years (1996-99), he was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at the University of the South (Sewanee), where he produced Top 5-ranked rushing and total offenses in the conference.

He was assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Oregon State for 5 seasons (1991-95) and also recruiting coordinator in his first year. The Beavers led the Pac-10 in rushing his final 4 seasons. He was named the league's top "Offensive Backfield Coach" in 1993.

While offensive coordinator at Northern Illinois for 6 seasons (1985-90), his offense established 51 school records and 7 NCAA marks.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant working with the offensive line at Kentucky (1980-81) and Texas A&M (1982-84).

He played defensive back at Georgetown (Kent.) College after prepping at Tates Creek High in Lexington (Kent.).

He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Georgetown College in 1978 and a postgraduate degree from Kentucky in 1980.

He was born on June 16, 1956. He and his wife, Kathy (the daughter of legendary Kentucky men's basketball coach Joe B. Hall), have a daughter, Amy, 30.

He has had at least 8 receptions in 14 games in his career, including 9 in a row at one point (last 4 of 2011, first 5 of 2012). He has had 20 receiving TDs in the past 17 games, with at least 1 in 12 of those contests. His pair of 1,000-yard receiving seasons (2011 and 2012) equals a school record. He has 2 career scoring kickoff returns. He has 4,144 career all-purpose yards on 249 plays (16.6 avg.) with 27 TDs. He has 21 career starts.

2013: The exciting Lee, who also competes on USC's track team, returns for his third season as a record-setting starting wide receiver and kickoff returner as a junior in 2013. The 2012 unanimous All-American and reigning Biletnikoff Award winner and Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year is a leading candidate for the 2013 Heisman Trophy.

2012: Lee started for his second season at wide receiver as a sophomore in 2012 and again returned kicks. Overall in 2012 while starting all 13 games, he caught 118 passes for 1,721 yards (14.6 avg.) with 14 TDs, returned 30 kickoffs for 856 yards (28.5 avg.) with 1 TD, had 13 carries for 106 yards (8.2 avg.) and made 2 tackles. He was second nationally in receptions (9.1, first in Pac-12) and receiving yards (132.4), third in all-purpose yards (206.4, first in Pac-12) and eighth in kickoff returns (28.5, first in Pac-12). He set or tied 16 USC individual records in 2012 (5 are Pac-12 marks) and 4 other school combination records that he set with Robert Woods. His 118 receptions and 1,721 receiving yards were Pac-12 season records. His 118 receptions in 2012 were most in the nation, his 1,721 receiving yards were second most in the nation, his 14 TD catches were tied for third most and his 2,683 all-purpose yards were third most. He averaged 16.7 yards every time he touched the ball in 2012. The average length of his 15 TDs in 2012 was 40.8 yards. He had 16 plays of 40-plus yards in 2012 (including 11 of 50-plus yards and 7 of 70-plus yards). More than half of his 2012 receptions (63 of 118, 53.4%) were for first downs. His 38.2% of USC's team all-purpose yardage in 2012 was more than any Heisman-winning wide receiver had (Nebraska's Johnny Rodgers had 30.4% in 1972, Notre Dame's Tim Brown had 35.0% in 1987, Michigan's Desmond Howard had 30.7% in 1991 and Michigan's Charles Woodson had 10.5% in 1997), as well as more than the last non-quarterback Heisman winner (Alabama's Mark Ingram had 27.1% in 2009). He had 8 100-yard receiving games in 2012. He had a 3-game stretch in 2012 (Arizona, Oregon, Arizona State) with 663 receiving yards that is the most prolific in USC history (he had other 3-game stretches with 608 and 605 receiving yards). He had a school-record 7 games with double digit receptions in 2012.

He had 408 all-purpose yards (the 16th most in NCAA history) against Oregon, including a Pac-12 record 251 yards on a school-record 8 kickoff returns (with an 82-yarder) and 157 yards with 2 TDs (with a 75-yarder) on 12 receptions to earn College Football Performance Awards National All-Purpose Performer of the Week and Paul Hornung Award Weekly Honor Roll, while Woods had 6 catches for 71 yards with a TD. Aliso Viejo, CA (Mission Viejo HS)

2013: Now healthy after missing 2012 with a knee injury, Madden will battle to start at tailback as a sophomore in 2013. He sat out 2013 spring drills while recuperating from the 2012 knee injury.

2012: Madden, who was switched from linebacker to tailback in 2012 spring practice and looked impressive, was on track to be a key contributor as a sophomore in 2012 before a torn left knee ligament sidelined him for the 2012 season and allowed him to redshirt.

2012 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 – September 1, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 49, Hawaii 10
Att: 93,607

Hawaii	0	0	10	0	—	10
USC	20	15	7	7	—	49

WR Marqise Lee scored 2 electrifying touchdowns, QB Matt Barkley threw 4 TD passes (including a pair to WR Robert Woods) and the Trojan defense came up with 4 turnovers as No. 1-ranked USC opened its 2012 campaign with a dominating 49-10 win over Hawaii before a sold out Coliseum crowd of 93,607 and a national FOX television audience.

It was USC's 15th consecutive victory in an opener and kept Troy undefeated in 8 tries against Hawaii. USC, bowl eligible after a 2-year NCAA ban, scored at least 30 points for its ninth consecutive game.

Lee took a Barkley hitch pass on the game's opening play, put a move on his defender and raced 75 yards for a touchdown. Then on USC's first possession of the second half, he returned a kickoff 100 yards for a score, becoming just the second Trojan to have a 100-yard scoring kickoff return (along with Anthony Davis, who did so twice in 1974). Overall, Lee had 297 all-purpose yards, including 197 on 10 receptions.

USC built a 35-0 halftime lead as Woods caught a 20-yard TD from Barkley to cap a 99-yard drive, followed by a 27-yard scoring interception return by LB Hayes Pullard late in the first quarter. TB Silas Redd, who transferred from Penn State, ran for a 31-yard TD early in the second quarter after DT Christian Heyward recovered a fumble, then Barkley hit Woods for a 2-yard score and PK Andre Heidari nailed a 28-yard field goal at the halftime gun. USC had 348 total yards at halftime to SU's 83 (the Orange managed -4 on the ground), with Barkley throwing for 304 yards and Lee having 8 grabs for 176 yards.

Hawaii got on the board on its first drive of the second half as QB Scott Schroeder found WR Scott Harding on an 18-yard TD toss, but Lee took the ensuing kickoff return back 100 yards. Hawaii responded with a 36-yard field goal by PK Tyler Hadden, but USC answered with an 11-yard Barkley TD pass to TE Randall Telfer early in the fourth quarter.

USC had 475 total yards in the game to Hawaii's 264, but the Trojans converted just 4-of-14 third downs. Of the 62 Trojans who played, 27 were seeing their first USC action.

Overall, Barkley was 23-of-38 for 372 yards, Woods had 6 catches for 42 yards and Redd ran 56 yards on 9 carries.

LB Dion Bailey led USC with 7 tackles, Pullard and CB Anthony Brown had 6 and DE Morgan Breslin had 5 while becoming the first junior college transfer to start on the USC defensive line since end Marcus Bonds did so in 4 mid-season games in 1994. USC posted 5 sacks. S Josh Shaw also had an interception and DT Leonard Williams recovered a fumble.

For Hawaii, Schroeder was 24-of-39 for 208 yards, WR Jeremiah Ostrowski had 8 catches for 34 yards and RB Will Gregory had 48 yards on 10 carries. Norm Chow, the former USC offensive coordinator, was making his career head coaching debut.

Late USC All-American and NFL star linebacker Junior Seau was remembered during the game and flags were at half-staff in memory of late astronaut Neil Armstrong, a USC alumnus. For the first time since 1953, fan could take rail service to the Coliseum. It was USC's first game broadcast on FOX.

GAME 2 – September 8, East Rutherford, New Jersey
USC 42, Syracuse 29
Att: 39,507

USC	0	14	7	21	—	42
Syracuse	0	3	13	13	—	29

QB Matt Barkley threw a school record-tying 6 touchdown passes, including a school record-tying 3 to WR Marqise Lee and 2 to WR Robert Woods, and LB Dion Bailey had a pair of interceptions to help No. 2 USC overcome a sluggish start and beat Syracuse, 42-29, in "New York's College Classic" before 39,507 fans in MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J., and a national ABC-TV audience in a game that was delayed for 70 minutes at halftime because of severe weather and lightning in the area.

It was USC's first visit to the New York City metropolitan area since 2000.

Barkley celebrated his 22nd birthday by completing 23-of-30 passes for 187 yards, while Lee (11 catches for 66 yards) and Woods (10 catches for 93 yards) registered only the second game in USC history that a duo had double digit receptions (they also did so versus UCLA in 2011). Woods had 200 all-purpose yards, including a 31-yard punt return that led to a Trojan fourth quarter TD after the Orange had pulled within 5 points and then a 76-yard reverse on the following series that led to another USC TD. TB Silas Redd, from nearby Connecticut, ran for 107 yards on 15 carries, while TD Curtis McNeal added 63 yards on 11 tries. Bailey, fellow LB Hayes Pullard and CB Torin Harris each had 8 tackles.

Syracuse actually outgained USC, 455 to 445, while getting 24 more plays (87-63). USC ran for 258 yards, while the Orange passed for 322 yards. Troy was penalized 12 times.

After a scoreless first quarter, Barkley hit Lee (13 yards) early in the second quarter and Woods (29 yards) late in the half for touchdowns before Syracuse got a 37-yard field goal from PK Ross Krautman at the halftime gun.

After a Bailey interception on SU's opening drive of the second half, Woods caught a 4-yard Barkley TD toss before the Orange scored twice within a span of 2:09 (on a 3-yard pass from QB Ryan Nassib to WR Marcus Sales and an 8-yard run by HB Prince-Tyson Gulley following a Barkley pick) to pull within 21-16. But USC, behind Woods' big plays, forged a more secure lead early in the fourth quarter on a 22-yard Barkley TD pass to TE Xavier Grimble, who broke free from 4 Syracuse tacklers, and then a 4-yard Barkley-to-Lee scoring toss on the following Trojan possession. Syracuse responded on the ensuing drive as Nassib connected with Sales for a 14-yard score, but USC countered with a 3-yard Barkley pass to Lee several plays Redd had a 40-yard run.

Nassib's 1-yard run with 1:17 to play ended the game's scoring. Nassib was 30-of-46 for 322 yards, Sales had 8 receptions for 104 yards and Gulley ran for 56 yards on 9 carries.

USC	7	7	0	0	—	14
Stanford	7	0	7	7	—	21

No. 21 Stanford, behind 213 all-purpose yards with 2 TDs from TB Stepfan Taylor and a stifling defense that shut out the Trojans in the game's final 41 minutes, upset No. 2 USC, 21-14, in the Pac-12 opener before a sold-out crowd of 50,360 at Stanford Stadium and a national FOX television audience.

Troy suffered its fourth consecutive loss to the Cardinal for the first time ever (and its fifth in the past 6 contests). USC's streak of scoring at least 30 points was snapped at 10 games.

Stanford limited USC to 280 total yards (just 91 in the second half), including just 26 on the ground (its fewest since getting 1 rushing yards versus Utah in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl), and 0-of-12 on third down conversions. The Cardinal came up with 3 turnovers and sacked QB Matt Barkley 4 times while picking him off twice.

USC built a 14-7 lead 18:41 into the game on a pair of 1-yard TD runs by TB Silas Redd sandwiching a 59-yard scoring burst by Taylor.

But it was all Stanford after that, as QB Josh Nunes hit Taylor on a 23-yard game-tying pass late in the third quarter and then found TE Zach Ertz on a 37-yard TD toss on the next possession.

Taylor ran for 153 yards on 27 carries and added 60 yards on 5 receptions, Ertz had 3 catches for 71 yards and Nunes was 15-of-32 for 215 yards but had 2 aerials picked off. The Cardinal had 417 total yards, including 202 rushing, but converted just 5-of-14 third downs and missed 3 field goals.

Barkley was 20-of-41 for 254 yards, with 8 completions going to WR Marqise Lee for 100 yards. LB Lamar Dawson had a game-best 10 tackles, LB Dion Bailey added 9 tackles and an interception, S T.J. McDonald had 9 stops and blocked a field goal and S Jawanza Starling had an interception. USC was without starting C Khaled Holmes, who was injured the previous week.

It was only the second time in history that the Trojans played in a game that finished with a 21-14 score.

California	0	3	6	0	—	9
USC	7	10	0	10	—	27

Behind a defense that posted 9 sacks, including 3.5 by DE Morgan Breslin, and an offense fueled by 100-yard rushing outings from TBs Silas Redd and Curtis McNeal along with a pair of TD throws from QB Matt Barkley to WR Marqise Lee, No. 13 USC had a nice bounce back win over California, 27-9, on a hot and humid afternoon in the Coliseum before 83,421 fans and a Pac-12 Networks national TV audience.

It was USC's ninth consecutive win over the Golden Bears and it came in the 100th meeting between the schools.

USC limited the Bears to 250 total yards, including just 77 on the ground (they had been averaging 465 and 209, respectively), and kept Cal out of the end zone (it had been averaging 34 points). Troy's 9 sacks were its most since getting 9 against Oregon State in 2007 and Breslin's 3.5 sacks and 4.5 tackles for loss were the most by a Trojan since Lawrence Jackson set school records of 4 and 5.5, respectively, against Arizona State in 2007. S T.J. McDonald had 9 tackles and an interception, LB Lamar Dawson also had 9 stops, S Jawanza Starling had an interception for his second consecutive game and DTs George Uko and Leonard Williams each had 2 sacks.

Redd, who ran for a season-high 158 yards on 21 carries (7.5 yards per carry), and McNeal, who had 115 yards on 10 tries (11.5 average), became the first pair of Trojan 100-yard rushers in a game since the 2008 Washington State game, when Broderick Green, Stafon Johnson and C.J. Gable did so. USC had 296 rushing yards, its most since getting 298 versus Washington in 2010. USC had 488 yards of total offense and 29 first downs (to Cal's 21). Barkley was 22-of-34 for 192 yards (but was picked off twice), while Lee had 11 catches for 94 yards and WR Robert Woods added 5 grabs for 30 yards.

USC built a 17-3 halftime lead, as Redd raced 33 yards for a score on Troy's second possession. Then, following a 24-yard Cal field goal by PK Vincenzo D'Amato early in the second quarter, USC countered with an 11-yard Barkley-to-Lee scoring pass and a 40-yard field goal with 3 seconds to go by PK Andre Heidari, who returned to action after missing the previous 2 games with a knee injury.

A pair of D'Amato field goals (26 and 35 yards) in the third quarter tightened the score, but Heidari nailed a 41-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter to culminate a 12-play drive that lasted 5:55 and then Barkley hit Lee for a 3-yard TD on USC's next possession to cap a 14-play drive that ate up 6:22.

For Cal, QB Zach Maynard was 18-of-33 for 173 yards with the 2 picks and WR Keenan Allen had 9 receptions for 93 yards.

It was the first-ever appearance of USC football on the new Pac-12 Networks.

GAME 5 – October 4, Salt Lake City, Utah

Att: 46,037

USC	7	17	0	14	—	38
Utah	14	7	0	7	—	28

QB Matt Barkley threw 3 touchdowns and CB Nickell Robey had a key fourth quarter scoring interception runback to help No. 13 USC overcome a near-disastrous start and post a 38-28 victory at Utah in front of a sold-out crowd of 46,037 and a national ESPN Thursday night audience.

It was USC's first visit to Salt Lake City since 1917. The Trojans tied the school record for consecutive games without being shut out at 186. The crowd was the fourth largest in stadium history. Both teams were coming off byes.

Utah jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the game's first 3 minutes thanks to a pair of bad center snaps by Troy, the first on the game's second play when DE Nate Fakahafua ran 8 yards for a TD after he snatched the ball from Barkley after he picked it up off the ground and then QB Jon Hays hit WR Kenneth Scott for an 11-yard score after DT Star Lotulelei's fumble recovery on USC's third play of its next possession.

But USC drove 75 yards on its third possession, capped by TB Silas Redd's 3-yard TD run. PK Andre Heidari tightened the score with a 32-yard field goal early in the second quarter, but the Utes countered with an 18-yard Hays scoring toss to WR DeVonte Christopher to go up 21-10. The Trojans then scored the next 28 points, with Barkley TD passes of 23 yards to TE Randall Telfer, who made a one-handed catch, and 6 yards to WR Robert Woods (after DE Morgan Breslin recovered a fumble caused by Robey) to put USC up 24-21 at halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter, Barkley threw an 83-yard scoring bomb to WR Marqise Lee (career longs for both players) early in the fourth quarter and then Robey returned a pick 38 yards for a TD on Utah's ensuing possession. Utah got a score in the game's final minute against USC's reserves on RB Kelvin York's 5-yard TD run.

USC had more total yards (432 to 304) and first downs (22 to 15), but the Trojans missed 2 second half field goals. There were 27 penalties in the game for 222 yards, including 14 for 100 yards by USC (the most by Troy since getting 16 against Washington in 2007 and the most by a USC opponent since UCLA had 13 in 2003).

Barkley completed 76.7% of his passes (23-of-30), Lee had 12 receptions for 192 yards, Woods added 6 grabs for 69 yards and Redd ran for 77 yards on 17 tries. S T.J. McDonald had 9 tackles, while Robey and LB Hayes Pullard added 7 stops.

For Utah, Hays was 19-of-32 for 160 yards, Christopher (62 yards), WR Dres Anderson (47 yards) and TE Jake Murphy (41 yards) each had 6 catches and RB John White had 68 yards on 13 carries.

USC	10	14	0	0	—	24
Washington	7	0	7	0	—	14

No. 11 USC, taking advantage of getting 4 turnovers and 5 sacks, blocking a punt and running for more than 200 yards, held on to beat Washington, 24-14, before 66,202 fans at Seattle's CenturyLink Field and a national FOX-TV audience.

In the process, the Trojans set a school record for consecutive games without being shut out (187).

USC jumped out to a 24-7 halftime lead while gaining 233 total yards to UW's 87, but Troy managed just 138 total yards without scoring in the second half as the Huskies came alive.

USC scored on its first 2 possessions of the game, first on a 23-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari and then on an 11-yard run by TB Silas Redd (3 plays after an interception by LB Dion Bailey). Late in the first quarter, Washington converted an interception into a 17-yard TD pass from QB Keith Price to WR Kasen Williams. But USC responded on its ensuing possession by driving 76 yards, capped by an 18-yard scoring toss from QB Matt Barkley to TE Xavier Grimble. Then, late in the half, CB Anthony Brown blocked a Husky punt and returned it 21 yards for a touchdown to build USC's lead to 17 points.

After Washington blocked a Heidari field goal midway through the third quarter, Price hit TE Austin Seferian-Jenkins on a 29-yard TD strike to pull within 10 points. The Huskies threatened on their next 2 possessions, but on the first they missed a field goal and on the second on second-and-goal Price lost the ball on the USC 3 as S Jawanza Starling forced and recovered the fumble (UW's next 2 possessions also resulted in turnovers, first an interception by CB Josh Shaw and then DT Leonard Williams recovered a fumble that Bailey forced).

Overall, USC had 371 total yards (204 rushing) to UW's 299, but converted just 2-of-12 third downs and had 10 penalties.

Redd rushed for 155 yards on 26 carries and TB Curtis McNeal added 58 yards on 11 tries, Barkley was 10-of-20 for 167 yards and WR Robert Woods had 5 catches for 88 yards. S T.J. McDonald posted 9 tackles and Bailey and LB Hayes Pullard each had 7, while Williams and DE Morgan Breslin each had 1.5 sacks.

For Washington, Price was 20-of-28 for 198 yards (he completed 16 consecutive throws at one point), Seferian-Jenkins had 5 receptions for 83 yards and TB Bishop Sankey ran for 54 yards on 14 tries. The Huskies converted just 3-of-12 third downs and held the ball just 27:57.

GAME 7 – October 20, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 50, Colorado 6
Att: 83,274

Colorado	3	3	0	0	—	6
USC	19	14	7	10	—	50

QB Matt Barkley and WR Robert Woods had record-setting performances as No. 11 USC manhandled Colorado, 50-6, before 83,274 fans in the sold-out Coliseum and a national Pac-12 Networks audience.

The Trojans have never lost in 7 meetings against the Buffaloes.

Barkley threw a USC single game record-tying 6 touchdown passes, including a school record-tying 5 in the first half, to become the Pac-12's career TD pass recordholder (102, breaking Matt Leinart's mark of 99). He completed 95.0% of his passes (19-of-20, with a drop on the incompletion) to set the Pac-12 game mark for highest completion percentage (minimum 20 attempts), just .8% shy of the NCAA record. His passing efficiency rating of 319.2 also broke the Pac-12 game standard. He threw for 298 yards overall and was 16-of-17 for 269 yards in the first half.

Woods, midway through his junior season, set the USC career receptions record (220, breaking Dwayne Jarrett's mark of 216) and the school single game TD catch record (4, tying the Pac-12 record). He had 8 receptions for 132 yards. USC jumped out to a 19-0 lead 6 minutes into the contest.

Barkley threw a 55-yard scoring pass on the game's second play to WR Marqise Lee, who had 6 catches for 103 yards. After S Drew McAllister picked off a CU pass in the end zone on the ensuing possession, Troy marched 80 yards in 4 plays, capped by a 39-yard Barkley-to-Woods TD toss. McAllister recovered a fumble deep in Colorado territory on the Buffaloes' next play and Barkley found TE Xavier Grimble for an 8-yard TD 2 plays later.

Colorado got its only points on a pair of PK Will Oliver field goals (27 and 37 yards) in a 3-minute span in the first and second quarters (the second one coming after a Trojan fumble). Then Barkley connected with Woods for another 3 TDs, the first one for 29 yards as Barkley passed Leinart's record, then the second one for 17 yards midway through the second quarter as Woods eclipsed Jarrett's record to put USC up 33-6 at halftime and the third for 3 yards early in the second half that sent most of the Trojan starters to the bench.

USC added fourth quarter scores on a 24-yard TD pass from QB Max Wittek to TB D.J. Morgan (the first career touchdowns for both players) and a 37-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari.

USC's 7 TD passes in the game was a school standard. Morgan ran for 52 yards on 10 carries. USC had 458 total yards (340 passing), averaging 9.5 yards per play, to CU's 351 total yards even though the Buffaloes had the ball nearly 15 more minutes (37:10) while running 85 plays to USC's 48 and had more first downs (25 to 22). USC's 48 plays were its fewest since getting 48 against Arizona in 1981 and its 22:50 possession time was its least since the 2005 Notre Dame game (21:20).

USC had 5 sacks and came up with 6 turnovers (besides McAllisters', LB Tony Burnett and S Gerald Bowman had picks and DE Kevin Greene and LB Will Andrew recovered fumbles), including 3 in the red zone. The Trojans were penalized 9 times. LB Anthony Sarao posted a game-best 9 tackles.

For Colorado, QB Jordan Webb was 18-of-35 for 210 yards and TB Christian Powell ran for 56 yards on 14 tries.

It was USC's 300th October victory. The Stanley Cup won by the Los Angeles Kings in 2012 was displayed during an on-field presentation.

Arizona scored 26 consecutive points to fight back from a 15-point second half deficit and then held on to beat No. 10 USC, 39-36, despite record-setting performances by WR Marqise Lee and QB Matt Barkley in a wild offensive explosion before 47,822 fans in Tucson and a national ABC/ESPN2 audience.

The loss snapped Troy's 5-game winning streak in Tucson. It was the sixth straight USC-UA game decided by a TD or less.

Lee had a Pac-12 record 345 receiving yards (fifth most in NCAA history) on 16 catches (1 shy of the USC record and third most in Pac-12 history) with 2 TDs, including 12 grabs for 255 yards in the first half, and he had 469 all-purpose yards (second most recognized in NCAA history) as he added 123 yards on 3 kickoff returns and a 1-yard rush. Six of Lee's catches were for at least 28 yards (57, 50, 49, 44, 32 and 28 yards). Lee and fellow WR Robert Woods, who had 9 grabs for 93 yards, set a USC record for most receiving yards in a game by 2 players (438) and tied the USC record for most receptions in a game by 2 players (25).

Barkley threw for a USC record 493 yards on 31-of-49 passing with 3 TDs (he was 21-of-29 for 321 yards at halftime) and he had 497 total yards, also a USC record. It was his third career 400-yard passing day, tying a USC standard, and he set the Pac-12 career mark for most rushing and passing TDs (111).

The teams combined for 1,206 total yards (618 by USC to UA's 588), including a school-record 493 passing by the Trojans. The Wildcats threw for 369 yards and ran for 219 on 94 plays, the most by a USC opponent since Stanford had 96 in 2000. The game was filled with penalties (Arizona had 14 to USC's 13) and USC had 5 turnovers.

USC fell behind, 10-0, as QB Matt Scott hit WR Johnny Jackson for an 8-yard TD after Arizona got an interception on USC's opening series and then PK John Bonano nailed a 27-yard field goal on the Wildcats' next drive. Troy then took the lead on a pair of Barkley TD passes midway through the second quarter, the first 12 yards to TE Xavier Grimble and then a 49-yarder to Lee. Arizona answered with a 44-yard Bonano field goal, but the Trojans scored on a 3-yard run by TB D.J. Morgan with 42 seconds to play in the half to take a 21-13 halftime lead.

USC extended its margin to 28-13 early in the third quarter on a 44-yard Barkley-to-Lee pass before the Wildcats went on their 26-point run on 4 consecutive possessions. Scott ran for a 10-yard score and then, after USC lost a fumble, he hit WR Dan Buckner for a 9-yard TD, both in the final 4 minutes of the third quarter. RB Ka'Deem Carey followed with a 7-yard TD run and then Scott hit WR David Richards for a 7-yard score with 5:36 to play. USC responded quickly as TB Silas Redd scored on a 10-yard run with 4:40 to go. The Trojans got the ball back with 55 seconds to play at their 13-yard line and drove to midfield, but Barkley's Hail Mary pass fell incomplete to end the game.

Morgan had 63 yards on 9 carries overall and Redd added 57 yards on 13 tries. S T.J. McDonald had 13 tackles and LB Dion Bailey added 9 stops (2 for losses).

Scott accounted for 4 TDs as he was 27-of-50 for 369 yards passing and ran for 100 yards on 15 attempts. Carey rushed for 119 yards on 28 tries, WR Austin Hill had 10 receptions for 259 yards (4 yards shy of the USC opponent record) and Buckner added 7 catches for 57 yards.

GAME 9 – November 3, Los Angeles Coliseum
Oregon 62, USC 51
Att: 93,607

Oregon	14	20	14	14	—	62
USC	3	21	14	13	—	51

RB Kenjon Barner and No. 2 Oregon had historic offensive performances to help the Ducks post a 62-51 shootout victory over No. 18 USC before a sold-out Coliseum crowd of 93,607 and a national FOX audience.

The 113 combined points made it the highest scoring game in USC history (it was the third highest scoring game ever between AP ranked teams) and the Ducks' 62 points were the most ever allowed by Troy. USC's 51 points were its most in a losing effort. It was Oregon's 12th consecutive win since falling to the Trojans in Eugene in 2011, as well as the Ducks' 13th straight road victory and their 22nd consecutive game scoring 30-plus points.

The teams combined for 1,345 total yards (730 by Oregon and 615 by USC), with UO's total yardage setting an Oregon school record and breaking a 66-year-old USC opponent record. Oregon averaged 8.8 yards on its 83 plays and USC was at 7.7 yards on its 80 plays. The Ducks 426 rushing yards were the most against USC since Texas A&M had 486 in the 1977 Bluebonnet Bowl. Oregon's 9 touchdowns and 8 PATs also were USC opponent records, while its 37 first downs tied a Trojan opponent standard.

Barner set USC opponent records for rushing yards (321), touchdowns (5) and points (30) on 38 carries (he also had 2 catches for 26 yards). His rushing yardage was an Oregon game record. Oregon redshirt freshman QB Marcus Mariota tied the USC opponent record for TD passes (4) while completing 20-of-23 passes (87.0%) for 304 yards with no interceptions and he added 96 yards on 15 carries. PK Rob Beard's 8 PATs was a USC opponent mark. WR Josh Huff had 6 catches for 125 yards with 2 scores.

USC WR Marqise Lee had 408 all-purpose yards (the 16th most in NCAA history), including a Pac-12 record 251 on a school-record 8 kickoff returns and 157 with 2 TDs on 12 receptions. QB Matt Barkley completed a school record-tying 35 passes on 54 attempts for 484 yards and 5 TDs with 2 picks. In the process, he set Pac-12 career records for completions and total offense and he also became the first Pac-12 player to have 4 seasons with 2,500 yards of total offense. WRs Nelson Agholor (162 yards) and Robert Woods (71 yards) each had 6 receptions and a TD catch. TB Silas Redd had 92 yards on 18 carries, plus a 20-yard catch.

Oregon scored touchdowns on its first 5 possessions, starting with a 16-yard Mariota pass to RB De'Anthony Thomas 65 seconds into the game. After USC responded with a 39-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari, Mariota hit Huff on a 21-yard score and then, after getting intercepting a USC red zone pass in the end zone, the Ducks marched 80 yards with Barner finishing with a 27-yard TD run to put UO up 21-3. The teams then traded touchdowns on the next 4 possessions, with Barkley's 75-yard bomb to Lee on the first play of that sequence followed by a 5-yard Barner run, a 7-yard Barkley-to-Woods pass and a 14-yard Mariota pass to WR Daryle Hawkins. On the first play after Beard missed a 41-yard field goal, Barkley threw a 76-yard scoring bomb to Agholor to make it 34-24 Oregon at halftime (the teams combined for 864 total yards in the first half), although Troy failed to capitalize on a Duck fumble late in the half by coughing up the ball itself at the UO 23.

USC got within 3 points on the opening series of the second half on a 3-yard Redd TD run, but Oregon responded with a 9-yard Barner TD rush. USC countered with Redd's 3-yard scoring run only to see Mariota hit Huff for a 36-yard TD on the next possession to give the Ducks a 10-point cushion. USC had the game's first punt on its next drive and Oregon answered with a 5-yard Barner TD run to make it a 17-point game. USC came right back as Barkley hit TE Randall Telfer for a 3-yard TD with 5:27 to play and forced Oregon's first punt on the ensuring series, but the Trojans went 4-and-out deep in their territory to set up Barner's fifth TD, a 22-yarder with 1:58 to go. USC closed the scoring on a 3-yard Barkley pass to Lee with 1 second to play.

Three Trojans had double digit tackles: LBs Lamar Dawson (11) and Dion Bailey (10) and S T.J. McDonald (10). USC had 3 sacks.

USC's points, total yards, passing yards (484) and first downs (31) were the most Oregon surrendered in 2012. Its 9 kickoff returns were a school record. Oregon, which had 10 penalties, converted 7-of-11 third downs (and both of its fourth downs). USC converted 8-of-13 third downs.

GAME 10 – November 10, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 38, Arizona State 17
Att: 80,154

Arizona State	7	7	3	0	—	17
USC	7	7	14	10	—	38

TB Curtis McNeal ran for 163 yards and scored 3 touchdowns, QB Matt Barkley threw 3 TDs, WR Marqise Lee had 227 all-purpose yards and the Trojan defense allowed just 108 total yards over the final 3 quarters as No. 21 USC snapped a 2-game losing streak while beating Arizona State, 38-17, before 80,154 Homecoming fans in the Coliseum and a national Pac-12 Networks audience.

It was the 800th victory in Trojan history (not including the 14 wins and 1 loss vacated by NCAA penalty).

A week after giving up a school-record 62 points and 730 yards to Oregon, USC held ASU to season lows in points and total yards (250). All of the Sun Devils points came off of Trojan turnovers.

After USC fumbled on its first play from scrimmage, ASU QB Taylor Kelly hit H-back Chris Coyle for a 34-yard TD. Late in the first quarter, Barkley hit Lee streaking down the sideline for an 80-yard score. S Alden Darby then took a Barkley interception 70 yards for a TD early in the second quarter. USC tied it 35 second before halftime on a 4-yard Barkley toss to TE Xavier Grimble.

After Barkley threw his third interception of the game on the opening play of the second half, ASU took its last lead with a 28-yard field goal by PK Jon Mora. USC then scored the game's final 24 points, with McNeal getting a 5-yard TD run on the ensuing drive and then Barkley hitting McNeal for a 22-yard score on the next possession. Late in the fourth quarter, USC added a 26-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari and then McNeal had a 27-yard TD run with 38 seconds to play following an interception by LB Lamar Dawson.

McNeal's rushing yards and carries (31) were career highs. Lee had 161 yards on 10 catches and 66 yards on 6 rushes (including a 38-yard end-around in which he reversed his field), and he also played safety on defense for a play (causing an ASU delay of game penalty), but he did not return a kickoff because the Sun Devils decided to pooch their kickoffs. Barkley was 20-of-33 for 222 yards with the 3 TDs and 3 picks as he became the Pac-12's career passing yardage leader.

USC had 447 total yards and 23 first downs while holding the ball 36:26. The teams combined for 9 turnovers (5 by USC). The Trojan defense had 7 sacks. Dawson led USC with 11 tackles, LB Hayes Pullard added 9 tackles (with a sack), S T.J. McDonald had 7 stops and a pick, DT Leonard Williams had 6 tackles (with a sack) and an interception and LB Anthony Sarao had 5 tackles (with a sack) and a fumble recovery.

ASU had just 15 first downs and 71 rushing yards. Kelly was 19-of-30 for 174 yards with 3 interceptions, while TB Marion Grice caught 7 passes for 30 yards.

The game kicked off at noon, the earliest start for a USC game in the Coliseum since 1998 against Purdue (11:30 a.m.). USC's 2012 Olympians were honored at halftime.

GAME 11 – November 17, Pasadena, California
UCLA 38, USC 28
Att: 83,277

USC	0	14	6	8	—	28
UCLA	17	7	7	7	—	38

With the Pac-12 South Division title and a berth in the Pac-12 Championship Game going to the winner, No. 17 UCLA jumped out to a 24-0 second quarter lead and held off No. 21 USC, 38-28, before 83,277 fans in the Rose Bowl and a national FOX audience.

It snapped USC's 5-game winning streak over the Bruins. It was UCLA's most points against the Trojans since 1996. The game's second half was played in a mostly-constant rain, dropping USC's record against UCLA in rain games to 0-3 (losses also in 1946 and 1961).

UCLA came up with an interception on the game's first play and the Bruins quickly converted on a 1-yard TD run by QB Brett Hundley. UCLA drove 84 yards on its next possession, capped by a 23-yard field goal by PK Ka'imi Fairbairn, and then after USC lost a fumble in its territory on the third play of its ensuing drive, Hundley soon hit TE Joseph Fauria for a 17-yard score late in the first quarter. UCLA traveled 74 yards on its next series, the final 16 yards on a TD run by TB Johnathan Franklin to go up 24-0 with 7:38 to play in the half.

But QB Matt Barkley threw scoring passes on USC's next 2 drives, a 33-yarder to WR Nelson Agholor and a 2-yarder to TE Randall Telfer.

USC pulled within 24-20 just 3 plays into the second half when DT George Uko recovered a Bruin fumble in the end zone. But after a partially blocked USC punt the next time it had the ball, Hundley scored on a 3-yard run. USC couldn't get on the board again until midway through the fourth quarter with a 14-yard Barkley TD pass to WR Marqise Lee to tighten the score to 31-28. But the Bruins responded with an 83-yard drive, with Franklin scoring on a 29-yard run with 4:02 to go.

USC wasted several second half opportunities, missing a field goal and having another blocked as well as throwing an interception while driving in Bruin territory.

USC outgained UCLA, 513 to 406, despite having less plays (80 to 73) and possession time (33:30 to 26:40) while the Bruins had 12 penalties.

Barkley was 20-of-38 for 301 yards with the 3 TDs and 2 picks before leaving with a shoulder injury late in the game. Lee had 9 catches for 158 yards to become the Pac-12 season record holder in receiving yardage and WR Robert Woods added 5 grabs for 68 yards. TB Curtis McNeal had 161 yards on 21 carries. LB Hayes Pullard had a game-best 11 tackles, DT Leonard Williams added 10 stops and DE Morgan Breslin had 2 of the defense's 5 sacks.

For UCLA, Hundley was 22-of-30 for 234 yards while setting the school season completion mark, Franklin ran for 171 yards on 29 carries and WR Shaquelle Evans had 8 receptions for 114 yards.

It was the first time since 2001 that UCLA entered the game with a higher ranking than USC (and the first time with more wins since 2000).

GAME 12 – November 24, Los Angeles Coliseum
Notre Dame 22, USC 13
Att: 93,607

Notre Dame	10	6	3	3	—	22
USC	0	10	0	3	—	13

PK Kyle Brindza kicked 5 field goals and No. 1 Notre Dame's defense had a pair of fourth quarter goal line stands to hold off USC, 22-13, before a sold-out Coliseum crowd of 93,607 and a national ABC-TV audience.

The victory earned the undefeated Irish a berth in the BCS Championship Game. Although it was just ND's second win over USC in the past 11 games, it was its second straight victory in Los Angeles. It was the first time since 1989 that Troy faced an AP No. 1 Irish team and the first time it played an undefeated ND team since 1993. It was the sixth time a No. 1 ND squad beat the Trojans in 8 tries, including the fourth in 6 such games in the Coliseum. It was USC's fewest points scored in 2012 and its fewest against against Notre Dame since 1998. It also was the first time since 1995 that USC lost to traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame in the same season.

USC twice got inside the Notre Dame 5-yard line in the fourth quarter, but could only come away with a 21-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari on the first drive after getting first-and-goal at the 4 early in the quarter and then Troy was shut down on 4 tries at first-and-goal at the 1 with under 3 minutes to play.

Brindza tied Notre Dame and USC opponent game records with his 5 field goals: a 27-yarder on the game's opening drive, a 29-yarder early in the second quarter, a career-best 52-yarder at the halftime gun after a USC interception to give ND a 16-10 lead, a 33-yarder late in the third quarter (after missing a 34-yarder earlier in the quarter) and a 19-yarder late in the game.

USC's other scores came on an 11-yard pass at the top of the second quarter to WR Robert Woods from QB Max Wittek, who started in place of injured QB Matt Barkley, and a 39-yard Heidari field goal late in the first half.

Notre Dame's only touchdown was a 9-yard run by RB Theo Riddick late in the first quarter as the Irish opened up a 10-0 lead.

USC managed just 281 total yards, including only 95 on the ground, and converted just 1-of-8 third downs against the highly-ranked Irish defense (No. 1 in scoring defense, fifth in rushing defense and sixth in total defense).

Notre Dame had 439 total yards (222 rushing and 217 passing) while running off 18 more plays than USC (69 to 51), holding the ball for 34:38 and having no turnovers.

Wittek was 14-of-23 for 186 yards with 2 interceptions and the TD in his debut, Woods had a game-best 7 receptions for 92 yards, WR Marqise Lee added 5 catches for 75 yards to set the Pac-12 season receptions record and he returned 4 kickoffs for 98 yards and TB Silas Redd had 77 yards on 12 carries. LB Hayes Pullard had a game-high 13 tackles, while LB Lamar Dawson and S T.J. McDonald each had 10 stops.

For Notre Dame, Riddick ran for 146 yards on 20 tries, QB Everett Golson was 15-of-26 for 217 yards and added 47 yards on 9 rushes and TE Tyler Eifert had 4 catches for 69 yards.

GAME 13 – December 31, El Paso, Texas
Sun Bowl
Georgia Tech 21, USC 7
Att: 47,922

USC	0	7	0	0	—	7
Georgia Tech	0	7	7	7	—	21

QB Tevin Washington ran for a touchdown while throwing for another and Georgia Tech used a staunch defense to propel the Yellow Jackets to a 21-7 upset over USC in the 79th Hyundai Sun Bowl in El Paso on a cold (low 40s), windy (20 mph gusts) day before 47,922 fans and a national CBS-TV audience.

USC became the first AP pre-season No. 1 team ever to end up with 6 losses and the first to finish unranked since 1964. It was the Trojans' third straight loss of 2012, their longest losing skid since 2001. Troy lost 5 of its final 6 games after a 6-1 start to snap a streak of 10 straight 8-win seasons. USC, playing in the post-season after a 2-year NCAA-imposed bowl ban, remained winless in 3 visits to the Sun Bowl. Georgia Tech, which needed an NCAA waiver (because of a sub-.500 record) to qualify for a bowl berth, broke a 7-bowl game losing streak. It was the first meeting between the schools since 1973.

USC's offense was stymied by a Yellow Jacket defense that was allowing an average of 29.9 points and 387.0 total yards. The Trojans got just 205 total yards (their fewest since also getting 205 versus California in 2004), including 107 passing (fewest since getting 7 against Penn State in 2000), and 10 first downs (fewest since getting 8 versus Florida State in 1998) while converting only 3-of-15 third downs (and 0-of-1 on fourth downs). Troy had just 59 plays while holding the ball only 23:35. USC failed to get a first down in 8 of its 14 possessions. In the second half, the Trojans had just 89 total yards and were shut out on 32 plays.

Georgia Tech, using a spread option attack that averaged 312.5 rushing yards, had 294 of its 369 total yards via the run. The Yellow Jackets passed just 10 times (with only 5 completions) among its 73 plays (the fewest pass attempts against USC since Washington State's 9 in 2008 and the fewest completions since Colorado's 2 in 2002). Tech's 75 passing yards were the fewest versus the Trojans since Notre Dame's 41 in 2008.

After a scoreless first quarter, both teams scored a TD in the second quarter. The Yellow Jackets went 74 yards in 14 plays, capped by a 3-yard pass from QB Vad Lee to RB David Sims early in the quarter. Then, after DE Morgan Breslin forced a fumble that DE Wes Horton recovered, QB Max Wittek hit TB Silas Redd on a 9-yard score with 50 seconds to play.

Georgia Tech took advantage of a 56-yard punt return by CB Jamal Golden to the USC 1-yard line on its first possession of the second half, with Washington getting the 1-yard TD run 2 plays later. Washington then hit RB Orwin Smith on a 17-yard TD pass early in the fourth quarter.

USC got in the red zone on its last 2 possessions in the game's final 7 minutes, but Wittek had passes picked off in the end zone both times.

Wittek, starting his second straight game for injured QB Matt Barkley, completed just 37.8% of his passes (14-of-37) for 107 yards with 1 TD and 3 interceptions while every throw was seemingly affected by the wind. He was 7-of-24 (29.2%) for 49 yards in the second half. Redd ran for 88 yards on 17 carries. WR Marqise Lee caught 6 passes for 41 yards, while WR Robert Woods added 3 grabs for 33 yards.

LB Hayes Pullard had a game-best 16 tackles (the most by a Trojan since Troy Polamalu had 20 against Utah in 2001), DT Leonard Williams had 14 stops and S T.J. McDonald had 13. LB Lamar Dawson had an interception.

For Tech, Sims rushed for 99 yards on 17 tries and RB Zach Laskey added 60 yards on 6 tries. Washington ran for 56 yards on 16 carries and was 3-of-5 passing for 49 yards, while Lee ran for 52 yards on 10 tries and completed 2-of-5 passes for 26 yards.

Nevada was a member of the Big Sky from 1979 to 1992, when it joined the Big West through 1999 before joining the WAC in 2000 and the Mountain West in 2012. Hawaii joined the WAC in 1979 and the Mountain West in 2012. San Jose State had been a 1969 charter member of the PCAA (renamed the Big West Conference in 1988) until its withdrawal in 1996 to join the WAC before moving to the MWC in 2013. Utah State became a member of the PCAA (Big West) in 1977, but when the Big West dropped football, Utah State became an independent in 2001 before joining the WAC in 2005 and then moving to the MWC in 2013.)

ALL-TIME USC RECORD

The following is believed to be an accurate record of the outcome of all games of American football played by the USC varsity team. It was compiled by Michael J. Glenn. USC appreciates his invaluable efforts.

The information in this history is set forth in as brief a fashion as possible. To illustrate this, review the entries under 1989. Reading from left to right, the following information is given on the first line under the coach and captain data: (1) Date (Sept. 4); (2) Result (L-USC loss); (3) USC's Associated Press ranking going into the game (5); (4) USC's opponent (Illinois); (5) An indication that the game began after 5:00 p.m., local time (N); (6) An indication that the winning score occurred with 2:19 left in the game (2:19); (7) USC's opponent's Associated Press ranking going into the game (22); (8) Game score, with USC's point total given first (13-14); (9) An indication that the game was played at USC's home field (H); (10) Game attendance (54,622).

Other information may be noted on the line concerning the UCLA game. The "c" before the attendance figure indicates a capacity crowd. "(UCLA-13:43)" indicates that UCLA made the tying score with 13:43 left in the fourth quarter.

The line beneath the UCLA game record presents USC's regular season record, conference record, and conference finish, in that order. Next come the points scored and points given up.

Beneath this is USC's bowl game result, followed on the next line by USC's final overall record, USC's overall points scored and given up, and the season attendance total.

Other symbols: N1, N2, etc., indicate games played at a neutral site; (HC) indicates USC's Homecoming game; (U) indicates that the game result was a significant upset; (R) indicates that a major portion of the game was played in the rain; (Sn) indicates the game was played in snow conditions; and "Th" indicates a game played on Thanksgiving Day.

N1-Vacant Field bordered by Grand, Hope, Eighth, and Ninth Streets, Los Angeles, California

Note: The idea that USC should field a football team came from Professor Elmer Merrill. In a 1951 letter from Henry Goddard, USC's first coach, to then-sports information director Tom Lawless, the origins were described: "Football was (Prof. Elmer Merrill's) idea. When he learned that I had played on my college team, he said one day: 'Let's teach these boys football. You can play with them and coach them from within and I will coach them from the sidelines.' I readily agreed. He spoke to two or three of the boys that he knew and the game was born. The field was a vacant block, I would guess just S. or S.W. of (Bovard Field)."

Athletic Park took its name from its builder, the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Located on the northeast corner of Seventh and Alameda, it opened on Thanksgiving Day, 1891. The first major college football game played there was on Dec. 29, 1894, when Stanford defeated the University of Chicago, 28-0. Athletic Park gained national recognition when Los Angeles and Stockton of the California League played a night baseball game there on July 2, 1893. Los Angeles won, 5-2, before a crowd of 9,000. Twenty kerosene lamps and one swiveled search light were used.

Fiesta Park, located on the northwest corner of Grand and Pico, also dates from the 1890s. It was the site of what was apparently the first night college football game played outdoors on Nov. 18, 1905. St. Vincent's College (now Loyola Marymount University) shut out the University of Arizona, 54-0. In 1916, a rebuilt Fiesta Park served as USC's home grounds. The following year, however, its bleachers were transported to USC to revamp Bovard Field.

At the turn of the century, Washington Park, at the corner of Washington and Grand, was primarily a baseball field. It was sometimes referred to as Chutes Park, after the adjacent amusement park. St. Vincent's College was located across the street. Washington Park was the early home of the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League.

A larger ball park for the Angels was built in 1911. Also known as Washington Park, this structure was located at Washington and Hill.

Prager Park served as USC's home in 1903. It was located near Chutes Park.

Tournament Park, located at the southeast corner of California and Wilson in Pasadena, served as the initial home of the "East-West" game, as the Rose Bowl was originally known. The Tournament of Roses Association acquired the property in 1901, and Michigan and Stanford played there in the first Rose Bowl game on Jan. 1, 1902. After a series of other sporting activities, football returned to the New Year's Day celebration in 1915, and continued at Tournament Park through 1922.

Sportsman's Park, located at North Los Robles and Colorado, was the site of USC's first Pasadena appearance, its first Thanksgiving game, and its first varsity football game outside of Los Angeles--all in 1889 against Pasadena. The game occurred just a month before Sportsman's Park hosted the initial Tournament of Roses.

Prior to 1893, USC's campus games were played on a field adjoining Jefferson. This field might have been the site of USC's first official football game in 1888 (although a 1951 letter from Henry Goddard, USC's coach in 1888, to then-SID Tom Lawless, stated the field that first year "was a vacant block, I would guess just S. or S.W. of (Bovard Field).").

In early 1893, the University's then-existing athletic grounds were developed, apparently for neighborhood housing. According to the Rostrum, USC's earliest student newspaper, the students petitioned for a replacement athletic field. Eventually they were granted space on the "northwest portion of campus."

These grounds, while appropriate for practice and practice games, were not suitable for major games. As a result, most of USC's important "home" games up until 1904 were played in rented space: Athletic Park, Fiesta Park, Washington Park, and Prager Park.

In the summer of 1904, USC's football field was "upgraded." Bleachers were constructed on the south side of the field, and a small stand was placed on the north side. A "kid-proof" fence was built around the site. At the start of the season, the site was referred to as "College Campus" in a published football schedule, but by the end of the year it had become "Bovard Field."

Bovard never appears to have been a very adequate home. USC still used Fiesta Park for some of its more important games up until 1908. In 1915, USC's first Los Angeles game against California was played at the new Washington Park, which was primarily a baseball venue. The following year, USC attempted to use a revitalized Fiesta Park as its home base. In the summer of 1917, the new bleachers at Fiesta Park were transported to USC's Bovard Field. These new seats increased Bovard's capacity to about 10,000.

The "new" Bovard was quickly obsolete. Interest in USC football, under Coach Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson, outpaced the limits of even the expanded Bovard. By 1920, USC was playing its more important games in Pasadena, first at Tournament Park, and then at the Tournament of Roses' new stadium in the Arroyo Seco.

USC's last on-campus varsity football game was played on Sept. 29, 1923, against Cal Tech. The following week the Trojans played their initial game at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

DRAMATIC FINISHES

Over the years, USC has been involved in many games featuring dramatic finishes at the end. Here's a sampling of some of the more famous such contests.

1931--USC 16, Notre Dame 14. Johnny Baker kicked a game-winning 33-yard field goal with 1:00 remaining. All of USC's points came in the fourth quarter. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten streak and was USC's first-ever win in South Bend. Troy won the national championship.

1938--USC 7, Duke 3 (1939 Rose Bowl). Al Krueger, a second-team end, and fourth-string quarterback Doyle Nave came off the bench to connect on 4 straight passes, the last a 19-yard TD with about 40 seconds left to upset previously unbeaten, untied and unscored-upon Duke.

1939--USC 0, UCLA 0. Bobby Robertson knocked down Ned Matthews' 4-yard pass in the end zone with less than 5 minutes to play to preserve the tie for USC, sending the Trojans to the Rose Bowl.

1941--USC 13, Oregon State 7. Doug Essick caught a game-winning 6-yard pass from Ray Woods with 13 seconds to play.

1951--USC 21, California 14. Leon Sellers scored on a 2-yard run with 2:44 left to snap Cal's 38-game regular season winning streak.

1953--USC 23, Stanford 20. Sam Tsagalakis kicked a victorious 38-yard field goal with 14 seconds left.

1958--USC 15, UCLA 15. Luther Hayes returned a kickoff 74 yards for a TD and Tom Maudlin ran in for the 2-point conversion with 6:50 to play to get the Trojans a tie.

1964--USC 26, California 21. Behind 21-14 in the fourth quarter, USC scored twice late, the second time (while trailing 21-20) on a 22-yard pass from Craig Fertig to Rod Sherman with 50 seconds to culminate a 95-yard drive.

1964--USC 20, Notre Dame 17. Rod Sherman caught a 15-yard TD pass from Craig Fertig with 1:33 to play to upset unbeaten and top-ranked Notre Dame. USC was down, 17-0, at halftime.

1967--USC 21, UCLA 20. O.J. Simpson ran 64 yards for a TD with 10:38 left in the fourth quarter to give USC a Rose Bowl berth and the national championship. It is one of the most famous runs in college football history.

1969--USC 26, Stanford 24. Ron Ayala kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 0:00 on the clock.

1969--USC 14, UCLA 12. Jimmy Jones hit Sam Dickerson with a 32-yard TD pass in the corner of the end zone with 1:32 left, putting USC in the Rose Bowl.

1973--USC 27, Stanford 26. Chris Limahelu kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 3 seconds to play.

1974--USC 18, Ohio State 17 (1975 Rose Bowl). Johnny McKay caught a 38-yard TD pass from Pat Haden with 2:03 remaining to pull USC to within a point of Ohio State. Then Shelton Diggs grabbed the subsequent 2-point conversion pass from Haden for the victory, which wrapped up a national championship for USC.

1977--USC 29, UCLA 27. Frank Jordan kicked a 38-yard field goal with 2 seconds remaining, knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1978--USC 27, Notre Dame 25. A year after his late game-winner against UCLA, Frank Jordan kicked a nearly-identical 37-yard field goal with 2 seconds remaining to beat Notre Dame.

1979--USC 17, LSU 12. Kevin Williams caught a game-winning 8-yard TD pass from Paul McDonald with 32 seconds to play.

1979--USC 17, Ohio State 16 (1980 Rose Bowl). Charles White scored on a 1-yard run with 1:32 remaining. USC drove 83 yards in 8 plays on the winning drive, with White carrying 6 times for 71 yards.

1980--USC 20, Tennessee 17. Eric Hipp kicked a victorious 47-yard field goal with 0:00 left.

1981--USC 28, Oklahoma 24. Fred Cornwell caught a 7-yard TD pass from John Mazur with 2 seconds to play to give No. 1 USC the win over No. 2 Oklahoma.

1981--USC 14, Notre Dame 7. Todd Spencer ran 26 yards for the game-winning TD with 4:52 to play.

1981--USC 22, UCLA 21. George Achica broke through the line on the final play of the game to block Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal try, preserving the win and knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1982--USC 17, Notre Dame 13. Michael Harper, fumbling as he dove over the goal line, scored on a controversial winning 1-yard run with 48 seconds to play. It was coach John Robinson's last game of his first tenure at USC.

1983--USC 19, Florida 19. Timmie Ware caught a 25-yard pass from Sean Salisbury with no time on the clock, but USC botched the extra point attempt as coach Ted Tollner's debut ended in a tie.

1985--USC 17, UCLA 13. Rodney Peete scored the winning points on a 1-yard sneak at 1:13 to go.

1986--USC 17, Baylor 14. Don Shafer kicked a game-winning 32-yard field goal in a driving rainstorm with 0:00 on the clock.

1987--USC 12, Arizona 10. Quin Rodriguez kicked an 18-yard field goal with 1:11 remaining, his fourth three-pointer of the game.

1987--USC 17, UCLA 13. Erik Affholter made a juggling, corner-of-the-end zone 33-yard TD catch of a Rodney Peete pass with 7:59 to play in the game, bringing USC all the way back from a 13-0 third quarter deficit. The win put USC in the Rose Bowl.

1988--USC 24, Stanford 20. John Jackson caught a game-winning 10-yard TD pass from Rodney Peete with 1:19 remaining. USC trailed, 13-0, in the second quarter.

1989--USC 18, Washington State 17. Known as "The Drive," Todd Marinovich guided USC 91 yards in 18 plays (all through the air) with 3:31 remaining, culminating with a 2-yard TD pass to Ricky Ervins with 4 seconds to play. Marinovich then hit Gary Wellman for the winning 2-point conversion.

1989--USC 10, UCLA 10. A 54-yard field goal try by UCLA's Alfredo Velasco with 2 seconds to play hit the crossbar and bounced away, preserving the tie.

1989--USC 17, Michigan 10 (1990 Rose Bowl). Rose Bowl MVP Ricky Ervins ran 14 yards for the winning TD with 1:10 to play to cap a 75-yard drive.

1990--USC 35, Ohio State 26. The second half was played in heavy rain with thunder and lightning, getting so bad that officials suspended the game with 2:36 to play after USC recovered an onside kick.

1990--USC 31, California 31. Cal's Robbie Keen missed a 43-yard field goal try with 4 seconds remaining, ending the game in a tie.

1990--USC 45, UCLA 42. In the highest-scoring and perhaps most thrilling USC-UCLA game, Todd Marinovich threw a game-winning 23-yard TD pass to Johnnie Morton with 16 seconds left. The contest featured a 42-point fourth quarter (including 3 TD's in the final 3:09) with 4 lead changes. Morton also caught a 21-yard scoring TD from Marinovich with 3:09 to play to give USC a short-lived 38-35 lead, but Kevin Smith scored on a 1-yard run with 1:19 to go to put the Bruins up 42-38.

1992--USC 31, San Diego State 31. San Diego State's Andy Trakas missed 2 field goals (30 and 55 yards) in the last 0:54 to allow USC to hold onto the tie.

1992--USC 27, California 24. Down 24-13, Estrus Crayton scored twice in the final 5:45 on 2- and 1-yard runs, the second with 2:27 to play to give USC the win. Brian Williams' interception with 2:19 to go sealed Troy's victory.

1995--USC 21, Washington 21. Down 21-0 going into the fourth quarter, USC scored 3 touchdowns, the last a 2-yard pass from Brad Otton to Johnny McWilliams with 33 seconds to go (Adam Rendon's PAT tied it), thus allowing the Trojans to keep hold of the inside track in the Rose Bowl race.

1995--USC 31, Stanford 30. A week after the dramatic Washington tie, USC--behind 16-0 in the second quarter--scored with 39 seconds to play on an 8-yard Kyle Wachholtz pass to Keyshawn Johnson, who then came in as a safety on defense and knocked down a Hail Mary pass at the goal line at the gun.

1996--USC 29, Washington State 24. Delon Washington's 17-yard TD run with 2:05 to play proved decisive and then USC had to hold off the Cougars, who got to the Trojan 11-yard line with 39 seconds to go before fumbling the ball away.

1996--USC 27, Notre Dame 20. In its first overtime win in 3 tries in 1996, Delon Washington scored on a 15-yard run with 1:50 to go in regulation and then barely edged the ball over the goal line on the ensuing 2-point conversion run to tie the game at 20-20. After Rodney Sermons caught a 5-yard TD pass from Brad Otton in the first overtime, Troy stopped the Irish, breaking USC's 13-game non-winning streak to Notre Dame.

1997--USC 20, Notre Dame 17. Adam Abrams' 37-yard field goal with 1:05 to go--4 plays after Mark Cusano ran 27 yards with an interception--gave USC its first win in South Bend since 1981.

1997--USC 24, Oregon 22. Marc Matock partially deflected Joshua Smith's 36-yard field goal try that fell just short with 8 seconds to play to preserve the win.

2000--USC 44, Arizona State 38. After Arizona State scored 29 consecutive second-half points to force overtime, Chad Pierson scored on a 2-yard run in the second overtime and then Sultan Abdul-Malik forced a Sun Devil fumble which Matt Childers recovered to seal the win.

2000--USC 38, UCLA 35. David Bell, USC's third string kicker at the start of the season, hit a game-winning 36-yard field goal with 9 seconds to play (it was only his second field goal in 6 career attempts, as he had missed 3 previous tries in 2000, including a 24-yarder earlier in the game's fourth quarter).

2001--USC 41, Arizona 34. Kris Richard returned an interception 58 yards for a TD with 1:50 to play after Arizona had battled back from a 21-point second quarter deficit.

2001--USC 16, Oregon State 13. Carson Palmer ran 4 yards on a naked bootleg for the game-winning touchdown in the first overtime period (USC dodged defeat twice late in regulation when Ryan Cesca missed 35- and 29-yard field goals).

2002--USC 24, Auburn 17. Carson Palmer's 1-yard sneak with 1:26 to play gave USC the victory.

2004--USC 23, California 17. Aaron Rodgers, who earlier in the game had completed his first 23 passes (tying an NCAA record), guided Cal to first-and-goal at the USC 9-yard line with 1:47 to play, but a Manuel Wright sack and 3 incomplete passes ended the No. 7 Bears' upset hopes over No. 1 USC.

2005--USC 34*, Notre Dame 31. Matt Leinart twisted in from the 1-yard line with 3 seconds to play for the win (earlier in that 75-yard drive, he threaded a 61-yard audible pass to Dwayne Jarrett on fourth-and-9 from the USC 26).

2006--USC 28, Arizona State 21. Chauncey Washington's 2-yard run with 4:29 to play was the game-winning touchdown.

2007--USC 24, California 17. Stafon Johnson's 3-yard run with 7:38 to go was the game-winning touchdown in the rain.

2009--USC 18, Ohio State 15. Stafon Johnson's 2-yard run with 1:05 to play capped an 86-yard drive that gave USC the win in front of a deafening Ohio Stadium record crowd of 106,033.

2009--USC 34, Notre Dame 27. USC built a 20-point fourth quarter lead but had to turn away the Irish 4 times near the goal line at game's end.

Of course, USC has been on the wrong end of some dramatic last-minute finishes, too. For instance, there was the 1926 Notre Dame game (Art Parisien threw a 23-yard TD pass to Butch Niemiec with 2 minutes to go for a 13-12 Irish win), the 1937 Notre Dame game (Mario Tonnelli ran 13 yards for a TD with 1:45 left in the Irish's 13-6 win), the 1944 UCLA game (Johnny Roesch scored twice in the last 2 minutes, including an 80-yard punt return with no time on the clock, and then Bob Waterfield's extra point kick hit the crossbar but rolled over, to give UCLA a 13-13 tie), the 1948 Notre Dame game (Emil Sitko ran for a 2-yard TD with 35 seconds to go and Steve Oracko hit the extra point as Notre Dame, riding a 27-game unbeaten streak, escaped with a 14-14 tie), the 1951 Stanford game (Harry Hugasian's 1-yard TD run with 1:48 to play, following a Skip Crist interception, gave Stanford a 27-20 win), the 1954 Notre Dame game (Jim Morse caught a 72-yard pass from Ralph Guglielmi with 5:57 to go to give Notre Dame a 23-17 victory), the 1963 Notre Dame game (Ken Ivan kicked a 33-yard field goal with 6:38 to go as Notre Dame won, 17-14), the 1965 UCLA game (Kurt Altenberg caught a 52-yard scoring bomb from Gary Beban with about 4 minutes to play as UCLA overcame a 16-6 deficit and won, 20-16), the 1967 Rose Bowl (USC's 2-point conversion pass attempt with 2:28 to play was intercepted by George Catavolos, allowing Purdue to hold onto a 14-13 win), the 1975 Stanford game (Mike Langford kicked a 37-yard field goal with no time on the clock as Stanford won, 13-10), the 1977 Alabama game (under pressure from Alabama's Wayne Hamilton, Rob Hertel's 2-point conversion pass to Mosi Tatupu with 35 seconds to play was intercepted by Barry Krauss, sealing the Tide's 21-20 victory), the 1980 UCLA game (Freeman McNeil pulled down a tipped 58-yard pass from Jay Schroeder for the game-winner at 2:07 to play for a 20-17 win), the 1982 UCLA game (Bruin Karl Morgan preserved UCLA's 20-19 win by sacking Scott Tinsley on an attempted 2-point conversion pass after USC had scored at the gun), the 1986 Notre Dame game (the Irish rallied back from a 20-9 halftime deficit, culminated by John Carney's 19-yard field goal as time expired to give Notre Dame a 38-37 win), the 1989 Illinois game (a pair of late fourth quarter Jeff George TD passes, the second to Steve Williams with 2:19 to play, gave the Illini a 14-13 win), the 1991 Stanford game (USC went ahead 21-17 with 3:37 to play only to see Steve Stenstrom hit Chris Walsh with a game-winning 12-yard TD pass with 1:11 left; "THE COMEBACK"

1974: USC 55, Notre Dame 24

In what is regarded as one of the most dramatic and incredible comebacks in the history of college football, the 1974 Trojans erased a 24-point deficit to beat Notre Dame, 55-24, in the Coliseum. In a December 1998 list by SPORT magazine, the game was ranked as the No. 6 top college football moment of the 20th century.

USC trailed the Irish, 24-0, late in the first half, and the Trojans' chances looked bleak because Notre Dame sported the nation's top-ranked defense. But with 10 seconds remaining before halftime, Anthony Davis scored on a 7-yard pass from Pat Haden (Troy's extra point kick was blocked) to send the Trojans into the lockerroom behind 24-6...but with a glimmer of hope.

Davis took the opening kickoff of the second half and raced 102 yards for a score, opening the floodgates as USC rallied for 35 points in the third quarter. Davis scored 2 more times that quarter, both on short runs, and Haden threw TD passes of 18 and 45 yards to Johnny McKay.

Then, before 2 minutes had elapsed in the fourth quarter, Haden hit Shelton Diggs for a 16-yard score and Charles Phillips returned an interception 58 yards for a touchdown.

In all, USC blitzed to its 55 points in under 17 minutes.

"We turned into madmen," was how Davis described the comeback.

Added receiver Johnny McKay, son of USC coach John McKay, right after the game: "I can't understand it. I'm gonna sit down tonight and have a beer and think about it. Against Notre Dame? Maybe against Kent State...but Notre Dame?"

The victory propelled USC, which then beat Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, 18-17, to the national championship.

Interestingly, that Rose Bowl win was dramatic, too. USC trailed, 17-10, with just minutes left. Then Haden teamed with McKay on a 38-yard TD pass with 2:03 to go, and followed that with a 2-point conversion toss to Diggs for the victory.

USC: AMERICA'S BOWL TEAM

USC has a remarkable record in bowl games. The Trojans have the nation's fourth highest bowl winning percentage (.660) among the 81 schools that have made at least 10 bowl appearances (behind Utah's .765, Miami of Ohio's .700 and Boise State's .692). USC's 31 bowl victories is second behind Alabama's 34 for the most in the nation (not including 1 win for both teams vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 32 for USC, 35 for Alabama). Troy's 47 bowl appearances are sixth most, behind Alabama (60), Texas (51), Tennessee (49), Nebraska (49) and Georgia (48) (not including 2 USC apperances and 1 Alabama appearance vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 48 for USC, 61 for Alabama). USC once won 9 consecutive bowl games (the 1923-30-32-33-39-40-44-45 Rose Bowls and 1924 Christmas Festival); only Florida State has won more in a row (11).

USC's overall post-season record is 31-16 (not in cluding 1 win and 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 32-16). The Trojans were a bowl participant each year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

USC has appeared in an unprecedented 31 Rose Bowls, where it has a 23-8 mark (.742) (not including 2 appearances, 1 win and 1 loss later vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 33 Rose Bowls, 24-9, .718). That is not only the most Rose Bowl wins of any team, but also the most wins by a school in a single bowl. USC has won 10 of its last 12 Rose Bowls (not including 2 appearances, 1 win and 1 loss later vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 11 of its last 14). USC is the only team to win 3 consecutive Rose Bowls (2007-08-09). USC twice played in 4 consecutive Rose Bowl games (1967 to 1970 and 2006 to 2009); Ohio State (1973 to 1976) is the only other team to have done so.

USC has also appeared in 12 other bowls--the Christmas Festival, Liberty Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Florida Citrus Bowl, Sun (John Hancock) Bowl (3 times), Freedom Bowl (twice), Cotton Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, Orange Bowl (twice) and Emerald Bowl.

USC has made 5 BCS bowl appearances (2003 Orange, 2004 Rose, 2007 Rose, 2008 Rose, 2009 Rose) (not including 2 appearances--2005 Orange and 2006 Rose--vacated by NCAA penalty; original record: an unprecedented 7 consecutive BCS bowl appearances). USC's 5 overall BCS bowl trips are tied for sixth most, behind Ohio State's 8, Oklahoma's 8, Florida's 7, Florida State's 7 and Virginia Tech's 6 (not including 2 appearances vacated by NCAA penalty; orginal record: 7 appearances, third most; also, 1 Ohio State appearance vacated by NCAA penalty). USC's 5 BCS bowl victories are tied with Ohio State for the most of any school (not including 1 win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 6 victories, tied with Ohio State for most; also, 1 Ohio State win vacated by NCAA penalty).

1923 Rose Bowl
USC 14, Penn State 3

In the first Rose Bowl game played in the present Rose Bowl stadium, USC, a substitute Western entry for California, which had declined the invitation, defeated Penn State, 14-3. USC's first touchdown was set up by Harold Galloway, who caught a pass while flat on his back at the two-yard line. Penn State arrived at the game 45 minutes late after being caught in a traffic jam, and the game concluded in moonlight as sportswriters had to strike matches to complete their stories.

USC's Heisman Trophy winning tailback Charles White stole the show as he led the Trojans to a come-from-behind win in one of the most exciting games in Rose Bowl history. White, named Player of the Game for the second straight year, rushed for a Rose Bowl record 247 yards, including a one-yard touchdown dive with 1:32 remaining in the game that gave USC the win. The Trojans jumped out to an early 10-0 lead, but Ohio State came back to take a 16-10 lead in the fourth quarter. Then White took over. With 5:21 remaining in the game, the Trojans got the ball on their own 17-yard line. USC marched 83 yards in eight plays, all on the ground. On the winning drive, White carried six times for 71 yards.

USC's defense prevailed over Ohio State's potent offense featuring Heisman Trophy runnerup Keith Byars, 20-17. Interceptions set up USC's two touchdowns and the Trojan defense also stopped two key Buckeye drives--one early in the contest that got to the four-yard line and one late in the game which ended up at the 38. For USC, Tim Green threw touchdown passes to Joe Cormier and Timmie Ware while Steve Jordan kicked two 51-yard field goals. Most of Ohio State's points were provided by Rich Spangler, who hit three field goals.

The nation's top two bowl teams (USC with the most wins and Alabama with the most appearances) faced off in balmy Honolulu. The score was tied at halftime, 3-3, but the Crimson Tide rolled in the second half to win, 24-3. USC managed only 197 total yards (just 61 rushing) and 10 first downs. On the other hand, Alabama had 317 total yards, 205 coming on the ground. Mike Shula, Al Bell, Gene Jelks, Cornelius Bennett and Jon Hand starred for the Crimson Tide.

Auburn 16, USC 7

In Ted Tollner's final game as USC's head coach, his Trojan defense held down a high-powered Auburn offense (led by Brent Fullwood, the nation's top runner). But Troy's offense was ineffective and the Tigers won, 16-7, in chilly Orlando. Outside linebacker Marcus Cotton provided USC with its only score on a spectacular 24-yard scoring interception return early in the game. Two long second-quarter drives by Auburn, plus a safety late in the game, gave Auburn its only points. USC made it interesting at the end after Louis Brock blocked a Tiger punt, but the Trojans couldn't score on fourth-and-inches at the goal line. Fullwood had 152 yards rushing and one TD for Auburn, which had just 290 total yards on the day.

Michigan State 20, USC 17

For just the fifth time ever, teams that had played each other earlier in the season (Michigan State had beaten USC in the 1988 season opener, 27-13) faced off in the Rose Bowl. The Spartans prevailed again, this time 20-17, breaking a six-game Big Ten losing streak in Pasadena. Despite getting more total yards (410 to 276) and first downs (21 to 11) than Michigan State, the Trojans were hurt by five turnovers, including a lost fumble on a mishandled snap on the Spartan 30 with 1:37 to play as Troy was marching downfield on an impressive drive. USC trailed 14-3 at halftime, but two touchdowns passes from quarterback Rodney Peete to split end Ken Henry eventually evened the score at 17-17 midway through the last quarter. On the next series, Michigan State moved into its winning field goal position with the help of a spectacular 36-yard jump pass from quarterback Bobby McAllister to split end Andre Rison. USC had to play Michigan State for the second time that season without star Trojan tailback Steven Webster (he sat out the opener with a sprained ankle and tore knee ligaments in the regular season finale against UCLA).

1989 Rose Bowl
Michigan 22, USC 14

In a "teacher-versus-pupil" matchup (USC coach Larry Smith served under Wolverine coach Bo Schembechler at both Miami of Ohio and Michigan), the teacher got the better of it as Michigan came back from a 14-3 halftime deficit to win 22-14. It was a disappointing way for USC to conclude its 100th anniversary of football. After falling behind 3-0 on a Mike Gillette field goal, USC charged back as quarterback Rodney Peete ran for a pair of short touchdowns (1 and 4 yards) in the second quarter. But it was all Michigan in the second half, as the Wolverines amassed 230 of their 352 total yards then. They scored 3 times on long drives, the first on a 6-yard Demetrius Brown-to-Chris Calloway aerial that capped a 67-yard drive to open the third quarter. Then Rose Bowl MVP Leroy Hoard scored twice for Michigan on 1-yard runs in the final period, coming off of 92 and 70-yard drives. Hoard had 142 yards rushing (the first time anyone broke the century rushing mark against the Trojans all year), including a key 61-yard run to set up the Wolverines' final score. USC, which managed a season-low 296 total yards, didn't help its cause with 5 turnovers, 11 penalties and numerous missed tackles. The win was only Schembechler's second in 9 tries in Pasadena.

1990 Rose Bowl
USC 17, Michigan 10

After losing the previous 2 Rose Bowls, USC beat Michigan, 17-10, in a rematch of the 1989 game. The win, in Bo Schembechler's final game as Wolverine coach, ended Michigan's national title hopes. It was a bittersweet victory for USC coach Larry Smith, who served 6 years as an assistant under Schembechler at Miami of Ohio and Michigan. Trojan tailback Ricky Ervins, the Rose Bowl MVP, scored the game-winning TD on a 14-yard run with 1:10 to play. Ervins, who lives 5 minutes from the Rose Bowl and used to park cars there on New Year's Day, ran for 126 yards on 30 carries and caught 5 passes for 44 yards. USC, which dominated the stats, pulled off a key play early in the second quarter when defensive guard Dan Owens blocked a punt. Six plays later, quarterback Todd Marinovich, who was 22-of-31 passing for 178 yards, scored on a 1-yard run. Kickers J.D. Carlson of Michigan (19 yards) and USC's Quin Rodriguez (34 yards) then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run by tailback Allen Jefferson in the third quarter and the game looked like it would end deadlocked. But, with less than 6 minutes to go, Michigan was called for holding on a successful Wolverine fake punt and USC took over at its 25-yard line. Troy then went 75 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Michigan tailback Leroy Hoard became the first player to run for 100-plus yards against USC all season (he had 108 yards on 17 carries).

1990 John Hancock Bowl
Michigan State 17, USC 16

Playing in its eighth different bowl, USC lost to Michigan State, 17-16, in the John Hancock Bowl in El Paso, Tex., on New Year's Eve day. It was the 900th game in Trojan gridiron history. USC dominated the stats, getting more total yards (336-215), plays (76-52), first downs (21-12) and possession time (35:45-24:15). Troy limited the powerful Spartan rushing attack (which averaged 253.9 yards a game to rank 10th nationally) to an MSU season-low 84 yards. Big Ten rushing champ tailback Tico Duckett got just 18 yards. But Troy had 4 costly turnovers (including 2 in MSU's end zone) and converted only 5 of 14 first downs. USC scored first when quarterback Todd Marinovich hit flanker Gary Wellman with a 7-yard TD pass late in the opening quarter. Marinovich was 18-of-30 for 174 yards, but threw 3 interceptions (including 1 in the end zone) and also fumbled the ball on fourth-and-goal at the Spartan 1-yard line in the middle of the second quarter (which MSU recovered in the end zone). Michigan State marched 80 yards to a TD after that fumble recovery, with tailback Hyland Hickson scoring on an 18-yard run to tie the score at 7-7 at halftime. After placekicker Quin Rodriguez hit a 20-yard field goal on USC's opening possession of the second half (which ended on the MSU 3-yard line), the Spartans countered with a 21-yard TD pass from quarterback Dan Enos to flanker Courtney Hawkins (the first TD reception by a MSU wide receiver all year), who was the game's MVP with 6 catches for a season-high 106 yards, and a career-long 52-yard field goal by John Langeloh. Rodriguez capped USC's next series with a career-long 54-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. Then, down 17-13, cornerback Stephon Pace intercepted an Enos pass to give USC the ball near midfield. But the Trojans could get no closer than the MSU 17 before backup quarterback Shane Foley's errant pitch stalled the drive and USC had to settle for another Rodriguez field goal, this one 43 yards with 5:54 to play. Troy, however, could never get the ball back. Tailback Mazio Royster had a game-high 125 yards on 32 carries, only the second player to break the century rushing mark against Michigan State in 1990. USC rushed for 156 yards versus an MSU defense which was ranked 17th nationally against the run (allowing just 113.2 yards a game). Trojan outside linebacker Craig Hartsuyker, who had 2 quarterback sacks and forced a fumble, was named the game's Most Valuable Lineman.

1992 Freedom Bowl
Fresno State 24, USC 7

USC, making its 35th bowl appearance, was stunned by unranked, 8-point underdog Fresno State, 24-7, in the ninth Freedom Bowl in Anaheim Stadium. It was the first meeting ever between the Trojans and Bulldogs. Fresno State dominated, particularly in the second half. FSU, with the nation's No. 1 scoring offense (40.5) and No. 2 total offense (482.9), held the ball 15-plus minutes more (37:32-22:28), had 322 more total yards (405-183), 10 more first downs (24-14) and 34 more plays (84-50). USC's 183 total yards were its fewest since getting 163 at Washington in 1990 and its 95 passing yards were its fewest since getting 74 at Oregon in 1991. The Trojans had 4 turnovers (FSU had none) and converted just 1-of-9 third downs. The first half, played in a steady rain, ended in a 7-7 tie. It was the fewest points FSU had scored in a half all season (and it was the first time the Bulldogs were shut out in the first quarter in 1992). USC tailback Deon Strother opened the scoring with a 1-yard plunge early in the second quarter, but FSU answered when fullback Lorenzo Neal ran for a 1-yard TD. While attempting to catch a pass on the last play of the half, USC flanker Curtis Conway sprained his right knee and missed the second half (it was the first time in 23 games that he didn't catch a pass). After a 43-yard field goal by placekicker Derek Mahoney in the third quarter, FSU scored twice late in the game on runs by tailbacks Anthony Daigle (2 yards) and Ron Rivers (5 yards). Rivers had a game-high 104 yards on 19 carries, while Freedom Bowl MVP Neal had 75 yards on 19 tries. Bulldog quarterback Trent Dilfer was 13-of-28 for 164 yards. Tailback Estrus Crayton, USC's game MVP, led Troy with 79 yards on 19 attempts. Defensively, safety Jason Sehorn had a game-high 10 tackles, while inside linebacker Brian Williams added 9 stops, cornerback Jerald Henry had 8, and cornerback Jason Oliver had 7 along with a blocked field goal.

1993 Freedom Bowl
USC 28, Utah 21

USC, exorcising the demons of Anaheim Stadium, scored 28 points in the first 17 minutes of the game and then held off a furious Utah second-half rally to win Freedom Bowl X, 28-21, before 43,150 fans and a national Raycom television audience. The Trojans, making their 36th bowl appearance, were playing in Anaheim Stadium for the third time in 14 games, but had yet to win there (losing in the 1992 Freedom Bowl to Fresno State and the 1993 season-opening Disneyland Pigskin Classic to North Carolina). It was the first USC-Utah meeting in 45 years. USC, a 17-point favorite, scored easily on its first 4 possessions. In the first quarter, quarterback Rob Johnson hit All-American wide receiver Johnnie Morton on TD throws of 31 and 9 yards, and tailback David Dotson dove over from 2 yards out. Then, Johnson connected with tight end Johnny McWilliams on a 5-yard scoring toss just 1:26 into the second quarter. But after that, USC's offense--hampered by an ineffective running game (the Trojans ran for just 91 yards)--stalled. Utah, playing in just its fourth bowl game, came alive after halftime, scoring on 3 of its first 5 possessions: a 59-yard TD pass from quarterback Mike McCoy to slotback Henry Lusk, a 34-yard run by fullback Jamal Anderson and a 1-yard run by tailback Keith Williams. But USC got the ball with 3:19 to play and held it until just 8 seconds remained, when McCoy's desperation pass was intercepted by cornerback John Herpin (Herpin's second pick of the game). Morton was named the game's MVP as he caught a Freedom Bowl-record 10 passes for 147 yards and the 2 scores (to tie a Freedom Bowl TD catch mark) despite playing weakened with the flu (7 of his catches for 121 yards and both TDs were in the first half). Johnson, who also had come down with a slight case of the flu, completed a Freedom Bowl-record 30 passes in 44 attempts for 345 yards and the 3 TD aerials (in the first half, he was 17-of-25 for 255 with the 3 TDs). Morton became the Pac-10's No. 2 career receiver with 201 grabs, while Johnson set USC's season pass completion percentage mark (68.6%). USC tailback Shawn Walters ran for a game-high 70 yards on 19 carries, while fullback Deon Strother added 50 rushing yards on 9 attempts and caught 6 passes for 63 yards. USC wide receiver Ken Grace, who had 4 catches for 48 yards, returned a punt 31 yards, a Freedom Bowl mark. USC generated 436 yards of total offense on 82 plays and held the ball 32:14. Utah threatened 3 times inside the USC 30-yard line in the opening half, but USC's defense held each time, including an impressive goal line stand and an interception in the end zone by cornerback Jason Sehorn. Utah came into the game averaging 484.6 total yards (fifth in the U.S.), 324.3 passing yards (seventh in the U.S.) and 30.8 points, but was limited to 350 total yards (286 through the air). McCoy, who was second nationally in total offense (330.8), was 23-of-40 for 286 yards, 1 TD and 3 interceptions (at the half, he was 10-of-20 for 81 yards with 2 picks). Lusk had 6 catches for 140 yards and the TD, while Anderson ran for 67 yards and the TD on 16 carries and caught 7 passes for 61 yards. Outside linebacker Brian Williams and safety Mike Salmon topped USC in tackles with 9 each (both had 2 for losses). USC coach John Robinson, who has led USC to at least 8 wins in each of his 8 seasons there, upped his bowl record to 5-1.

1995 Cotton Bowl
USC 55, Texas Tech 14

USC (ranked 20th by UPI, 21st by AP and 22nd by USA Today/CNN) made quite an impression in its first visit to the Mobil Cotton Bowl Classic, smashing Texas Tech, 55-14, in a record-filled performance before a sellout crowd of 70,218 and an NBC-TV national audience. It was USC's 24th bowl victory, its 37th bowl appearance (in 10 different bowls), its 17th win in the last 19 games against Southwest Conference opponents, its third win in 3 tries over Texas Tech, and coach John Robinson's sixth bowl win in 7 trips (giving Robinson at least 8 wins in each of his 9 seasons at Troy). After 59 years, it was also the last Cotton Bowl where an SWC team served as host. Texas Tech was making only its second visit to the Cotton Bowl (the first was in 1939). The game was over quickly, as it was 28-0 after the first quarter and 34-0 at halftime. USC led 48-0 before Texas Tech scored against the Trojan reserves late in the third quarter. USC set Cotton Bowl records for most points in a game, most points in a quarter (USC's most since also scoring 28 in the second quarter against California in 1978) and most touchdowns (7), while scoring its most points ever in a bowl and posting its biggest bowl victory margin (second in Cotton Bowl history). It was the most points scored against Texas Tech since Miami had 61 in 1986. Troy's first 3 scores came in a 1:16 span. After tailback Shawn Walters, 1 of 8 Texans on the Trojan roster, ran 11 yards for a TD, USC recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and, on the next play, quarterback Rob Johnson hit fullback Terry Barnum for a 19-yard score. Three plays later, cornerback John Herpin, another Texas native, intercepted a Zebbie Lethridge pass and returned it 26 yards for a TD. Herpin, who intercepted another pass in the second quarter to set up a field goal, was named the game's Outstanding Defensive Player. USC's next 3 TDs came on aerials to wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson of 12, 22 and 86 yards (the 86-yarder was 1 yard shy of the longest pass in Cotton Bowl and USC history), the first 2 from Rob Johnson and the third from quarterback Brad Otton. Keyshawn Johnson, selected as the game's Outstanding Offensive Player, had 8 catches overall for a Cotton Bowl-record 222 yards (just 7 yards shy of the Trojan single game record). His 3 TD catches set a Cotton Bowl record and equalled a Trojan mark. Rob Johnson, who became USC's career passing yardage leader and the Pac-10 and USC recordholder for career completion percentage, was 16-of-21 for 289 yards (the second most yards in Cotton Bowl history). The other Trojan scores came on a late 2-yard Otton pass to tight end Jeff Diltz and second quarter field goals by placekicker Cole Ford of 39 and a career-best 42 yards. Ford's 7 PAT kicks was a Cotton Bowl record. Walters ran for a game-best 82 yards on 14 carries. Otton was 8-of-14 for 146 yards. USC thoroughly dominated the statistics, more than doubling Texas Tech in total yardage (578-260) and possession time (40:02-19:58) while also having more first downs (21-14) and plays (80-63). USC, which averaged 7.2 yards per play, set Cotton Bowl records for total yards, passing yards (a USC record 435) and completions (24). USC did this against a Texas Tech defense which entered the game third nationally in pass efficiency defense (88.6), 10th in scoring defense (17.4) and 22nd in total defense (311.0). The Red Raiders had held 5 foes to single digits in scoring and had given up just 47 points in their previous 5 games. Inside linebacker Jeff Kopp led USC in tackles with 7, while safety Sammy Knight added 6. Texas Tech, which punted 10 times, advanced into USC territory on just 4 of its 16 possessions.

USC 41, Northwestern 32

Behind the stellar play of wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson and quarterback Brad Otton, USC (ranked 15th by UPI and 17th by USA Today/CNN and AP) put an end to No. 3-ranked Northwestern's Cinderella season with an exciting 41-32 Rose Bowl win before a sellout crowd of 100,102 and a national ABC-TV audience. It was the 50th anniversary of the Pac-10/Big Ten agreement in the Rose Bowl. It was USC's 20th victory in its unprecedented 28th trip to Pasadena (but its first since the 1990 game) and Troy's first win over a Top 3 team since defeating Michigan in that 1990 Rose Bowl, while Northwestern--having its first winning season since 1971 (the Wildcats came in with a 10-1 record)--was playing in only its second-ever bowl (its first since winning the 1949 Rose Bowl). It also gave USC coach John Robinson a 4-0 Rose Bowl record (and 7-1 in all bowls). The Trojans jumped off to a quick start, driving 83 yards with the opening kickoff while using a no-huddle offense as running back LaVale Woods scored on a 1-yard plunge. But Northwestern answered on its first possession, as running back Darnell Autry ran 3 yards for a TD to cap a 68-yard drive. USC then scored 17 unanswered second quarter points: a scrambling 21-yard TD pass from Otton to running back Terry Barnum, a 30-yard field goal by placekicker Adam Abrams and, on Northwestern's next possession, cornerback Daylon McCutcheon's 53-yard fumble return after safety Sammy Knight knocked the ball loose from Wildcat wide receiver Brian Musso. Northwestern got a 29-yard field goal from placekicker Brian Gowins with 2 seconds to go in the half following a Trojan fumble, but Troy led 24-10 at intermission (it was USC's most first half points since scoring 34 against Texas Tech in the 1995 Cotton Bowl). The Wildcats then scored on their first 4 possessions of the second half: another Gowins field goal (this one from 28 yards), a 9-yard Autry run (after Northwestern recovered a surprise on-side kick), a 1-yard sneak by quarterback Steve Schnur (which followed a 56-yard Trojan scoring strike from Otton to Johnson), and a 2-yard Autry run early in the fourth quarter that gave Northwestern its first lead of the day, 32-31. But USC came right back, getting a 46-yard Abrams field goal (the longest by a Trojan since Quin Rodriguez hit a 54-yarder against Michigan State in the 1990 John Hancock Bowl). Safety Jesse Davis then sealed the victory for USC with an interception which led to a 5-yard TD by running back Delon Washington. Johnson, who served as a Trojan ballboy at the 1985 Rose Bowl, was named the Rose Bowl MVP, as he grabbed 12 passes (all for first downs) for a Rose Bowl record 216 yards (his 17th 100-yard outing in his career and the eighth of 1995). Otton played the entire game for the first time in the 1995 season, hitting 29-of-44 passes for 391 yards (all career highs) with 2 TDs and no interceptions; the yardage was 1 yard shy of Rob Johnson's USC record and was the third most in Rose Bowl history. Autry had his 13th consecutive 100-yard rushing game, getting 110 yards on 32 carries with the 3 TDs, while Schnur was 23-of-39 for a career-best 336 yards (including 7 completions for 145 yards to wide receiver D'Wayne Bates). Northwestern outgained USC in total yards, 475-520, and limited Troy to just 29 rushing yards (its fewest since getting 7 yards against UCLA in 1993), but the Wildcats' uncharacteristic 2 turnovers led to 14 Trojan points, proving costly to a team which was third nationally in turnover margin (1.82). The Wildcats also had a TD pass called back because of a penalty late in the game and missed 2 field goals, including a 49-yard attempt that hit the upright with 35 seconds to go. USC, on the other hand, had 11 penalties (including 9 in the second half). Trojan cornerback Brian Kelly had a game-high 11 tackles (along with 2 deflections), while Knight and linebacker Scott Fields added 7 stops each.

1998 Sun Bowl
TCU 28, USC 19

In a stunning upset, 16-point underdog TCU—which barely qualified for post-season play with a 6-5 record—used a potent option attack and a stingy run defense to beat USC, 28-19, in the 65th Norwest Sun Bowl before 46,612 fans and a national CBS-TV audience. The Horned Frogs' option offense gained 314 yards on the ground (the most against the Trojans since Notre Dame had 330 in 1992) and their defense limited Troy to a USC and Sun Bowl record low -23 rushing yards. It was TCU's first bowl win since 1957. TCU, which scored touchdowns on its first 3 possessions of the opening half on runs of 3 and 60 yards by TB Basil Mitchell and 7 yards by QB Patrick Batteaux, led 21-3 at intermission. USC's only first-half points came on a 35-yard field goal by PK Adam Abrams late in the second quarter. The Horned Frogs opened up a 25-point lead on their initial drive of the second half as Batteaux scored on a 3-yard run. USC battled back by scoring on its first 3 drives of the second half, first on a 23-yard pass from QB Carson Palmer to WR Billy Miller, then on a 1-yard run by TB Petros Papadakis and a 46-yard Abrams field goal early in the fourth quarter (Abrams was the game's Special Teams MVP). The Trojans got the ball back twice more, but those drives resulted in a loss of 30 yards as Palmer was sacked 3 times. Mitchell, the game's MVP rushed for 185 yards on 19 carries (including 114 in the first half) for a 9.7 average per carry. Batteaux added 94 yards on 28 tries while executing the option to perfection (he also completed 4-of-5 passes for 51 yards). TCU stayed mainly on the ground, as 61 of its 67 plays were runs (the most rushes against USC since Penn State had 66 in 1993). The Horned Frogs threw for only 51 yards (the fewest allowed by USC since Oregon State had 29 in 1995). TCU amassed 365 total yards, converted 10-of-16 third downs (including 7-of-9 in the first half) and held the ball 35:51. USC managed just 257 total yards and 12 first downs on only 49 plays. Troy converted just 1-of-11 third downs (that came in the first quarter). Palmer was 17-of-28 for a career-best 280 yards, but was sacked 6 times (all in the second half). WR R. Jay Soward had a game-best 6 catches for 64 yards, WR Larry Parker added 4 for 104 yards and Miller had 3 for 67 yards. LB Chris Claiborne had a game-best 13 tackles and S Grant Pearsall added 11 stops.

2001 Las Vegas Bowl
Utah 10, USC 6

Behind a time-consuming, powerful running attack and a dominating defense, Utah beat USC, 10-6, in the 10th Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl before 22,385 fans and a national ABC-TV audience. The outcome–the Trojans' fifth loss of 2001 by 5 or less points–snapped USC's 4-game winning streak and Utah's 2-game losing skid. It also ended the Utes' 6-game losing streak to USC (Utah last beat Troy in 1916). The defensive struggle produced the lowest scoring Las Vegas Bowl ever. But that figured, as both squads were highly-ranked nationally in scoring defense (USC was 11th at 17.9 and Utah was 13th at 18.6). Utah, which entered the game ranked in the Top 25 nationally in all 4 defensive categories, limited the Trojans to just 151 total yards, including only 1 yard rushing. It was USC's fewest total yards since getting 124 against Washington in 1996 and its fewest rushing yards since having -20 at Arizona in 1999. USC had just 12 first downs, converted only 2-of-12 third downs and was sacked 4 times (including twice by ROV Sheldon Deckart, who had a team-high 6 tackles). USC punted on 8 of its 11 possessions (including on its first 4 drives and its final 4), went 3-and-out 5 times and penetrated Utah territory only 4 times (getting inside the 30 just once). At halftime, USC had just 15 total yards (with -53 on the ground) and 3 first downs. On offense, Utah–which was 12th nationally in rushing offense at 218.9–controlled the clock (holding the ball 16 minutes more than USC, 38:01 to 21:59) by running 54 times for 222 of its 358 total yards. The Utes ran off 75 plays (USC had just 51). HB Adam Tate ran for a game-best 103 yards on 23 carries, while fellow HB Dameon Hunter (a 1,000-yard runner in 2001) rushed for 94 yards on 17 tries and was named Utah's game MVP. Utah QB Lance Rice was 12-of-21 for 136 yards while hitting some timely passes, including a game-best 4 to WR Josh Lyman (for 41 yards) and 3 to TE Michael Richardson (for 35 yards). Utah scored on its second possession of the game as Tate ran for a 3-yard TD to cap a 7-play, 48-yard drive late in the first quarter. Then, after USC PK David Davis–the Pac-10's most accurate field goal kicker in 2001–missed a 47-yarder (breaking his string of 12 consecutive successful field goals), the Utes drove 61 yards in 12 plays to set up PK Ryan Kaneshiro's 26-yard field goal with 29 seconds to play in the half. USC came alive to start the second half, taking the opening kickoff and driving 80 yards in 12 plays, finishing with a 2-yard scoring run by FB Sunny Byrd (but Davis missed the PAT). But despite getting a pair of turnovers–CB Kris Richard recovered a fumble and LB John Cousins intercepted a pass–on Utah's next 2 possessions, the Trojans couldn't get any closer than the Ute 40-yard line the rest of the way. Trojan QB Carson Palmer was 15-of-26 for 150 yards, while WRs Kareem Kelly (33 yards) and Devin Pitts (32 yards) each had 3 receptions. Trojan All-American safety Troy Polamalu–picked as USC's game MVP–had a Las Vegas Bowl record and career-high 20 tackles (with a game record 12 solo), including 3 for losses, while S DeShaun Hill (14 stops and a forced fumble) and LB Frank Strong (12 tackles, including 4 for losses) also posted career bests in tackles. It was USC's first game in the state of Nevada and its sixth contest on Christmas Day (but its first since 1934). The crowd was the smallest ever to see USC in a bowl and the fewest at a Trojan game since 20,938 showed up at Oregon State in 1997.

2003 Orange Bowl
USC 38, Iowa 17

No. 5-ranked USC–behind a balanced offense and a stingy defense–staked its claim as one of the nation's top teams as it swamped No. 3 Iowa, 38-17, in the 69th FedEx Orange Bowl before a sold out crowd of 75,971 fans under the lights in Pro Player Stadium and a national ABC-TV audience. It was Pac-10 co-champion USC's eighth win in a row (giving Troy its first 11-win season since 1979) and it snapped Big Ten co-champ Iowa's 9-game winning streak. It was the first meeting between the teams in 26 years and the first trip to the Orange Bowl for either school. It also was Troy's first win ever in Florida in 5 tries and came against the ninth AP-ranked squad the Trojans played in the 2002 season. And USC scored at least 30 points for a school-record eighth consecutive game. USC dominated the Hawkeyes statistically, getting more total yards (550-323), first downs (30-18), plays (80-58) and possession time (38:06-21:54). It was the ninth game in a row that USC had at least 400 yards of total offense. Despite facing an Iowa defense that was second nationally against the run (68.2), Troy rushed for a season-best 247 yards and scored 4 TDs on the ground. And USC–playing without 2-time All-American S Troy Polamalu, who was held out with a sore hamstring–kept in check a Hawkeye offense that was sixth nationally in scoring (38.9). At the start, it looked like Iowa would provide a stiff challenge as WR C.J. Jones ran back the opening kickoff an Orange Bowl-record 100 yards for a TD. But USC responded quickly as QB Carson Palmer's 65-yard bomb to WR Kareem Kelly on Troy's first play set up TB Justin Fargas' 4-yard scoring run just 3 plays later. Then, after Iowa had to settle for a 35-yard field goal by PK Nate Kaeding after advancing to the USC 2-yard line on the ensuing drive, USC reeled off 31 unanswered points. First, PK Ryan Killeen atoned for an earlier missed field goal by nailing a 35-yarder late in the half (DT Bernard Riley then blocked Kaeding's 28-yard field goal try at the end of the half to keep the score knotted at 10-10). Next, USC scored on its first 3 possessions of the second half, first an 18-yard Palmer TD pass to WR Mike Williams, then a career-long 50-yard TD run by Fargas (to cap a 99-yard drive) and a 5-yard run by TB Sultan McCullough at the top of the fourth quarter. FB Sunny Byrd added a 6-yard scoring run late in the game before Iowa added a touchdown against USC's reserves on an 18-yard pass from QB Brad Banks to WR Maurice Brown. Palmer proved his Heisman Trophy was no fluke as he hit 21-of-31 passes for 303 yards to earn Orange Bowl MVP honors, while Heisman runnerup Banks–the nation's passing efficiency leader–was just 15-of-36 for 204 yards and an interception (his first pick in his last 104 attempts). Fargas ran for 122 yards on 20 carries and McCullough added 76 yards on 12 tries, while Iowa RB Fred Russell–12th in the nation in rushing–was held to just 45 yards on 9 carries. Florida native Williams (game-high 99 yards) and WR Keary Colbert (81 yards) each had 6 receptions, while Kelly had 3 for 74 yards to set an NCAA record for consecutive games with a catch (47) en route to becoming USC's career reception leader (204). Williams set NCAA freshman records for receptions (81), receiving yards (1,265) and receiving TDs (14). Brown had 6 catches for 63 yards for Iowa. LBs Mike Pollard and Matt Grootegoed each had a team-best 6 tackles for USC, while S Jason Leach had an interception and fumble recovery while filling in for Polamalu. Iowa hurt itself with 13 penalties and turned the ball over twice.

USC 28, Michigan 14

QB Matt Leinart threw 3 touchdowns and caught another and the relentless Trojan defense recorded a season-high 9 sacks as No. 1 USC dominated No. 4 Michigan, 28-14, in the 90th Rose Bowl before a soldout crowd of 93,849 and an ABC-TV national audience. The victory (USC's 21st Rose Bowl win) virtually guaranteed Troy the AP national championship, 25 years after its last national crown, and gave USC its first 12-win season since 1978. And it snapped Michigan's 6-game winning streak. The Trojans built a 21-0 lead before Michigan scored late in the third quarter. After DT Shaun Cody blocked a Wolverine field goal attempt early in the game, USC scored 4 plays into its first possession when WR Keary Colbert made an over-the-shoulder fingertip grab of Leinart's 25-yard aerial. Then, late in the first half following LB Lofa Tatupu's interception (he grabbed a ball that bounced off of SE Braylon Edwards' foot and returned it 26 yards to the Michigan 3), TB LenDale White took a Leinart toss 6 yards for another TD. Then, on the opening drive of the second half, Colbert made a spectacular one-handed grab of a 47-yard Leinart bomb (despite being interfered with) to up Troy's cushion. However, Michigan answered on its next series with a scoring drive that took nearly 8 minutes, capped by QB John Navarre's 5-yard pass to TE Tim Massaquoi. But USC responded right back, scoring on a tricky 15-yard reverse pass from WR Mike Williams to an unguarded Leinart. Wolverine TB Chris Perry ran 2 yards for a TD early in final quarter, but Michigan had the ball for only 4:12 in that quarter and never threatened again. Leinart was named the Rose Bowl MVP as he connected on 23-of-34 passes for 327 yards with the 3 scores (and no interceptions), along with his TD catch. Colbert, who became USC's career reception leader (with 207 catches), had 6 catches for a career-best 149 yards. Williams added a team-best 8 catches for 88 yards. White's TD was his 14th of the year, tying the USC freshman season record, while TB Reggie Bush–who had 41 yards rushing, 42 receiving and 49 on returns–set the USC freshman season all-purpose yardage mark (1,331 yards). Tatupu had a team-high 12 tackles, CB Will Poole added 10 stops (including 2 sacks) with 5 deflections and DE Kenechi Udeze had 3 sacks. USC's 9 sacks were its most since getting 13 against Oregon in 1992. Although Michigan held the ball 34:26 and had more plays (84 to 60) and first downs (25 to 19), the Trojans accumulated 410 total yards to UM's 320 (only 49 rushing). Michigan came into the game having allowed just 15 sacks and 5 TD passes all season. Navarre was 27-of-46 for 271 yards, Perry ran for 85 yards on 23 tries and Edwards had a game-high 10 receptions for 107 yards. USC set school overall attendance (946,482) and average (72,368) records.

2005 Orange Bowl
USC 55*, Oklahoma 19

Top-ranked USC won its 11th national championship–and second consecutive–in overwhelming fashion by thumping No. 2 Oklahoma, 55-19, in the BCS Championship Game in the 2005 Orange Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 77,912 in Miami's Pro Player Stadium and a national prime time ABC-TV audience. USC became just the second team ever to hold the AP No. 1 ranking from the pre-season through the bowl (Florida State did it in 1999). The Trojans also became the 10th team to win consecutive AP national championships. It was Troy's 22nd victory in a row, including a school-record 13 in 2004. USC's 55 points tied its most ever in a bowl (and were the most ever allowed in a bowl by Oklahoma). It was a school-record eighth time in the season that USC won by 30-plus points. USC scored 38 of its points off of OU turnovers. QB Matt Leinart, the game's MVP, threw an Orange Bowl record (and USC record-tying) 5 touchdowns, including 3 to WR Steve Smith (tying both an Orange Bowl and USC record). PK Ryan Killeen set the USC career scoring record (with 329 points). Oklahoma looked impressive early, driving 92 yards for the game's first score midway through the opening quarter on a 5-yard pass from QB Jason White to WR Travis Wilson. But USC countered on the ensuing possession to start a 28-point scoring run, as TE Dominique Byrd made a spectacular one-handed TD grab of a 33-yard Leinart aerial. Then, late in the quarter, USC S Josh Pinkard recovered a botched OU punt return and TB LenDale White ran for a 6-yard TD on the next play. S Jason Leach intercepted White's desperation heave on Oklahoma's next series and Leinart soon after hit WR Dwayne Jarrett on a 54-yard scoring bomb. White was picked off again on OU's next drive, this time by CB Eric Wright, and 3 plays later Leinart hit Smith for a 5-yard score with 9:17 to go in the half. After Oklahoma responded with a 29-yard field goal by PK Garrett Hartley, USC took just 4 plays to score again, this time on Smith's impressive one-armed reception of a 33-yard Leinart pass. When Oklahoma fumbled the ball away on its following possession (LB Matt Grootegoed had the recovery), Killeen nailed a 44-yard field goal with 3 seconds to go to put USC up 38-10 at halftime. USC scored on its first 2 drives of the second half: a 4-yard Leinart-to-Smith pass and a 42-yard Killeen field goal. The Trojans capped a 27-point scoring outburst when White ran for an 8-yard TD just 5 plays after Grootegoed intercepted White early in the fourth quarter. The Sooners scored twice late in the game against mostly Trojan reserves, getting a safety when Leinart fell on a fumbled snap in the end zone and then on White's 9-yard pass to Wilson. USC piled up 525 total yards (averaging 8.3 yards per play) to the Sooners' 372, even though OU ran off 13 more plays (76 to 63) and held the ball for 35:06. But USC didn't turn the ball over, while Oklahoma had 5 giveaways. For USC, Leinart was 18-of-35 for 332 yards, White ran for 118 yards on 15 carries, Smith had 7 catches for 113 yards, Jarrett had 5 receptions for 115 yards and TB Reggie Bush had 149 all-purpose yards (75 yards on 6 rushes, 36 yards on 2 kickoff returns, 31 yards on 2 catches and a 7-yard punt return). LB Lofa Tatupu had a game-best 12 tackles, S Darnell Bing added 10 stops and Leach and Grootegoed each had 7. OU's White was 24-of-36 for 244 yards, but threw 3 interceptions, Wilson caught 7 passes for 59 yards and TB Adrian Peterson ran for 82 yards on 25 tries. It marked the first time that a pair of Heisman Trophy winners (Leinart and White) faced each other in a game (in fact, 4 of the 2004 Heisman finalists played in the game, including Bush and Peterson).

Texas 41, USC 38*

QB Vince Young ran for a pair of touchdowns in the final minutes—including an 8-yard scrambling game-winner on fourth-and-5 with 19 seconds to go—to help No. 2 Texas overcome a 12-point deficit and upend top-ranked USC, 41-38, in the BCS Championship Game in the 2006 Rose Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 93,986 and a national prime time ABC-TV audience. The win was Texas's 20th in a row and snapped USC's 34-game winning streak, denying the Trojans an unprecedented third consecutive national championship (it was also Troy's first loss after 16 straight non-conference wins and 16 consecutive victories over AP Top 25 teams). Young, the 2005 Heisman Trophy runnerup and Rose Bowl Offensive MVP, accounted for 467 yards of total offense, including 200 rushing (the most by a runner against USC since Oregon State's Ken Simonton had 234 in 2000) with 3 TDs and 267 through the air on 30-of-40 passing. After USC took a 38-26 lead with 6:42 to play on QB Matt Leinart's 22-yard scoring pass to WR Dwayne Jarrett (Jarrett's USC season record-tying 16th touchdown reception), Young marched the Longhorns down the field in 8 plays as he scrambled for a 17-yard TD with 4:03 to play. Then, after USC failed to convert a fourth-and-2 run at midfield on the ensuing possession, Texas took over with 2:09 remaining and took 11 plays to score the clincher. After USC opened the game's scoring on a 4-yard run by TB LenDale White following LB Kaluka Maiava's recovery of a fumbled Texas punt return, the Longhorns scored the next 16 points on 3 straight possessions. First, PK David Pino hit a 46-yard field goal after Texas recovered a USC fumble at the UT 19-yard line, then TB Selvin Young took a lateral from Young and went the remaining 12 yards for a score (coming after Texas intercepted a Trojan pass in the end zone), but Pino's PAT missed. Then, TB Ramonce Taylor raced 30 yards for a TD. USC responded as PK Mario Danelo nailed a career-long 43-yard field goal with 2 seconds to go in the half. The teams scored 53 points in the second half (the most points in a half ever at the Rose Bowl), when there were 4 lead changes. After White ran 3 yards for a TD early in the half to give Troy a 17-16 edge, Young answered with a 14-yard scoring run, but the Trojans came right back on White's 12-yard TD rumble late in the third quarter. After Pino missed a field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter, USC drove 80 yards, culminating in TB Reggie Bush's 26-yard scoring run. Texas narrowed the gap to 31-26 on its next series as Pino hit a 34-yard field goal with 8:46 to play, but USC responded on the ensuing drive with the Leinart-to-Jarrett TD for what appeared to be a comfortable lead before Young took over. The teams produced a Rose Bowl-record 1,130 yards of combined total offense (the 9 combined rushing TDs and 60 combined first downs were also Rose Bowl marks). USC had a Rose Bowl-record 574 total yards (including 365 passing) and averaged 7.0 yards per play. Its 38 points were the most by a losing team in the Rose Bowl. Texas had 556 total yards (the most against USC since California's 601 in 1991), including 289 rushing (the most allowed by USC since Kansas State had 340 in 2001), while averaging 7.3 yards per play (8.0 rushing). UT's 30 first downs were the most against the Trojans since UCLA had a USC opponent record-tying 32 in 1970. White ran for 124 yards and 20 carries with the 3 touchdowns (setting USC and Pac-10 records for season and career rushing and overall TDs), Leinart was 29-of-40 for 365 yards (he was 16-of-19 for 218 yards in the second half) and at one point connected on a Rose Bowl-record 11 consecutive passes, Bush had 279 all-purpose yards (82 on 13 carries, 95 on a season-best 6 receptions and 102 on 5 kickoff returns) and Jarrett had 10 catches for 121 yards. Bush and White set an NCAA record for career touchdowns by teammates (99). S Darnell Bing led USC with 9 tackles, CB Josh Pinkard added 7 stops and LB Oscar Lua had 6. USC limited Texas to just 3-of-11 third down conversions. Texas TE David Thomas had 10 catches for 88 yards, while WR Limas Sweed added 8 receptions for 65 yards. S Michael Huff, the 2005 Thorpe Award winner and Rose Bowl Defensive MVP, had a game-best 12 tackles with a fumble recovery. The game marked the first time that a team fielded a pair of already-named Heisman winners (Leinart and Bush). It also was USC's first loss to Texas in 5 meetings, its first defeat in 6 bowl appearances when ranked No. 1 and its first post-season loss to a Big 12 team in 6 bowl trips. USC set a school record for overall season attendance (1,037,565), the first time it was over the million mark, and overall season attendance average (79,813). The game was viewed on ABC-TV by 35.6 million fans, making it the highest-rated college football game since the 1987 Fiesta Bowl.

USC 32, Michigan 18

No. 8 USC used a second half offensive explosion behind 4 touchdown passes from QB John David Booty and a game-long stifling defense to dominate No. 3 Michigan, 32-18, in the 2007 Rose Bowl in front of a sold-out crowd of 93,852 and a national ABC-TV audience. It was USC's most points and biggest victory margin ever over the Wolverines. It gave Troy 5 consecutive 11-win seasons. The win exorcised the close losses Troy had in its previous 2 visits to the Pasadena stadium (to Texas in the 2006 BCS Championship Game and to UCLA at the end of the 2006 regular season). It took 30 minutes for USC—making an unprecedented fifth straight BCS bowl appearance—to shake off the disappointment of the UCLA upset that knocked the Trojans out of the BCS Championship Game. And by game's end, USC's victory quashed any talk that Michigan should have been playing in the BCS Championship Game instead of the Rose Bowl. The teams traded field goals (a 26-yarder by Trojan PK Mario Danelo late in the first quarter and a 41-yarder by PK Garrett Rivas on Michigan's ensuing possession early in the second quarter) in a mundane first half that saw USC collect just 122 total yards (20 rushing) to the Wolverines' 76 (minus 9 on the ground). But after DE Lawrence Jackson intercepted a screen pass by QB Chad Henne near midfield on Michigan's first possession of the second half, USC took just 4 plays to get into the end zone as Booty hit WR Chris McFoy for a 2-yard score. Sensing Michigan's staunchness against the run (the Wolverines led the nation in rush defense at 43.0 and allowed USC just a season-low 48 rushing yards) but its susceptibility to the pass, Booty's first toss of that series was the start of 27 passes in the Trojans' next 29 plays, as they scored on 5 consecutive drives. Late in the third quarter, Booty hit WR Dwayne Jarrett—the game's Offensive MVP with 11 catches (giving him USC's career receptions record) for 205 yards, both personal bests—on a quick slant and Jarrett broke free for a 22-yard TD (Danelo missed the PAT). In his Rose Bowl career, Jarrett's 21 receptions, 326 yards and 3 TD catches were all Rose Bowl records. Then, on Michigan's following possession, LB Brian Cushing sacked QB Chad Henne and forced a fumble that Jackson recovered, leading to a 26-yard Danelo field goal with 48 seconds to go in the quarter. The Wolverines responded, however, as Henne hit WR Adrian Arrington on an 11-yard scoring pass and TB Mike Hart ran for a 2-point conversion to pull the Wolverines within a score, 19-11, early in the final quarter. But the Trojans continued their aerial assault, with Booty lofting a season-long 62-yard pass over a pair of Michigan defenders for Jarrett's second TD of the game (Danelo's PAT kick missed again). Next, WR Steve Smith—who caught 7 passes for 108 yards to go over the 1,000-yard receiving barrier for the season—got into the act by catching a 7-yard TD pass from Booty on USC's 4-play, 85-yard drive with less than 7 minutes to go. The Wolverines added a late touchdown on a 41-yard Henne pass to WR Steve Breaston. Booty completed 27-of-45 passes en route to his 4 TDs (all career bests, with the 4 TDs tying a Rose Bowl mark) and his 391 passing yards were the most surrendered by Michigan since the Michigan State's 400 in 1999. USC's 439 yards of total offense far surpassed what Michigan had been allowing (254.1, sixth in the nation). The Trojan defense posted 6 sacks against a UM squad that had allowed just 18 all season and limited the Wolverines to just 12 rushing yards (they had averaged 189.2 rushing yards in 2006). Michigan TB Mike Hart, who had run for at least 90 yards in every game of 2006, was limited to 47 yards on 17 carries. Henne completed 26-of-41 passes for 309 yards, but 14 of those completions and 185 of the yards came in the fourth quarter when the game was virtually decided. Breaston had 7 grabs for 115 yards, while WR Mario Manningham (79 yards) and TE Tyler Ecker (78 yards) each had 6 receptions. USC LB Keith Rivers had a game-best 9 tackles, while 4 of Cushing's 7 tackles were for losses (including 2.5 sacks) and he forced a fumble to help him earn the game's Defensive MVP trophy. USC played before a school-record 11th sellout crowd of the season.

2008 Rose Bowl
USC 49, Illinois 17

No. 6 USC piled up a Rose Bowl-record 633 yards of total offense and took advantage of 4 turnovers by No. 13 Illinois to post a dominant 49-17 victory in the 2008 Rose Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 93,923 and a national ABC-TV audience. It equalled the most points scored in the Rose Bowl (Michigan scored 49 points in the 1902 and 1948 games) and the 32-point victory margin was the Rose Bowl's largest since UCLA's 36-point win over the Illini in the 1984 game. The victory gave USC an NCAA record 6 consecutive 11-win seasons. QB John David Booty, the Rose Bowl Offensive MVP, completed 25-of-37 passes for 255 yards and 3 TDs to set a Rose Bowl career record for touchdown passes (7). TB Joe McKnight had 206 all-purpose yards (125 on 10 rushes, 45 on 6 receptions and 36 on 3 punt returns). TBs Stafon Johnson (104 yards on 9 carries) and Chauncey Washington (75 yards on 12 attempts) also helped USC run for a season-best 344 yards. TE Fred Davis had a game-high 7 receptions for 87 yards. USC's defense posted a season-high 15 tackles for a loss (including 5 sacks) against Illinois' spread offense. The Illini converted just 4-of-14 third downs. CB Cary Harris had a team-best 10 tackles, plus 2 turnovers, while LB Rey Maualuga won Rose Bowl Defensive MVP honors with 3 sacks, an interception and a forced fumble and DE Lawrence Jackson added 3 tackles for a loss among his 5 stops. USC built up a quick 21-0 lead. Troy scored on its opening drive as Booty hit Washington for an 8-yard TD. Then, after Maualuga intercepted a pass from QB Juice Williams on Illinois' next series, USC used some trickery on its first play as WR-QB Garrett Green took a lateral and fired a 34-yard scoring strike to TB Desmond Reed. The Trojans added to their lead late in the half on a 3-yard Washington TD run, but Illinois got on the board with 38 seconds to go in the half on a 28-yard field goal by Jason Reda. The Illini made a run at the Trojans early in the second half when TB Rashard Mendenhall burst 79 yards for a score on Illinois' first series (it was the longest run against USC since 2004). Illinois was driving again on its next possession before LB Kaluka Maiava punched the ball out of WR Jacob Willis' grasp at the USC 1-yard line and LB Brian Cushing recovered the ball in the end zone for a touchback. Troy then drove 80 yards, capped by a 2-yard Booty TD pass to Davis (on the drive, McKnight scooped up a bobbled lateral and raced 65 yards to the Illinois 12-yard line). The Illini turned the ball over on their next 2 possessions (Harris had an interception and then a fumble recovery) and USC converted both, with McKnight running for a 6-yard score and WR David Ausberry catching a 15-yard TD pass from Booty early in the fourth quarter. After USC stopped Illinois on downs at the Trojan 12 late in the fourth quarter, Troy drove 87 yards and scored on a 3-yard run by TB Hershel Dennis late in the game (his first TD since 2004). Illinois then got a touchdown against USC's reserves as QB Eddie McGee hit WR Arrelious Benn for a 56-yard score. The teams combined for 1,078 yards of total offense, as the Illini had 445 total yards. Mendenhall ran for 155 yards on 17 carries (he also caught 5 passes for 59 yards), Williams hit 21-of-35 passes for 245 yards and Benn had 5 catches for 59 yards.

2009 Rose Bowl
USC 38, Penn State 24

QB Mark Sanchez threw 4 touchdown passes and ran for another score as No. 5 USC opened up a 24-point halftime lead and beat No. 6 Penn State, 38-24, in the 2009 Rose Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 93,293 and a national ABC-TV audience. USC, appearing it its record-tying fourth straight Rose Bowl, became the first team to win 3 consecutive Rose Bowls. It was the second-most points Penn State allowed in its 41 bowl appearances and the most points surrendered by the Nittany Lions in their past 37 games. It was also the most points USC scored against PSU in the 9-game series. It was USC's ninth win in a row over Big Ten opponents (and sixth in a row against the league in the Rose Bowl). The teams exchanged touchdowns late in the first quarter, as Sanchez hit WR Damian Williams on a 27-yard scoring toss to cap an 11-play, 86-yard drive and then Penn State put together a 9-play, 80-yard drive, culminating with a 9-yard TD run by QB Daryll Clark. USC then went on a 24-point scoring binge on 4 consecutive possessions in the second quarter: Sanchez had a 6-yard TD run early in the quarter to finish an 80-yard drive, PK David Buehler followed with a 30-yard field goal, WR Ronald Johnson caught a 19-yard touchdown bullet from Sanchez and, following S Will Harris' recovery of a PSU fumble, Sanchez hit TB C.J. Gable on a short toss that Gable turned into a 20-yard score with 36 seconds to go. That 31-7 score at intermission was USC's most first-half points in any of its 33 Rose Bowl appearances (the 24-point lead was USC's second-largest Rose Bowl halftime margin, behind a 26-0 halftime lead against Pittsburgh in the 1930 game). The 31 points also eclipsed the most points Penn State had allowed in a game in 2008. USC held decisive halftime edges in first downs (19 to 7), total yards (341 to 177, including 276 to 117 passing), plays (41 to 27), possession time (17:15 to 12:45) and third down conversions (6-of-8 to 1-of-5). After a scoreless third quarter, Penn State came alive, beginning with a 2-yard Clark scoring pass to WR Derrick Williams at the top of the quarter. After USC responded on its ensuing possession with a 45-yard Sanchez TD bomb to Johnson, the Nittany Lions tallied on their next 2 series: a 25-yard field goal by PK Kevin Kelly and a 9-yard Clark pass to WR Jordan Norwood. Penn State got the ball 2 more times, but interceptions by Will Harris and CB Cary Harris (in the end zone at the gun) thwarted those drives. Sanchez, named the Rose Bowl Offensive MVP, completed 28-of-35 passes for 413 yards, career highs for completions and yardage. It was the second most passing yards in a Rose Bowl game (behind 456 by Oregon's Danny O'Neil in 1995) and the fourth highest in USC history (the most since Carson Palmer's 425 versus Notre Dame in 2002), while his touchdowns (4) and completion percentage (80.0%) tied Rose Bowl game records. Sanchez did this against a Penn State defense that had given up only 6 touchdown passes in 2008 and was allowing only 168.0 passing yards. His 4 TD passes gave him 34 on the season, second most in USC history behind Matt Leinart's 38 in 2003. Damian Williams had career bests with 10 receptions for 162 yards, the most by a Trojan since Dwayne Jarrett had 11 for 205 in the 2007 Rose Bowl against Michigan. TE Anthony McCoy added 5 catches for 48 yards, while Johnson (82 yards) and WR Patrick Turner (74 yards) each caught 4 passes. TB Stafon Johnson led USC with 63 yards on 15 carries. USC rolled up 413 total yards against a PSU defense that was allowing only 263.9 yards and 12.4 points. LB Brian Cushing had a USC-best 7 tackles, LB Rey Maualuga added 6 stops and Will Harris had 6 tackles to go with his fumble recovery and interception. USC LB Kaluka Maiava was named the Rose Bowl Defensive MVP as he had 4 tackles and 2 deflections. Penn State's 410 total yards and 273 passing yards were the most against USC in 2008. Clark hit 21-of-36 passes for 273 yards, while TB Stephfon Green led the Nittany Lions in rushing (10 carries for 57 yards) and receptions (5 for 67 yards). Butler (97 yards) and Williams (34 yards) each had 4 catches for PSU. LB Josh Hull had a game-high 10 tackles, 5 of LB Navorro Bowman's 8 tackles were for losses and CB Tony Davis had 8 stops and a fumble recovery. PSU was penalized 9 times, including 7 in the first half. Legendary Penn State coach Joe Paterno, college football's winningest coach, coached from the press box after having hip surgery several weeks prior. The game was a rematch of the 1923 Rose Bowl that was the first played in the current Rose Bowl stadium. It was just the third time that USC played back-to-back games in the stadium.

USC 24, Boston College 13

QB Matt Barkley threw a pair of touchdown passes to FB Stanley Havili and ran for another score while the USC defense shut out Boston College in the second half to lead the Trojans to a 24-13 win in their first-ever Emerald Bowl appearance on a chilly, soggy night in front of a capacity crowd of 40,121 in AT&T Park in San Francisco and a national ESPN cable audience. USC, which entered the game unranked for the first time since the end of the 2001 season when it last played in a non-BCS bowl, won its 16th consecutive non-conference game and its 32nd bowl game. It was Troy's first game against BC since 1988 and its first in San Francisco since 1943. The Trojans scored on their first 2 possessions with a pair of drives that exceeded 80 yards, with Havili weaving 53 yards with a Barkley pass on the first series and then catching a 5-yard Barkley pass on the second series early in the second half. But the Eagles responded on their next 2 drives, with RB Montel Harris getting a 7-yard TD run (the extra point kick missed) and then, after getting an interception, WR Rich Gunnell jetting 61 yards with a pass from QB Dave Shinskie late in the half (it was the longest reception against USC since BYU's Todd Watkins had a 69-yarder in 2004) to pull within 14-13 at intermission. But the Trojans limited BC to only 91 total yards in the second half, including just 19 in the third quarter. USC converted a pair of turnovers into scores in the second half. After DT Jurrell Casey recovered a fumble, PK Jordan Congdon hit a 38-yard field goal midway through the third quarter. Then after an interception by CB Shareece Wright (seeing his first action of 2009 after being academically ineligible), Barkley scored on a 1-yard sneak early in the fourth quarter. Barkley was 27-of-37 (a career best for completions) for 350 yards and hit 13 of his first 14 passes (including his first 7). WR Damian Williams was voted the game's Offensive MVP after catching 12 passes for 189 yards (both personal bests) and he set up USC's last 2 TDs after hauling in bombs. Havili added 6 receptions for 83 yards (both career highs) and WR Ronald Johnson had 6 for 58 yards. TB Allen Bradford ran for 72 yards on a personal-best 17 carries. DT Christian Tupou led USC with 7 tackles, including 1.5 for losses, while LB Malcolm Smith added 6 stops. For Boston College, Shinskie was 14-of-33 for 218 yards, Gunnell caught 6 passes for 130 yards and Harris ran for 102 yards on 23 tries (his fifth straight 100-yard outing). LB Luke Kuechly had 16 tackles and was named the game's Defensive MVP. USC had 438 total yards (with a season-low 88 on the ground) to BC's 312, held the ball 34:23 and limited the Eagles to just 4-of-12 on third down conversions. It rained for 2 hours before kickoff and then lightly again during the third quarter. The Trojans played without 4 starters: CB Josh Pinkard (knee injury), TB Joe McKnight (held out by USC's NCAA compliance office) and TE Anthony McCoy and OT Tyron Smith (both academically ineligible).

2012 Sun Bowl
Georgia Tech 21, USC 14

QB Tevin Washington ran for a touchdown while throwing for another and Georgia Tech used a staunch defense to propel the Yellow Jackets to a 21-7 upset over USC in the 79th Hyundai Sun Bowl in El Paso on a cold (low 40s), windy (20 mph gusts) day before 47,922 fans and a national CBS-TV audience. USC became the first AP pre-season No. 1 team ever to end up with 6 losses and the first to finish unranked since 1964. It was the Trojans' third straight loss of 2012, their longest losing skid since 2001. Troy lost 5 of its final 6 games after a 6-1 start to snap a streak of 10 straight 8-win seasons. USC, playing in the post-season after a 2-year NCAA-imposed bowl ban, remained winless in 3 visits to the Sun Bowl. Georgia Tech, which needed an NCAA waiver (because of a sub-.500 record) to qualify for a bowl berth, broke a 7-bowl game losing streak. It was the first meeting between the schools since 1973. USC's offense was stymied by a Yellow Jacket defense that was allowing an average of 29.9 points and 387.0 total yards. The Trojans got just 205 total yards (their fewest since also getting 205 versus California in 2004), including 107 passing (fewest since getting 7 against Penn State in 2000), and 10 first downs (fewest since getting 8 versus Florida State in 1998) while converting only 3-of-15 third downs (and 0-of-1 on fourth downs). Troy had just 59 plays while holding the ball only 23:35. USC failed to get a first down in 8 of its 14 possessions. In the second half, the Trojans had just 89 total yards and were shut out on 32 plays. Georgia Tech, using a spread option attack that averaged 312.5 rushing yards, had 294 of its 369 total yards via the run. The Yellow Jackets passed just 10 times (with only 5 completions) among its 73 plays (the fewest pass attempts against USC since Washington State's 9 in 2008 and the fewest completions since Colorado's 2 in 2002). Tech's 75 passing yards were the fewest versus the Trojans since Notre Dame's 41 in 2008. After a scoreless first quarter, both teams scored a TD in the second quarter. The Yellow Jackets went 74 yards in 14 plays, capped by a 3-yard pass from QB Vad Lee to RB David Sims early in the quarter. Then, after DE Morgan Breslin forced a fumble that DE Wes Horton recovered, QB Max Wittek hit TB Silas Redd on a 9-yard score with 50 seconds to play. Georgia Tech took advantage of a 56-yard punt return by CB Jamal Golden to the USC 1-yard line on its first possession of the second half, with Washington getting the 1-yard TD run 2 plays later. Washington then hit RB Orwin Smith on a 17-yard TD pass early in the fourth quarter. USC got in the red zone on its last 2 possessions in the game's final 7 minutes, but Wittek had passes picked off in the end zone both times. Wittek, starting his second straight game for injured QB Matt Barkley, completed just 37.8% of his passes (14-of-37) for 107 yards with 1 TD and 3 interceptions while every throw was seemingly affected by the wind. He was 7-of-24 (29.2%) for 49 yards in the second half. Redd ran for 88 yards on 17 carries. WR Marqise Lee caught 6 passes for 41 yards, while WR Robert Woods added 3 grabs for 33 yards. LB Hayes Pullard had a game-best 16 tackles (the most by a Trojan since Troy Polamalu had 20 against Utah in 2001), DT Leonard Williams had 14 stops and S T.J. McDonald had 13. LB Lamar Dawson had an interception. For Tech, Sims rushed for 99 yards on 17 tries and RB Zach Laskey added 60 yards on 6 tries. Washington ran for 56 yards on 16 carries and was 3-of-5 passing for 49 yards, while Lee ran for 52 yards on 10 tries and completed 2-of-5 passes for 26 yards.

There have been 48 matchups between the No. 1 and No. 2 teams in the Associated Press poll (23 times during the regular season, twice in a conference playoff and 23 times in bowls). The No. 1 team has won 27 times, the No. 2 team has won 19 times, and there have been 2 ties. USC is 3-3 in such matchups, winning 3 of the 4 times it was No. 1 and losing both times it was No. 2. The AP poll began in 1936.

USC in AP Rankings

Since the AP poll began in 1936, the weekly rankings have been published 1,053 times. USC has been ranked in the poll 718 times (68.2% of the time). Here's the list of the 10 most frequently ranked teams (according to CollegePollArchive.com):

1.	Ohio State	804
2.	Michigan	786
3.	Oklahoma	736
4.	Notre Dame	730
5.	USC	718
6.	Nebraska	698
	Texas	698
8.	Alabama	693
9.	Penn State	591
10.	Tennessee	565

In those 1,037 AP polls, USC has held the No. 1 ranking 90 times. The 10 teams ranked No. 1 most often are:

1.	Oklahoma	101
2.	Notre Dame	98
3.	Ohio State	94
4.	USC	91
5.	Nebraska	70
6.	Miami (Fla.)	68
7.	Florida St.	60
8.	Alabama	57
9.	Texas	45
10.	Florida	41

USC has the longest streak of consecutive weekly AP No. 1 appearances, with a national record 33 (from Dec. 8, 2003 to Dec. 4, 2005). The Trojans also had an earlier streak of 18 (from Sept. 12, 1972 to Sept. 25, 1973). Here's the list of the 10 teams with the longest streaks of top-ranked appearances:

1.	USC	33
2.	Miami, Fla.	21
3.	USC	18
4.	Florida State	17
5.	Army	15
	Nebraska	15
	Oklahoma	15
	Nebraska	15
	Ohio State	15
10.	LSU	14

In 2004, USC became only the second team ever to be ranked No. 1 in the AP pre-season poll and hold that top ranking the entire season (Florida State did it in 1999). Four other teams--Notre Dame in 1943, Army in 1945, Nebraska in 1971 and USC in 1972--were No. 1 in every regular season ranking, but either did not start off No. 1 in the pre-season poll (Nebraska and USC) or there was no pre-season poll (Notre Dame and Army).

USC's back-to-back AP national championships in 2003 and 2004 marked the 10th time that a team won consecutive AP national titles. The others: Minnesota (1940-41), Army (1944-45), Notre Dame (1946-47), Oklahoma (1955-56), Alabama (1964-65), Nebraska (1970-71), Oklahoma (1974-75), Alabama (1978-79) and Nebraska (1994-95). Since then, Alabama did it in 2011-12.

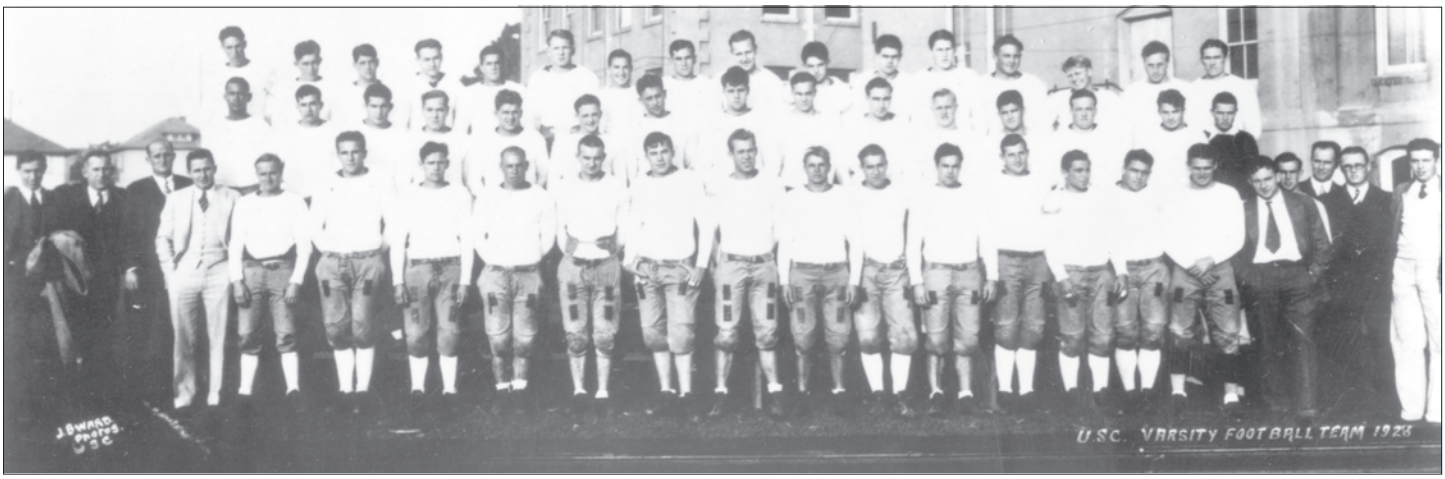
1928 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



They whip the ends, they buck the guards, the line begins to yield
And the "greatest team in history" backs slowly down the field
And finally comes the whistle as a seal to Stanford's fate,
And the "greatest team in history" goes staggering through the gate
--Excerpt from a 1928 poem about the USC-Stanford clash.

The "Thundering Herd," under Hall of Fame coach Howard Jones, galloped to the Trojans' first national championship in 1928. A swarming defense, led by tackle Jesse Hibbs and end Garrett Arbelide, gave up only 59 points all season, while an offensive backfield of Harry Edelson, Russ Saunders, Don Williams and Marshall Duffield rolled over, under, and through their opponents.

USC finished the season with nine wins and no losses, with the only blemish being a 0-0 tie with Cal as the Golden Bears continued to be a nemesis for Troy in the 1920s.

The Trojans beat Glenn "Pop" Warner's Stanford Indians, 10-0, forcing five fumbles in the process. Warner had never lost to Jones and he considered his 1928 team to be his best. But USC used a special strategy called the "quick mix" to disrupt Stanford's offense and help offset the Indians' 10-pound-per-man weight advantage. The strategy worked in what was a landmark game for the Trojans, who established themselves as the preeminent football power on the West Coast. Warner never beat Jones again.

The 1928 season also saw USC beat Notre Dame and Knute Rockne for the first time, 27-14. Williams passed for 111 yards and two touchdowns and rushed for 93 more as the Trojans clinched the national title.

1931 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"I've waited for two years for this day — but, boy, what revenge!"
— USC's Erny Pinckert after beating the Irish.

The 1931 edition of Howard Jones' "Thundering Herd" was the team that captured the imagination of college football fans everywhere, and the hearts of the citizens of Los Angeles. More than 300,000 welcomed the Trojans home from a thrilling 16-14 victory over Notre Dame in South Bend—a victory clinched by what sportswriter Maxwell Stiles called "Johnny Baker's 10 little toes, and three BIG points."

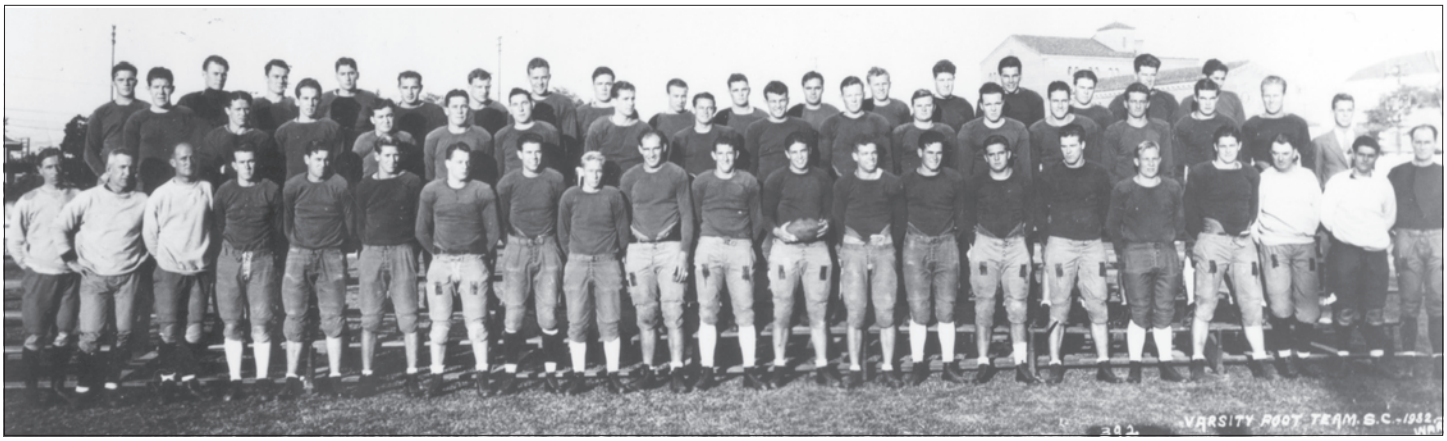
USC trailed the Irish14-0 at the outset of the final stanza, but stormed back behind the running of Gus Shaver and the passing of Orv Mohler. Baker's 33-yard field goal with one minute remaining made the difference. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten streak and was the Trojans' first victory in South Bend.

The season started inauspiciously enough with a 13-7 loss to St. Mary's. "I have no alibis to offer," said Jones afterward. But Troy then proceeded to roll over its next 10 opponents by a combined score of 356 to 39. There were six shutouts.

"(USC is) the greatest team I have ever seen," said Georgia coach Harry Mehre, after his Bulldogs were blanked, 60-0. The usually taciturn Jones agreed, calling his team "the greatest offensive machine I have ever coached."

USC capped the season with a 21-12 victory over Tulane in the Rose Bowl. Four Trojans garnered All-American acclaim: Baker, Shaver, Erny Pinckert and team captain Stan Williamson.

1932 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



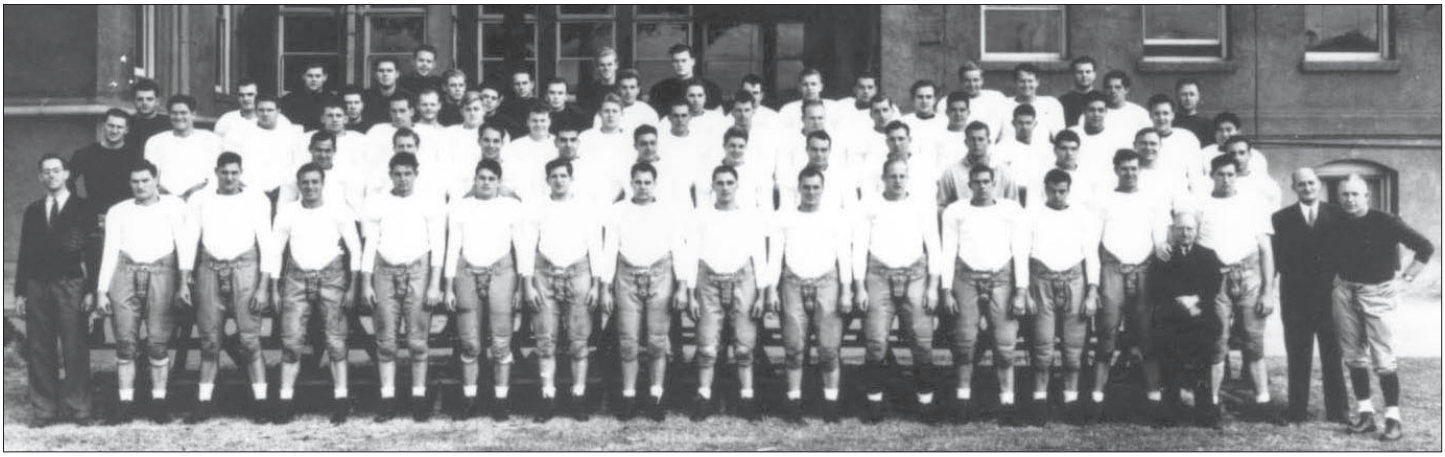
"Fortunately, I have a strong line to start with. I have Mohler, and if anything happens to him, I have Griffith and Warburton."
— Howard Jones to famed sportswriter Grantland Rice before the 1932 season.

The Trojans breezed to their second consecutive national championship in 1932 as the Howard Jones era reached its pinnacle. But at the start of the season, future greatness was not apparent for this team. Seven regulars had graduated from the 1931 squad, including three All-Americans. By the end of the season, however, it was hailed as perhaps Jones' finest squad. In fact, some still regard this as USC's best team.

The line, one of the greatest in Trojan history, included All-Americans Tay Brown, Aaron Rosenberg and Ernie Smith. The offense, directed by Homer Griffith and featuring back Cotton Warburton and ends Ray Sparling and Ford Palmer, was potent despite losing star Orv Mohler to injury. Meanwhile, the defense shut out its first five opponents, before finally being scored upon in the fourth quarter of game six. Jones' squad allowed only 13 points all season while scoring 201. USC defeated Notre Dame 13-0 and smashed Pittsburgh 35-0 in the Rose Bowl.

The masterful 1932 season firmly placed Jones in the upper echelon of collegiate coaches. He even appeared on the cover of TIME magazine, where he was compared to the legendary Amos Alonzo Stagg and Glenn "Pop" Warner. In 1999, Athlon magazine rated the 1932 team among the greatest of the 20th century.

1939 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



"We weren't off form, stale or crippled. We were just outclassed."
— Tennessee coach Bob Neyland after his undefeated, unscored-upon Vols lost, 14-0, to USC in the 1940 Rose Bowl.

The year 1939 witnessed Howard Jones' Thundering Herd capture its fourth national championship. The head man remarked at the team banquet that this team--his next to last at Troy--was his finest (at least in terms of depth) in his 16 years at USC.

As tanks rolled in Europe, Jones' team rolled to an 8-0-2 record, shutting out six teams and allowing just 7 points to three others. Only 33 points were scored upon Troy that year--a mark no Trojan defense has topped since.

The season had its share of huge games. There was a 19-7 win over No. 11 Oregon State in Portland and a 20-12 win over No. 7 Notre Dame at South Bend (USC wouldn't win again at Notre Dame Stadium until 1967). The regular season finale was an epic 0-0 tie with No. 9 UCLA in front of 103,303, the second-largest crowd in Coliseum history. The capper was a 14-0 win over No. 2 Tennessee in the Rose Bowl against a Volunteer team that hadn't been scored upon in 16 games and hadn't lost in 24 games.

Lineman Harry Smith was a unanimous All-American, while quarterback Grenny Lansdell--who led the team with 742 rushing yards and 54 points--was also named to some teams.

At season's end, the Trojans were given the Knute Rockne Trophy, awarded each year to the No. 1 team in the country by Professor Frank G. Dickinson, a respected analyst who declared, "The Trojans were the best team in the best section…and the nation's other top teams did not play as strong a schedule as USC."

1962 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"Our intention was to win today....and what does the scoreboard say?"
— John McKay after the 1963 Rose Bowl.

In 1962, John McKay led USC to its first national championship in 23 years and inaugurated one of the greatest dynasties in college football history. From 1962 to 1981, the Trojans won five national titles, played in 11 Rose Bowls, collected four Heisman Trophies and contributed dozens of All-Americans to what was already a remarkable football heritage

McKay's third team featured the talented quarterback tandem of Pete Beathard and Bill Nelsen, who combined to pass for 18 touchdowns while tossing only three interceptions. A then-school-record 11 of those touchdowns went to consensus All-American end Hal Bedsole, who also set the standard for passes caught (33) and yards receiving (827). The ground attack was run from the I-formation, led by the versatile Willie Brown at tailback and co-captain Ben Wilson at fullback. Brown led the team in rushing, interceptions, punt returns and kickoff returns, and was the second leading receiver.

The Trojan defense allowed only 92 points all season. All-American linebacker Damon Bame led a unit that had three shutouts (including a 25-0 blanking of Notre Dame) and allowed more than 10 points only twice during the regular-season.

Troy capped the year by outlasting Wisconsin, 42-37, in one of the most exciting games in Rose Bowl history. McKay was named Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association and the Football Writers Association of America.

1967 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"Well, gentlemen, I guess I wasn't so stupid today."
—John McKay after beating UCLA, 21-20.

The 1967 Trojans relied on the running of tailback O.J. Simpson, the blocking of Outland Trophy-winning tackle Ron Yary, and a stifling defense to win USC's sixth national championship.

Simpson's weaving 64-yard touchdown run, pehaps the most famous run in college football history, was the difference in a 21-20 victory over UCLA. The showdown between the top-ranked Bruins and the No. 4-ranked Trojans remains one of the greatest games in the history of the crosstown series.

USC's only blemish on the season was a 3-0 loss in the rain and mud to Oregon State in Corvallis. The Trojans would not be shut out again for 26 years and did not lose again to the Beavers until 2000. The other key victory for Troy, a 24-7 win over Notre Dame, was USC's first win at South Bend since 1939. Linebacker Adrian Young's four interceptions (a USC record) helped to repel the Irish. The Trojans celebrated New Year's Day 1968 with a 14-3 victory over Indiana in the Rose Bowl.

The incomparable Simpson, the Heisman runner-up that year, ran for a then-NCAA-record 1,543 regular-season yards (1,709 overall) to go with 13 touchdowns. Mike Battle, Tim Rossovich, and Young led a defense which allowed only 87 points. A record five Trojans were selected in the first round of the 1968 NFL draft, with Yary going first overall.

1972 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"USC's not the number one team in the country. The Miami Dolphins are better."
-- Washington State coach Jim Sweeney.

The 1972 national champions averaged 39 points per game and never trailed in the second half. In going 12-0-0, the Trojans scored 467 points, second most in school history. The defense intercepted 28 passes, limited their opponents to 2.5 yards per rush, and never gave up a run longer than 29 yards.

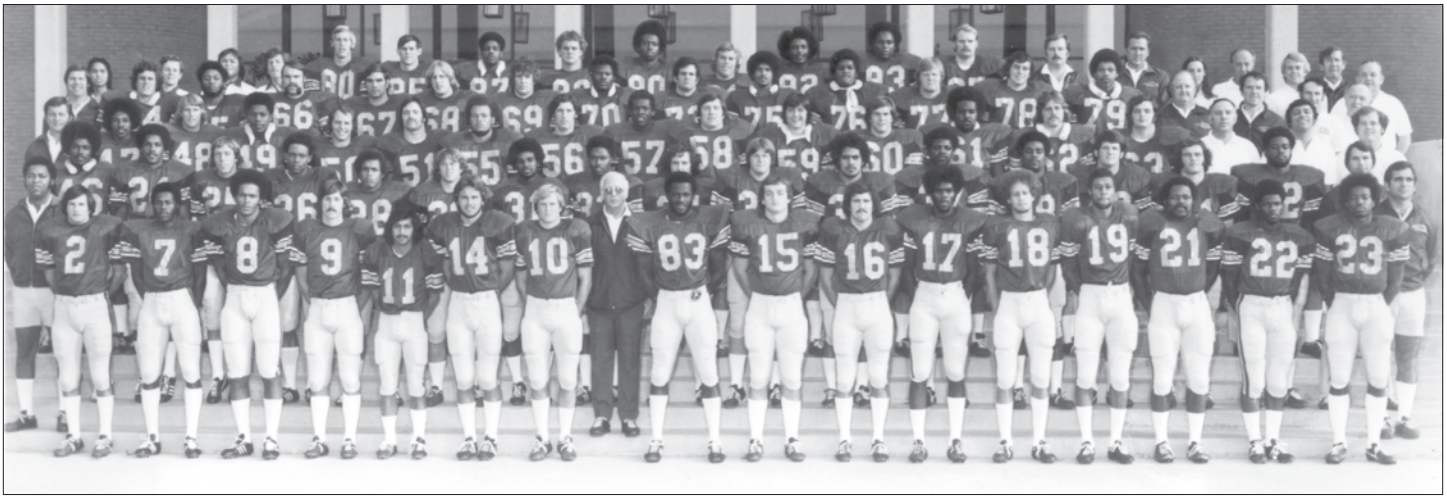
The roster was a perfect blend of talent, youth, and experience. Senior Mike Rae and sophomore Pat Haden handled the quarterback duties. Sophomore Anthony Davis rushed for 1,191 yards despite not starting until the eighth game. All-American fullback Sam "Bam" Cunningham was an outstanding blocker and a tremendous leaper, especially in goal-line situations. Tight end Charles Young was equally adept blocking and receiving, while split ends Lynn Swann, Edesel Garrison and J.K. McKay were excellent pass catchers.

The defense was fast and strong. Sophomore linebacker Richard Wood burst onto the scene with 18 tackles in the season-opener on his way to garnering All-American honors. John Grant and Jeff Winans anchored the defensive line, while Artimus Parker, Charles Phillips and Charles Hinton led the secondary.

USC's smallest margin of victory was nine points (versus Stanford). The Trojans beat No. 4-ranked Arkansas 31-10, No. 18 Washington 34-7, No. 14 UCLA 24-7, No.10 Notre Dame 45-23 and No. 3 Ohio State 42-17. USC was unanimously chosen No. 1 in the final AP and UPI polls, the first team to be so honored.

The 1972 team is considered to be John McKay's finest at USC and one of the greatest college teams of all time.

1974 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



"We turned into madmen."
-- Anthony Davis, after USC came back to beat Notre Dame.

The 1974 team earned John McKay his fourth national title behind the big-play heroics of All-American tailback Anthony Davis, the steady leadership of quarterback Pat Haden and the clutch play of a defense that forced the second-highest interception total in USC history.

Davis, the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, rushed for 1,421 yards and 13 touchdowns. His three-year yardage total of 3,724 yards and 52 touchdowns was a Pac-8 record. He set an NCAA record for most kickoffs returned for TDs in a season (3) and career (6). He scored four touchdowns to lead the Trojans to an amazing 55-24 comeback win over Notre Dame in the regular season finale. In his career, Davis scored 11 touchdowns against the Fighting Irish.

Pat Haden threw 13 touchdown passes, but his biggest completions came with the Trojans trailing Ohio State 17-10 in the 1975 Rose Bowl. His 38-yard TD strike to J.K McKay with two minutes to play and his subsequent 2-point conversion to Shelton Diggs gave USC an 18-17 victory and the writers' share of the national championship.

Senior linebacker Richard Wood, Troy's only three-time All-American, led the defense. Defensive back Charles Phillips set NCAA records for most interception return yardage in a season (302), most interception return yardage in a game (181), highest average gain per interception for one game (90.5), and most touchdowns on interception returns in a season (3).

The win over Notre Dame, dubbed "The Comeback," was sparked by Davis' 102-yard kickoff return to start the second half. Trailing 24-0 late in the second quarter, the Trojans scored 55 unanswered points in just under 17 minutes to win going away.

USC had five players selected to the All-American team for the third consecutive year. A school-record 12 Trojans were selected to the All-Conference squad (since equalled by the 1989 Trojans). Fourteen players from the 1974 team were taken in the NFL draft—an all-time record also shared by the 1976 Trojan team.

1978 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"I don't remember ever playing against a tailback who can run like White."
—Paul 'Bear' Bryant, after witnessing Charles White rush for 199 yards against his Alabama team.

The 1978 national champions, coached by John Robinson, were a USC team stocked with great college players and several future NFL stars.

The Trojans finished 12-1, including a solid 24-14 road victory over co-national champion Alabama, a nail-biting 27-25 win over Notre Dame, and a 17-10 victory over Michigan in the Rose Bowl.

All-American tailback Charles White rushed for 1,859 yards to become the Pac-10 career rushing leader as a junior. Freshman tailback Marcus Allen provided depth. Quarterback Paul McDonald led the conference in passing and tied a USC record with 19 touchdown passes. Fullback Lynn Cain rushed for 977 yards, the most ever by a Trojan fullback. Flanker Kevin Williams had 17 receptions, 10 of them for touchdowns. The offensive line included All-American guard Pat Howell, All-Pac-10 tackle Anthony Munoz (considered by many to be the game's greatest tackle ever) and All-Pac-10 guard Brad Budde (a four-year starter and the 1979 Lombardi Award winner). The back-ups on the line included future All-Pros Roy Foster and Keith Van Horne.

The defense featured the talented safety duo of Dennis Smith and Ronnie Lott. Linebackers Dennis Johnson (the team's tackle leader) and Riki Gray manned the middle, while Larry McGrew and Chip Banks roamed the outside. Rich Dimler, Myron Lapka and Dennis Edwards keyed the defensive line.

The Trojans' only loss was at Arizona State, 20-7. They would remain unbeaten for the next 28 games. USC took the top spot in the coaches poll, but finished second in the writer's poll to Alabama despite beating the Crimson Tide earlier in the season.

2003 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"If you stay with me, I'll take you places you've never been."
—Pete Carroll, at a team meeting to open 2003 fall practice.

After a 25-year hiatus, USC returned to the top of the college football world when it won the 2003 AP national championship.

Head coach Pete Carroll, in just his third year at Troy, guided his Trojans to a 12-1 record and their second consecutive Pac-10 title. USC closed the season by winning its last 9 games, including a dominating victory over No. 4 Michigan in the Rose Bowl. USC scored at least 30 points in 11 consecutive games, including 40 points in 7 in a row (both Pac-10 records), en route to tallying 534 total points (another Pac-10 mark). For just the second time in history, USC swept traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame in consecutive years.

Not many predicted the 2003 team's success. After all, these Trojans had to replace a Heisman Trophy winner (Carson Palmer) and an All-American safety (Troy Polamalu), among others. But Trojans fans got an inkling of the team's potential when USC opened its season at No. 6 Auburn with a 23-0 whitewash. The only loss came in triple overtime at California.

Five players won All-American first team honors: quarterback Matt Leinart, wide receiver Mike Williams, defensive end Kenechi Udeze, offensive tackle Jacob Rogers and punter Tom Malone. Leinart and Williams finished sixth and eighth, respectively, in the Heisman Trophy voting. And Carroll was recognized as the National Coach of the Year.

Leinart, who had never thrown a pass in his USC career before the 2004 campaign, was the Pac-10's Offensive Player of the Year (Stanford's John Elway was the only other sophomore so honored) and set a Pac-10 record with 38 TD passes. Williams, another sophomore, caught 95 passes with a school-record 16 TDs. Udeze tied for the national lead in sacks with 16.5, while soph Malone shattered the USC season punting average record (49.0). Other key contributors were wide receiver Keary Colbert, who became USC's career receptions leader, the rotating tailback threesome of Hershel Dennis, LenDale White (the first true freshman to top Troy in rushing) and Reggie Bush, cornerback Will Poole, center Norm Katnik, defensive tackles Shaun Cody and Mike Patterson, placekicker Ryan Killeen and linebacker Lofa Tatupu.

The Trojan defense topped the nation in rushing defense and was second in turnover margin, forcing 42 turnovers and scoring 8 TDs.

2004 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"USC Leaves No Doubt"
—Los Angeles Daily News headline after USC's Orange Bowl win.

From the start of training camp, the motto for the 2004 USC football team was "Leave No Doubt." The Trojans did just that, winning their second consecutive national championship. And, unlike 2003, this title was undisputed, as USC demolished Oklahoma in the BCS Championship Game in the Orange Bowl, 55-19. Troy went 11-0 overall (not including 2 wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 13-0, a school record for victories) and became just the second team ever to hold the AP No. 1 ranking from pre-season through the entire campaign. It was only the 10th time that a team won back-to-back AP crowns. At 7-0, USC won its third consecutive Pac-10 title(not including 1 win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 8-0). The Trojans swept traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame for an unprecedented third year in a row (UCLA win vacated due to NCAA penalty).

USC concluded the season riding a 20-game winning streak, as well as 21 straight home games, a Pac-10 record 15 consecutive league home games, 14 straight Pac-10 games and 8 road games in a row (not including 2 overall wins, 1 Pac-10 win and 1 road win vacated due to NCAA penalty: original record: 22-game winning streak, 15 Pac-10 games, 9 road games) .

Troy was in the national Top 10 in every defensive statistical category (its total defense average was USC's lowest in 15 years), including first in rushing defense and turnover margin and third in scoring defense. USC outscored opponents by 25.2 points (including a school-record 8 games with a margin of at least 30 points). USC played before 3 home sellouts, 7 regular-season sellouts and 8 season sellouts, all school marks. And Troy set a USC and Pac-10 record for home attendance average, as well as school records for total home attendance, overall attendance average and total overall attendance.

A school-record 6 Trojans (Heisman Trophy quarterback Matt Leinart, Heisman finalist tailback Reggie Bush, defensive linemen Shaun Cody and Mike Patterson, and linebackers Matt Grootegoed and Lofa Tatupu) were named All-American first teamers. Leinart and Bush were named the Pac-10 Co-Offensive Players of the Year, while Cody was the Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year.

USC'S "HISTORY-SHAPING" GAMES

(When USC football reached a milestone in its illustrious history on Oct. 2, 1999, by playing its 1,000th game, former Trojan assistant sports information director Chris Huston wrote the following since-updated story in Troy's game program that day on USC's "most important" games...not necessarily the best games or most dramatic, but those that made USC football what it is today.)

Looking back, who would have thought that a tiny school founded by the Methodist Church would emerge to become one of the top football powers in the country?

There have been so many accomplishments in these 1,000-plus games: 11 national titles, 6 Heisman Trophy winners, 33 Rose Bowls and 160 All-Americans. Trojan football history is packed with heroic moments and legendary names.

The names are etched clearly in our memories: Gloomy Gus. The Thundering Herd. John McKay. Iron Mike. And the famous games still resonate: the twin comebacks versus Notre Dame, the recurring nail-biters against UCLA, the triumphant Rose Bowls.

But what about the "most important" games out of the past 1,000-plus -- the games that helped make USC what it is today? Which games started trends, broke streaks or changed history? Some you'll remember, some you won't. Here are a few of the contests that shaped USC's football history:

1888 - USC 16, Alliance Athletic Club 0 The first game. Who could have imagined how the future would unfold? In those days a touchdown scored four points, while the conversion was worth two points, a field goal five points and a safety scored two. Frank Suffel and Henry Goddard were the playing coaches for this first team.

1905 - Stanford 16, USC 0 This was USC's first game ever against major college competition. Prior to this, USC had played Southland colleges, high schools, academies and athletic clubs and had rivalry games with Pomona and Occidental. Stanford, however, was big-time on the gridiron long before USC was. The Stanford-Cal game annually made bigger headlines, even in Los Angeles, than any USC game. USC fans looked forward to this game all year and the Trojans managed to hold their own on a dreary day in Palo Alto, but the result was a shutout loss. Significantly, USC did not play another major opponent in college football for nine years after this Stanford loss.

1924 - California 7, USC 0 Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson's undefeated Trojans met Andy Smith's undefeated Bears before 60,000 in USC's first appearance at Memorial Stadium in Berkeley. Jim Dixon scored the game's only touchdown on a 12-yard run around left end in the second quarter. USC's loss pushed its record against Cal to 1-8-1. The pressure from the alumni for Henderson's ouster grew intense, and after an upset loss to St. Mary's the next week, the decision was made to buy out Gloomy Gus' contract at the end of the year. The way was thus cleared for the arrival of Howard Jones, arguably Troy's greatest head coach.

1925 - Nebraska 17, Notre Dame 0 The greatest intersectional college football rivalry--USC versus Notre Dame--might never have commenced but for this game. USC was looking for a national rival and dispatched graduate manager Gwynn Wilson (akin to the modern day athletic director) and his wife to Lincoln, where Notre Dame was playing Nebraska on Thanksgiving Day. Knute Rockne was cool to the idea of a home-and-home series with USC because of the travel involved, but Mrs. Wilson was able to persuade Mrs. Rockne that a trip every two years to sunny Southern California was better than one to snowy, hostile Nebraska. Mrs. Rockne spoke to her husband and shortly thereafter Notre Dame became an annual fixture on USC's schedule.

1928 - USC 10, Stanford 0 Howard Jones had not beaten Glenn "Pop" Warner's Stanford Indians in three tries until his Thundering Herd did it before 80,000 at the Coliseum this year. The legendary Warner considered this Stanford team to be his best, but they lost five turnovers to USC that day. Stanford's 10-pound per-man weight advantage was offset by the Trojans' "quick-mix" defense and a speedy backfield comprised of Don Williams, Russ Saunders and Marshall Duffield. This was a landmark game as it signaled Troy's emergence as the preeminent power on the West Coast. USC went on to win its first national title that season and Jones never lost to Warner again.

1931 - USC 16, Notre Dame 14 This game captured the imagination of football fans everywhere--and the hearts of the citizens of Los Angeles. More than 300,000 fans welcomed the Trojans home from this thrilling victory in South Bend--a victory clinched by what sportswriter Maxwell Stiles called "Johnny Baker's 10 little toes and three BIG points." USC trailed 14-0 at the outset of the final stanza, but stormed back behind the running of Gus Shaver and the passing of Orv Mohler. Baker's 33-yard field goal with one minute remaining made the difference. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten string and was the Trojans' first win in South Bend. Called "...the biggest upset since Mrs. O'Leary's cow knocked over that lantern" by El Rodeo, Troy's student yearbook, it clinched USC's second national title and firmly established the Trojans as a national power.

1944 - USC 38, Washington 7 This was USC's first home night game in the Coliseum. The game program reported: "This may well be the one and only Coliseum night game in Trojan varsity football history." That year, Washington was under wartime travel restrictions and was forced to schedule two California games in seven days. A schedule conflict resulted and an exception had to be made to USC's longstanding policy of playing Saturday afternoons. The game was a success. The attendance of 62,865 was USC's largest for a home game that year. As a result, home night games became a regular part of the USC schedule.

1956 - USC 44, Texas 20 In 1925, guard Brice Taylor, an African-American, was named USC's first All-American. It would be about 30 years before another black man made his mark on Trojan football. Fullback C.R. Roberts was that man. He rumbled for 251 yards versus Texas, setting the USC single-game rushing record in the process. The record stood for 20 years. It was sweet redemption for Roberts and his teammates. The game was played in Austin and the hotel the Trojans had booked was segregated. Head Coach Jess Hill moved his team to a lodging that was integrated and the Trojans seemed to take it out on the Longhorns on game day.

1959 - Notre Dame 16, USC 6 This was the last game played between the two teams in South Bend in November. The freezing cold affected the Trojans so much that Athletic Director Jess Hill proposed moving USC's games at Notre Dame Stadium to October, while continuing to play the Coliseum games in late November. Notre Dame agreed and it has been that way ever since.

1961 - Iowa 35, USC 34 The Hawkeyes came into this game ranked No. 1 in the country. The Trojans, in their first season using John McKay's I-formation, were struggling. The critics in the press box said the "I" stood for "incompetent," "intolerable" and "ineffective." But on this day, after falling behind 21-0, USC exploded for 34 points and lost only in the last minute, 35-34. The Trojans totaled 220 yards on the ground and 156 in the air. For the first time, the I-formation proved its worth. Soon, USC and John McKay became synonymous with this tailback-led rushing attack.

1967 - USC 24, Notre Dame 7 The 1967 USC-UCLA game is the game everyone remembers from this season, but it never would have had the same importance if the Trojans hadn't first defeated defending national champion and No. 5 Notre Dame on a sunny October day in South Bend. The previous year, the Irish handed the Trojans their worst defeat ever, 51-0, and despite USC's No.1 rank in the 1967 polls, Notre Dame was a heavy favorite. Weighing heavy on the oddsmakers' minds was the fact that USC had not won in South Bend since 1939 (it didn't matter much to them that McKay, after the '66 debacle, vowed never to lose to the Irish again). It was on this day that most of the country first heard of a tailback named O.J. Simpson. The junior from San Francisco rushed for 160 yards on 38 carries and tacked on all three USC touchdowns. A tenacious Trojan defense intercepted seven passes (four by a true Irishman, Adrian Young) and recovered two fumbles. USC trailed at the half, 7-0, but roared back in the second half to win the game. The victory solidified Troy's place at the top of the final rankings.

1970 - USC 42, Alabama 21 It's a rare feat when a football game helps to change societal attitudes. The 1970 USC win over Alabama may have done just that. The Trojans traveled to Birmingham where they faced an all-white Crimson Tide team coached by Paul "Bear" Bryant. Thanks to dominating performances for USC by a trio of African-Americans (Sam Cunningham, Clarence Davis and Jimmy Jones), Bryant was convinced that he needed to recruit black players for his program. The rest of the Southeastern Conference soon followed suit and opportunities for black athletes in the South began to improve tremendously. Bryant was so impressed by Cunningham (who had 135 yards and two touchdowns on just 12 carries) that he invited the sophomore fullback into the 'Bama locker room after the game. He brought his players to Cunningham one-by-one and introduced him, saying: "This is what a football player looks like."

1996 - USC 27, Notre Dame 20 At long last, after 13 years of futility, the Trojans defeated the Irish. In what seemed the unlikeliest of streaks, USC had found every possible way to not defeat Notre Dame. And in what seemed like the unlikeliest of days for it to happen, Troy finally ended that streak. USC was struggling at 5-6 after a wild double-overtime loss to UCLA the previous week while Notre Dame was standing tall with an 8-2 record and a New Year's Day bowl bid in the works. The Trojans somehow managed to stay in the game despite playing without starting quarterback Brad Otton for large chunks of regulation, as he was bothered by an injury. When Notre Dame scored a touchdown to go ahead 20-12 (with the PAT pending) in the fourth quarter, things looked bleak for USC. But Irish kicker Jim Sanson shanked the extra point and the margin stayed at eight. The Trojans responded with an eight-play, 67-yard drive culminating in Delon Washington's 15-yard touchdown scamper. Washington also ran in the two-point conversion and the score was knotted at 20. Neither team could score before the end of regulation and overtime ensued. On USC's first drive, Otton hit Rodney Sermons with a five-yard touchdown pass and the Trojans went ahead for the first time, 27-20. Jubilation erupted in the Coliseum when Mark Cusano then batted down Ron Powlus' fourth-down pass and the streak ended.

2001 - USC 27, UCLA 0 This game was the regular season finale of the 2001 season, but it exemplified the attitude and style that first-year head coach Pete Carroll brought to Trojan football. The message sent that day was clear: Nothing beats a great defense. Furthermore, the game signalled a sea-change in the L.A. sports scene as USC under Carroll was increasingly viewed as the healthiest program in town. There was nothing complicated about the contest. The Trojan offense hit on a couple big plays—namely, a 66-yard catch-and-run by tight end Kori Dickerson off a Carson Palmer aerial and a 34-yard touchdown run by tailback Chris Howard. But USC managed just 276 yards of total offense and 12 first downs. However, the Trojan defense was spectacular, holding UCLA to a paltry 114 yards and 10 first downs. USC picked off three UCLA passes, including an amazing between-the-legs snatch by cornerback Antuan Simmons which he returned 36 yards for a touchdown. It was USC's first shutout of UCLA since 1947. While the Trojans would later stumble in the Las Vegas Bowl, it was clear that something special was starting to go on at Troy.

USC'S HISTORY-SHAPING GAMES

2002 - USC 44, Notre Dame 13 While the 2001 UCLA game was about re-establishing USC in Los Angeles, the 2002 Notre Dame game was about re-establishing USC on a national level. The Trojans had not played in such a high-stakes game since the 1988 No. 1 vs. No. 2 showdown against the Irish—a bitter 27-10 loss. On this day, three important things happened for USC. First, the Trojans clinched their first-ever BCS bowl berth. Second, they completed their first season sweep of UCLA and Notre Dame since 1981 and, probably most important of all, Trojan quarterback Carson Palmer showed the nation why he deserved to be named USC's fifth Heisman Trophy winner. Through it all, Troy put another feather in the cap of what would become its most magical and successful season since 1979. A capacity crowd and a near-national television audience saw first-hand the magnificent "Carson Show," as USC's senior quarterback threw for 425 yards and four touchdowns—both Notre Dame opponent records. What's more, he led the Trojan offense to 610 total yards—again, the most yards ever against the Irish. While there were a couple nail-biting moments for USC fans in the second quarter as Notre Dame briefly took a 13-10 lead, Palmer allayed those fears by leading a masterful 75-yard drive that took just over a minute and culminated in a pass that sailed over the outstretched hands of two Irish defenders and into the waiting arms of Mike Williams for a 19-yard touchdown. Hence, the Trojans sprinted into the locker room with a 17-13 lead and never looked back in the second half on their way to scoring the most points against the Irish by a USC team since 1974's legendary 55-24 onslaught. The jubilant looks on the faces of the Trojan coaches, players and fans afterwards—as well as the sight of the future Heisman winner holding aloft the Shillelagh—said it all: USC was back.

2011 - USC 23, Utah 14 (not only was this the first game in Pac-12 history, but the final score was updated 2 hours after the game by Pac-12 clarification to include a USC touchdown that occurred during a penalty on the contest's final play)

USC'S ALL-AMERICANS

The following is a complete listing of all USC football players who have ever received first team All-American honors. Although there are numerous teams selected throughout the country, the NCAA now recognizes only five in determining whether a player is a unanimous or consensus choice--AP, Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association, the Walter Camp Foundation and The Sporting News.

From 1962 to 1990, USC had at least one first team All-American every year. From 1972 to 1987, there was at least one consensus All-American Trojan every year. Also, there have been 30 first team All-American Trojan offensive linemen since 1964.

USC HEISMAN SALUTE

MIKE GARRETT — 1965

Two-time All-American Mike Garrett was the man who began the great legacy of USC's I-formation tailbacks.

He was the Trojans' first — and only the West Coast's second — Heisman winner when he whipped an outstanding field of candidates in 1965.

Mike set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his three-year career, including an NCAA career rushing record of 3,221 yards in the days when 1,000-yard-a-season rushers were almost non-existent. He later starred for the Kansas City Chiefs and San Diego Chargers.

O.J. Simpson became USC's second Heisman Trophy winner in 1968 when he captured the award by the most one-sided margin in history.

During the regular 1968 season, O.J. established an NCAA record for yards rushing — 1,709 — in a single season (since bettered). A two-time unanimous All-American, he equaled or bettered 19 NCAA, conference and USC records.

Playboy Pre-Season All-Americans

USC landed more players on the prestigious Playboy Magazine pre-season college All-American football team than any other university. Since Playboy first picked a team in 1957, there have been a national-best 77 Trojan players selected, as well as 2 Coaches of the Year and 1 Scholar-Athlete. Next (not including 2013 picks) with 52 selections is Texas, followed by Michigan with 49, Oklahoma with 47 (plus 3 Coaches of the Year), Notre Dame with 42 (plus 1 Coach of the Year) and Nebraska with 40 (plus 2 Coaches of the Year and 1 Scholar-Athlete). During a 16-year period (1972 through 1987), at least 1 Trojan player was selected annually to the Playboy squad. On 8 different occasions (1970-76-79-80-2004-05-08-12), 3 USC players made that year's Playboy team. USC's Tony Boselli, who was selected in 1992-93-94, was the first 3-time Playboy selection from any school.

ALL-TIME LETTERWINNERS

Various standards have been used to determine USC letterwinners over the years, but since 1976, squad members who have played at least 30 minutes have been listed here as lettermen. There have been many exceptions to that rule, including kickers and others who contributed significantly to the team's success without playing 30 minutes.

In addition, senior squad members who have been on the team for several years have generally been awarded letters for their senior season, as long as they appeared in at least one game. This has been a long-standing policy.

The list is confined to lettermen who actually played on USC's varsity teams of American Rules Football, and does not include individuals who lettered only in rugby.

Positions, heights, and weights are generally those listed in USC publications and other sources in the player's final letterwinning year. Positions are primarily listed in the terminology of the era in which the letterwinner played. "Hometowns" by longstanding custom are usually the places from which players came to USC, and are located in California unless noted. Parenthetical notations contain a letterwinner's high school, and junior or senior college, attended before USC, where known, and are in the state of the letterman's hometown, unless noted. This list was expanded by Michael J. Glenn (with input from Gary Wright). USC appreciates their invaluable efforts.

A Note on USC's Records

The records material on these pages has been compiled from a number of sources. Although official national individual records commenced only in 1937 (nearly 50 years after USC's first team), USC's game-by-game records generally extend back to the mid-1920s. Newspaper accounts of individual games, including some extraordinary individual performances, date back to 1889. Unfortunately, for some games in USC's first 20 years, only the final result has survived to the present.

These records have been compiled by USC's Sports Information Office (previously known as the Athletic News Service). Special mention should be made of the efforts of Tom Lawless, Dick Nash, Harley Tinkham, Chuck Weinstock, Al Wesson, Deke Houlgate, H.D. Thoreau and Mike Glenn, as well as Benny Artiaga, Nick Schenck, Gabriel Alvarez, Meghan McElroy, Michelle Laug and Robbie Ellison.

* - USC Record  - USC and Pac-10 Record

# - Excludes first 3 games + - Excludes Pomona game

Between 1888 and 1921, an estimated 500,000-plus people attended home and away USC games.

The largest single-game crowd in USC history was the estimated 120,000 at Soldier Field in Chicago for the 1927 USC-Notre Dame game. The largest USC home crowd was 104,953 for the 1947 USC-Notre Dame game in the Coliseum. The largest USC post-season bowl game crowd was 106,869 at the 1973 Rose Bowl in Pasadena (USC versus Ohio State), which is an NCAA bowl game record.

In all, USC has played before at least 57,683,918 people since it first started playing football in 1888.

Jim Farrell of Long Beach, Calif., became the 50 millionth fan to see a USC football game, home and away, when he came through the Coliseum gates at the 2004 USC-Arizona State home game.

In 1988, USC not only set a since-broken school record for home attendance average per game (76,063, which ranked eighth best in the nation), but Troy also registered the greatest increase in average home attendance of any school in the nation that year (up 22,416 per game over 1987). That increase was 7,996 more than the next closest school.

TROJANS IN THE NFL

With its outstanding football heritage, it's no surprise that USC players have made quite a mark in the pros.

At the start of training camp this summer, there were 53 ex-Trojans on National Football League rosters, including 8 rookies. In fact, USC players were on the rosters of 25 of the NFL's 32 teams. Most of the Trojans were defensive linemen (12), linebackers (9) and offensive linemen (9), along with defensive backs (7).

In 2012, there were 44 Trojans on opening day NFL rosters, more than from any other school (since records were available, USC has been No. 1 in 18 of the last 37 years). The Trojans' 5 offensive tackles and 4 quarterbacks in 2012 were the most of any other school, while it equaled the most of any school at linebacker (8), tight end (5) and defensive tackle (5).

USC has produced more NFL draft picks (480) than any school (Notre Dame is next with 476), along with 28 picks by the AFL before it merged with the NFL. There have been 462 USC players who since 1920 played in the NFL (or its sister leagues, the AFL or All-America Football Conference).

USC has had more first round NFL draft picks (77) than any school (Ohio State is next with 69). USC is tied with Notre Dame and Auburn for most players (5) selected as the top pick of the NFL draft (Ron Yary in 1968, O.J. Simpson in 1969, Ricky Bell in 1977, Keyshawn Johnson in 1996 and Carson Palmer in 2003). USC is the only school to have the No. 1 pick for 2 consecutive years (Yary and Simpson). USC has had three of the most highly-drafted classes in history. The 1953 class (following the 1952 season) had 15 players drafted while both the 1975 and 1977 classes had 14 players selected. USC had more players selected in the 2011 (9), 2009 (11), 2008 (10), 2006 (11) and 1990 (10) drafts than any school. USC had more players drafted than any school in the 10-year period from 2002-11 and 5-year period from 2007-11. USC's 12 first round picks in the 1990s tied for third most in the nation with Tennessee; 8 of those Trojan first rounders were selected in the Top 10. In the decade of the 1980s, Troy had more first round picks than any school (16). USC's 5 first round picks in the 1968 draft was an NFL record that lasted 36 years.

A Trojan has appeared in all but 5 of the 47 Super Bowls (there have been 104 USC representatives overall). Two Trojans (Lynn Swann in 1976 and Marcus Allen in 1984) have been the Super Bowl MVP. In 1977, 9 USC alums played in the Super Bowl. Trojans have been selected to play in the Pro Bowl 218 times.

Eleven former USC players (more than any other school) and 3 ex-assistant coaches are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

A 2010 ESPN.com survey ranked USC as "the most fertile NFL draft pipeline" from 1979 to 2009. In 2010, Lindy's Sports listed USC as the "football factory" for quarterbacks, running backs and offensive linemen.

In 2009, ESPN NFL draft analyst and former NFL head coach Herm Edwards said: "If you want to play pro football and you're a young high school athlete, you know going to USC is going to give you the best opportunity system-wise and competitive-wise on the field. That's what USC brings to the table. That's why historically, year after year, you see all these players coming into the league."

Fellow ESPN NFL draft analyst and ex-NFL quarterback Ron Jaworski added: "It's fierce competition every day you go out on the USC practice field. Not only on Saturday when they play the game. Every day they're competing at the highest level."

In 2008, the NFL Network selected USC as the No. 1 "football factory" in college football.

Anthony Munoz and Ronnie Lott were selected on the NFL's All-Time Team in August 2000, as chosen by the 36 Pro Football Hall of Fame voters.

A December 1999 story in The Sporting News listed 4 Trojans among the 100 Greatest Pro Football Players: Anthony Munoz (17th), Ronnie Lott (23rd), O.J. Simpson (26th) and Marcus Allen (72nd).

Anthony Munoz was picked among the NFL's Top 10 players of the 20th century by SPORT in 1999.

In December 1999, the Dick Butkus Football Network named a pair of ex-Trojans on its NFL All-Century First Team: Anthony Munoz and Ronnie Lott.

A January 1999 article in ESPN Magazine said that "one of the best ways to win a Super Bowl is to (have a USC player on the team). The alma mater most often represented on winning teams is USC."

A Dec. 13, 1999 article in the San Diego Union-Tribune, which examined Pro Bowl selections since 1950 to determine the schools that have supplied the most pro players at various positions, found that USC had the most Pro Bowl selections and produced more Pro Bowl running backs and safeties than anyone.

A May 1999 SPORT magazine article pointed out that USC sent more players to the Pro Bowl in the 1990s (14) than any other school. "The most measurable sign of a player's success--and thus his pedigree--comes in the form of the NFL's highest annual honor: the Pro Bowl. It's not enough to make it to the league, you've gotta make it in the league." In the article, then-New York Jets Pro Bowl wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson, the former USC All-American, said: "USC is a football factory. Every kid in L.A. grows up wanting to play there, and the coaches know how to translate that into elite athletes."

In a Dec. 1994 College Sports magazine ranking of the schools which have been the top sources over the years of football talent by position (on a combined college and NFL level), USC was listed first at running backs, offensive linemen and defensive backs, and third at linebackers.

In a 1985 Sports Illustrated poll of NFL player personnel directors, USC was ranked first overall among all schools in preparing players for the pros. By position, USC received top marks for running backs, offensive linemen and tight ends.

TROJANS IN THE NFL DRAFT

Listing includes NFL drafts from 1936-2012 (which followed the 1935-2011 collegiate seasons). From 1960-1966, both the NFL and AFL had drafts and this listing includes both drafts because the AFL later merged with the NFL. (F) indicates "future selection," based on an old NFL rule prior to 1967 in which a player could be chosen if his class had graduated, even if he hadn't completed his eligibility (he could be drafted after his fourth year and his rights would remain with the team which selected him even if he didn't sign for a year). The AFL held a separate "redshirt" (or futures) draft in 1965-1966 and it is also included in this listing.

First round draft picks are listed in CAPITAL LETTERS. The "overall draft selection" figures were not available for the 1960 AFL draft or the 1965 and 1966 AFL Redshirt drafts, however players are listed in correct order of selection in those years (also, no round-by-round records were available for the 1960 AFL draft). The positions listed are those projected by the pros at the time of selection.

List compiled with the assistance of Beau Riffenburgh, NFL Properties.

TROJAN TRIVIA

AFTER TIES — USC is 36-14-4 in games immediately following a tie. The Trojans have won the last 13 contests they played after a tie, dating to 1968.

ARTIFICIAL TURF — USC is 31-17-1 in its last 52 games on artificial turf (not including 3 wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 34-17-1).

AUGUST RECORD — USC has a 6-2 (.750) all-time record while playing in the month of August.

BIG TEN COMPETITION — USC has won 33 of its last 41 games (and 40 of its last 49) against Big Ten opponents. USC has twice played 3 consecutive games against Big Ten teams: Northwestern in the 1996 Rose Bowl, then Penn State and Illinois in 1996, and Indiana in the 1968 Rose Bowl, then Minnesota and Northwestern in 1968. There have been 5 times (1962-68-72-76-89) when USC has faced 3 Big Ten teams during a single season, but not consecutively.

BCS BOWLS — USC has made 5 BCS bowl appearances (2003 Orange, 2004 Rose, 2007 Rose, 2008 Rose, 2009 Rose)(not including 2 appearances--2005 Orange and 2006 Rose--vacated by NCAA penalty; original record: an unprecedented 7 consecutive BCS bowl appearances). USC's 5 overall BCS bowl trips are tied for sixth most, behind Ohio State's 8, Oklahoma's 8, Florida's 7, Florida State's 7 and Virginia Tech's 6 (not including 2 appearances vacated by NCAA penalty; orginal record: 7 appearances, third most; also, 1 Ohio State appearance vacated by NCAA penalty). USC's 5 BCS bowl victories are tied with Ohio State for the most of any school (not including 1 win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 6 victories, tied with Ohio State for most; also, 1 Ohio State win vacated by NCAA penalty).

BOUNCE BACK — USC has had back-to-back non-winning seasons just 13 times in its 120-year history, most recently in 2000 and 2001.

CHRISTMAS — USC has played 6 games on Christmas Day, going 3-3: in 1897 (18-0 loss at San Diego YMCA), 1907 (16-6 loss to Los Angeles High School), 1918 (10-0 win over Redlands), 1924 (20-7 post-season win over Missouri in the Christmas Festival), 1934 (33-7 win at Kamehameha High School Alumni) and 2001 (10-6 loss to Utah in the Las Vegas Bowl).

COLD — USC is 9-7-1 in "cold weather" games (defined as where the cold temperature had such an impact on the game that it was mentioined in the media's game recaps). The last time USC played a "cold weather" game was the 2012 Sun Bowl against Georgia Tech (a 21-7 USC loss when it was in the low 40s with 20 mph gusts).

DAY HOME GAMES — USC played only 1 home day game 5 times (1894, 1889, 1906, 2006 and 2010). There were also 2 neutral site day games in Los Angeles in 1906. In 1901, USC didn't play any home games. Since USC played its first night game at the Coliseum in 1944, there have been only 5 seasons that the Trojans started their season with 2 consecutive home day games (1947-49-51-2001-11, with 1949 starting with 3 in a row).

DECEMBER GAMES — USC has a 39-25-7 (.599) all-time record while playing in the month of December (not including 2 wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 41-25-7, .610).

DIAMONDS — USC has a 32-18-2 record since 1935 in stadiums in years that they also served as baseball fields. USC's most recent football games in such a stadium were the 2003 and 2005 Orange Bowls in Pro Player Stadium in Miami (beating Iowa and Oklahoma, respectively), 2005 and 2010 wins over Hawaii in Honolulu's Aloha Stadium (the Trojans also beat Hawaii there in 1978 and 1999 and lost to Auburn in the 1985 Aloha Bowl), a win over Boston College in the 2009 Emerald Bowl in AT&T Park (when both teams were on the same sideline because of the field configuration)and over California in 2011 in AT&T Park (the Bears played there that season while Memorial Stadium in Berkeley was being renovated), although the infield skin was covered with some form of grass for those games. (Note: The 2005 Orange Bowl and 2005 Hawaii wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty.) During 1992 and 1993, USC played 4 games in stadiums with a baseball field: Troy opened 1992 in Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego (tying San Diego State), then played in Anaheim Stadium in the 1992 Freedom Bowl (loss to Fresno State), 1993 Disneyland Pigskin Classic (loss to North Carolina) and 1993 Freedom Bowl (win over Utah). USC played 3 times in domed stadiums that doubled as baseball venues: beating Washington State in Seattle's Kingdome in 1976, Texas A&M in the 1977 Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston's Astrodome and Houston in the Astrodome in 1996. From 1958 to 1961, the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (Troy's home stadium) also was home to the Los Angeles Dodgers (USC was 13-11-1 there in that span). USC played 5 games in Portland's Multnomah Stadium after it was reconfigured to accommodate baseball in 1956, facing Oregon (losses in 1956 and 1958) and Oregon State (wins in 1959and 1966 and a loss in 1957). USC also beat Army in New York City's Yankee Stadium in 1951 and lost to Navy in Baltimore's Memorial Stadium in 1950. USC posted a pair of 1935 wins in Honolulu Stadium (over Kamehameha High Alumni and Hawaii). In its early days, USC played a number of games on campus at Bovard Field, where the Trojans also played baseball (USC went 45-6-3 there from 1904 to 1923). USC also played several games at venues in Los Angeles that were primarily used for baseball: at Athletic Park (going 0-3-1 from 1895 to 1898), the first Washington Park/Chutes Park (0-1-1 in 1900), the second Washington Park (0-2 in 1915 and 0-1 in 1917) and Prager Park (4-2 in 1903).

DOMES — USC is 3-0 inside domed stadiums, beating Washington State in Seattle's Kingdome in 1976, Texas A&M in the 1977 Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston's Astrodome, and Houston in the Astrodome in 1996.

ESPN GAMEDAY — ESPN's popular College GameDay pre-game show has made 9 visits to the Coliseum (2004 California and Notre Dame, 2005 UCLA, 2006 Nebraska and Notre Dame, 2008 Ohio State, 2010 Oregon, 2011 Stanford, 2012 Notre Dame games). Although 2-time gold medalist Quincy Watts (400 meters and 1600 meter relay in the 1992 Olympics) never lettered in football, he was a receiver on the 1990 Trojans (he didn't get into a game).

GOOD BYES — USC is 92-45-4 in all regular season games it has played following byes. Since 1955, the Trojans are 53-16-1 following byes (6 of those losses and the tie were to UCLA). (Not including 2 wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; original records: 94-45-4 overall, 55-16-1 since 1955.) USC had 3 regular-season byes in 1996, 2003, 2004 and 2005, the first time that had happened since 1935.

GRID/HOOPS — USC is 11-7-1 against schools that won the NCAA men's basketball title the previous year.

HOLLYWOOD TROJANS — Among the USC footballers who gained fame on the silver screen are: John Wayne (a tackle in 1925-26 under his real name, Marion Morrison), Ward Bond (a 1928-30 letterman best known for his role in "Wagon Train"), Mike Henry (a tackle from 1956-58 played Tarzan), Marlin and Mike McKeever (the 1959 All-American twins were in several movies), Tim Rossovich (a 1967 All-American defensive end was in various movies), O.J. Simpson (the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner starred in TV and motion pictures), Anthony Davis (the 1974 All-American tailback was in movies), Patrick Muldoon (a walk-on tight end in the mid-1980s starred in soaps, including "Melrose Place," and films, including "Starship Trooper"), Brian Turk (a lineman in the late 1980s appeared in various TV sitcoms and commercials), Mazio Royster (the 1990-91 tailback was in TV commercials and shows), Shane Foley (the quarterback who lettered in 1989-90 was in TV commericals), Matt Willig (a 1988-91 lineman has been in TV and movies), Nick Pappas (the ex-USC player, assistant coach and assistant athletic director doubled for Pat O'Brien as Knute Rockne in the football scenes of "Knute Rockne — All-American") and John Walker (a 2002-05 cornerback appeared on such TV shows as "E.R." and "7th Heaven" as a child). Also, Irvine "Cotton" Warburton (an All-American back in 1933) won an Oscar for film editing on "Mary Poppins," Aaron Rosenberg (a 2-time All-American guard in 1932-33) was a well-known TV and movie producer, Jess Hibbs (a 2-time All-American tackle in 1927-28) was a prominent film and TV director, Nate Barragar (1929 All-American lineman) and Russ Saunders (1927-28-29 fullback) were assistant directors, Mickey McCardle (a halfback in the 1940s) was a distinguished TV and movie director, and Ken Del Conte (a halfback in the early 1960s) was a producer. HOMECOMING — USC has a 58-26-4 record in its Homecoming games, dating back to the first such event in 1924 (not including 1 win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 59-26-4).

HOME JERSEYS — USC wore its home cardinal jerseys for the 2000 Kickoff Classic against Penn State (even though Troy was the visiting team) and for its 1999 game at Hawaii (at the request of the Rainbows). Before that, the last time USC wore cardinal in an opponent's stadium was against UCLA in the Rose Bowl in 1982. By the way, the last time USC wore its road white jerseys at the Coliseum was the 1960 Georgia game, because the Bulldogs only had red jerseys then (USC also wore white jerseys at home on a regular basis during the 1930s).

HOME JERSEYS VS. UCLA — For the first time since 1982, both USC and UCLA wore their home jerseys in the 2008 crosstown rivalry game (it was UCLA's home game in the Rose Bowl). Per an NCAA football-playing rule, because the Trojans were not in their white road jerseys, they were charged with a timeout at the opening kickoff. UCLA responded by calling a timeout immediately after to even things up. The teams again both wore home jerseys in 2009 (that rule was repealed, so there was no consequence). The tradition of USC in its cardinal jerseys and UCLA in its blue jerseys, regardless of whose home game it was, went on from 1949 to 1951 and then 1957 through 1982 before an NCAA football rules change required the visiting team to wear white. That rule was no longer in effect beginning in 2009, so USC again wore its home jersey in the 2010 and 2012 UCLA games in the Rose Bowl.

IMPROVEMENT — USC's best one-season improvement of its record was +6, as the 1962 national champion Trojans went from 4-5-1 in 1961 to 11-0.

In 1922, the Trojans played 3 straight games (versus Idaho and Washington and then Penn State in the 1923 Rose Bowl) in what was then called Tournament of Roses Stadium. Over a 2-year span, Troy also once played 4 "State" schools in a row, closing 1990 against Michigan State in the Hancock Bowl and then opening 1991 against Memphis State, Penn State and Arizona State. The 2011 season was the first since 1980 that USC played only 1 school with "State" in its name (Arizona State), and it occurred again in 2012 (Arizona State).

STREAK BUSTERS — USC has twice "busted" an opponent's 20-plus game winning streak: beating Tennessee in the 1940 Rose Bowl to end the Volunteers' 23-game streak and tying Notre Dame in 1948 to end the Irish's 21-game streak. USC has an 11-6-3 record on Thanksgiving.

1,000-YARD RUNNERS — USC has is tied for the fourth most 1,000-yard season runners (27) with Ohio State, behind Central Michigan (35), Nebraska (33) and Oklahoma (30). Troy's last rusher to hit 1,000 yards was tailback Curtis McNeal (1,005) in 2011. USC's 54 1,000-yard career runners is third behind Oklahoma (68) and Nebraska (62).

THURSDAYS — USC has a 23-10-3 (.681) record on Thursday, including 11-6-3 on Thanksgiving. Ten of the Thursday games have been bowls (1925 Christmas Festival, 1948-53-70-2004-09 Rose, 1987 Citrus, 1993 Freedom, 1998 Sun, 2003 Orange), with Troy going 7-3. The 5 non-Thanksgiving/non-bowl Thursday games were wins against Oregon State (in Portland) in 1926, at Boston College in 1988, at Hawaii in 2010, at California (in AT&T Park) in 2011 and at Utah in 2012, and a loss at Oregon State in 2008. USC has opened its season 3 times (1891, 1988, 2010) on a Thursday.

TRAVELOGUE — USC has played football in 34 states, plus Japan. In order of appearance, USC has played in California, Washington, Utah, Arizona, Oregon, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Hawai'i, Ohio, Louisiana, Maryland, New York, Minnesota, Texas, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Colorado, Oklahoma, Florida, Nebraska, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Tennessee, Missouri, South Carolina, Japan, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Nevada, Kansas and Virginia.

TRICK OR TREAT — USC is 6-6 in games played on Halloween.

TROJANS MIKESIDE — Numerous Trojan footballers have parlayed their playing days into a sports announcing career. Some of those who have been on national broadcasts: Frank Gifford, Lynn Swann, Pat Haden, Marcus Allen, Ronnie Lott, Sean Salisbury, O.J. Simpson, Tim Ryan, Tony Boselli. Those who have been on the local airwaves: Paul McDonald, Petros Papadakis, John Jackson, Mike Garrett, Anthony Munoz, Mike Lamb, Mark Carrier, Jeff Kopp, Jeremy Hogue, Brandon Hancock, Darrell Rideaux, David Newbury, Curtis Conway.

TROY — USC has had just 6 lettermen with the appropriate first name of Troy (Troy Garner, Troy Polamalu, Troy Richardson, Troy Van Blarcom, Troy West and Troy Winslow). Polamalu was the only to win All-American first team acclaim.

TURNAROUNDS — In 120 seasons of USC football, the Trojans have lost 4 or more games 37 times. Following 8 of those 4-plus loss seasons, USC "turned it around" to win the Rose Bowl the next year (1938-43-62-67-72-76-78-84).

TV OUTLETS — USC has appeared live on 32 different television broadcasting outlets. The Trojans have won on the air of all but 3 of those outlets (KTLA, Innovative and a local Memphis station).

21-14 — USC has played 1,174 football games in history and only twice--in 1951 when Troy went to Berkeley and snapped No. 1-ranked California's 38-game regular season unbeaten streak and in 2012 in an upset loss at Stanford--has the final score been a very football-like 21-14 (win or lose).

UCLA-ND — USC is 19-19-2 (.500) against UCLA in seasons when Troy's next game is against Notre Dame. Troy is 16-20-4 against Notre Dame in games immediately following the Bruin game, including 9-9-3 when the Trojans are coming off a win over UCLA. Conversely, although USC has faced its two traditional rivals in the same season 75 times, it has played the Irish and then the Bruins back-to-back in that order only 5 times (1937, 2004, 2006, 2008 and 2010).

UCLA-ND SWEEP — USC has defeated both UCLA and Notre Dame in the same season 19 times, with 9 of those occasions occuring in back-to-back Bruin/Irish games (1938-56-62-64-72-74-76-78-2002), twice on consecutive Irish/Bruin games (2004-08) and the other 8 times (1967-79-81-2003-05-07-09-11) coming when the Irish game was in October and the Bruin contest in November/December (2 of those UCLA wins--2004, 2005--were later vacated due to NCAA penalty). In years that USC swept UCLA and Notre Dame and then played in a bowl, the Trojans are 13-2 in bowls (wins in the 1938-62-67-72-74-76-78-79-2002-03-07-08-09 seasons and the losses in 1981-2005*; does not include 1 win--2004--vacated due to NCAA penalty, revised record: 14-2*). USC has swept UCLA and Notre Dame in 4 consecutive seasons once (2002-05*; wins over UCLA in 2 of those years--2004, 2005--were later vacated due to NCAA penalty*).

UNDER 100 — Since 1946, there have been 8 seasons when USC did not allow any runner to rush for 100 yards (1951-56-59-61-63-72-82-2002).

UNRANKED AT 3-0/5-1 — Since the AP poll was first established in 1936, USC has started off its season with a 3-0 record 33 times. Troy was ranked by AP the week after each of those 3-0 starts (except 1936 and 1948 when AP polls were not issued those weeks). But only 4 times has a 3-0 USC team not been ranked in the AP Top 10: 1951 (14th), 1998 (18th), 2010 (20th) and 2011 (23rd). USC has started off with a 5-1 mark 18 times, but only once (2011) has it not been ranked by AP.

USC-UCLA BAY AREA — 2006 was the first time that USC (at Stanford) and UCLA (at California) played in the Bay Area on the same day (Nov. 4). It happened again on Oct. 3, 2009 (USC at Cal, UCLA at Stanford) and Oct. 9, 2010 (USC at Stanford, UCLA at California).

VERSUS NO. 1 — USC is 7-12 all-time versus AP No. 1-ranked teams.

VERSUS RANKED TEAMS — The most AP-ranked teams USC has faced in a season is 9, in 2002. USC has twice faced 4 AP-ranked teams in a row in the same season, in 1952 and 2002 (on 2 other occasions, Troy faced 4 consecutive ranked foes, but those were over a 2-season span: 1973-74 and 1988-89).

VERSUS UNRANKED TEAMS — Since the AP poll began in 1936, 1956 was the only time that USC went an entire season without playing a ranked team. Conversely, USC has gone through an entire season without earning an AP ranking only 5 times (1941, 1948, 1958, 1961 and 2001).

WILD BUNCH — Known as "The Wild Bunch," USC's stellar 1969 defensive line--coached by legendary assistant Marv Goux--consisted of ends Jimmy Gunn and Charles Weaver, tackles Al Cowlings and Tody Smith and middle guards Willard 'Bubba' Scott and Tony Terry (he had a hamstring injury for much of the season and was not able to appear in the famed gunslinger photo). Cowlings dubbed the unit "The Wild Bunch"--after director Sam Peckinpah's hit 1969 Western movie of that name--for their reckless abandon and hard-nosed play. "The Wild Bunch" helped USC go 10-0-1, including a Rose Bowl win over Michigan. In the UCLA game, they sacked Dennis Dummit 10 times for losses of 75 yards. Playing in an era of powerful running games, "The Wild Bunch" allowed just 2.3 yards per carry. Gunn, Weaver and Cowlings each were All-American first teamers in their careers. Then, 34 years later, assistant coach Ed Orgeron's dominant 2003 defensive line--tackles Shaun Cody and Mike Patterson and ends Kenechi Udeze and Omar Nazel--was dubbed by the media as "The Wild Bunch II." They were instrumental in helping USC to its first national championship since 1978. They led a defense that finished first in the nation in rushing yards allowed per game (60.2) and per carry (1.84), both school records, as well as sacks (38.5) and tackles for loss (67). Only one runner gained 100 yards that season. Udeze, the national sack co-leader (16.5), was a consensus All-American first teamer.

FACILITIES

LOS ANGELES MEMORIAL COLISEUM

The Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum is one of the greatest and largest stadiums in America. It combines the traditional and the modern into a premier athletic environment. In 2005, The Sporting News named the Coliseum among the nation's 40 best stadiums to experience college football.

USC has played football in the Coliseum ever since the grand stadium was built in 1923. In fact, the Trojans played in the first varsity football game ever held there (beating Pomona College, 23-7, on Oct. 6, 1923). That game was preceded that day by the USC freshman team's 30-0 win over Santa Ana High.

Construction on the Coliseum took less than 2 years, with ground breaking ceremonies held on Dec. 21, 1921, and work completed on May 1, 1923. Initial construction costs were $800,000.

The Coliseum was the site of the 1932 Olympic Games and hosted the opening and closing ceremonies and track events of the 1984 Olympics. Over the years, the Coliseum has been home to many sports teams besides the Trojans, including UCLA football, Los Angeles Rams, Dons, Raiders, Express and Xtreme football, and Los Angeles Dodgers baseball. The Coliseum has hosted various other events, from concerts and speeches to track meets and motorcycle races.

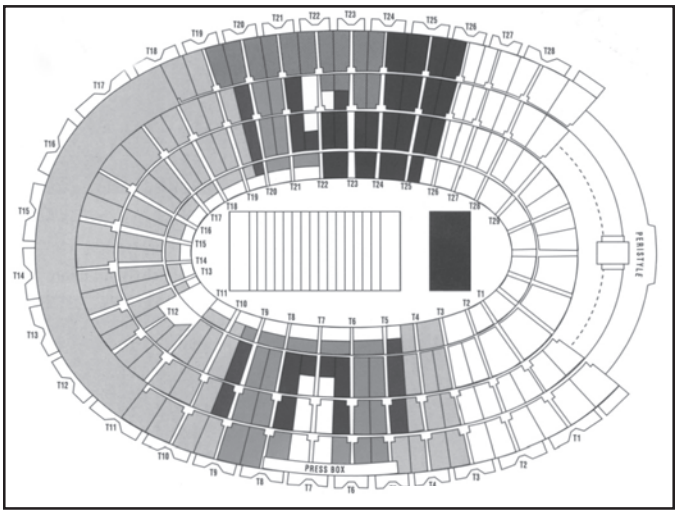
There have been 20 seasons--1923 to 1925, 1995 to 2000, 2002 to 2012--that USC was the stadium's sole football tenant. USC was expected to take over management of the facility in 2013.

Prior to the 1993 football season, the Coliseum underwent a $15 million renovation. The Coliseum's floor was lowered 11 feet and the running track was removed to create a more intimate stadium. Fourteen new rows of seats (approximately 8,000 seats) were added down low, bringing fans closer to the playing field (the first rows of seats between the goalposts are a maximum of 54 feet from the sideline, instead of the previous 120 feet). During this renovation, the lockerrooms and public restrooms were also upgraded.

Southern California's damaging January, 1994 earthquake hit the Coliseum hard, requiring some $93 million of repairs. And, in the summer of 1995, a new $6 million press box was constructed.

The Coliseum has a present full-capacity of 93,607 seats (almost all are chair-back seats). There are approximately 25,000 seats from goal line to goal line, including both the north and south sides.

The Coliseum is located on 17 acres in Exposition Park, which also houses museums, gardens and the Los Angeles Sports Arena.



USC'S ATHLETIC FACILITIES

Heritage Hall, which sits in the middle of the University of Southern California campus, houses the University's athletic department and celebrates the glorious Trojan athletic heritage. USC has produced 419 Olympic athletes, won 120 national team championships and developed 52 NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship recipients.

Originally 48,000 square feet and built at a cost of $2.8 million, the 3-level brick and concrete colonnaded building opened in 1971. Heritage Hall was designed by Grillias, Savage and Alves of Santa Ana, Calif. Myers Brothers Construction Company, Inc., of Los Angeles was the general contractor. Initial construction began in Feb. 5, 1970. It was expanded three times--in 1984 (a 6,000-square foot addition to the weight room), in 1992 (a 13,500-square foot expansion that houses the Academic Resource Center) and in 1998 (a 3,000-square foot addition to the Jess Hill Weight Room)--before a major year-long renovation of the facility began in early 2013. Heritage Hall is located close to USC's various athletic practice and competition on-campus facilities.

Directly west of Heritage Hall is the John McKay Center, a $70 million, 110,000-square foot facility that opened in the summer of 2012. It houses meeting rooms, coaches offices and a locker room for the football program, as well as the Stevens Academic Center (which features tutoring, counseling, study and computer rooms for USC's student-athletes), a weight room, an athletic training room and a state-of-the-art digital media production facility for all of USC's sports.

USC's swimming and water polo coaches are located in the nearby soon-to-open renovated Uytengsu Aquatics Center (formerly the McDonald's Swim Stadium, site of the 1984 Olympic swimming and diving competition), while the baseball staff has offices at Dedeaux Field (the baseball stadium),the track and field staff has offices in the 3,000-seat Loker Stadium (which houses Cromwell Track and Field) and the men's and women's basketball and volleyball staffs have offices in the Galen Center.

Outside the northwest corner of Heritage Hall, the $3-million Galen Dining Center--a popular sports-themed dining center--opened in early 1999.

The USC football team practices at nearby Howard Jones Field, which was expanded in the fall of 1998 to include Brian Kennedy Field. In early 1999, Goux's Gate--named after the late popular long-time former assistant coach Marv Goux--was erected at the entrance to the practice field.

The 10,258-seat, $147-million on-campus Galen Center (and adjoining practice facility), completed in August of 2006, is the luxurious home to the Trojan basketball and volleyball teams, as well as various cultural events.

USC's other on-campus athletic facilities include Marks Tennis Stadium, the McAlister Field (for soccer and lacrosse), Merle Norman Stadium (for sand volleyball), the 1,500-seat Lyon Center (a campus student recreation center which has hosted some Trojan intercollegiate events) and the Physical Education Building (housing the 1,000-seat North Gym).

Traveler, USC's Mascot

Traveler first made an appearance at USC football games in 1961 (in the home opener versus Georgia Tech). Bob Jani, then USC's director of special events, and Eddie Tannenbaum, then a junior at USC, had spotted Richard Saukko riding his white horse, Traveler I, in the 1961 Rose Parade. They persuaded Saukko to ride his white horse around the Coliseum during USC games, serving as a mascot. Ever since, whenever USC scores, the band plays "Conquest" and Traveler gallops around the Coliseum.

Because of poor health, Saukko stopped riding after the 1988 season (he passed away in March of 1992). His successors have been Cass Dabbs, Rick Oas, Tom Nolan, Ardeshir Radpour, Chuck O'Donnell (Saukko's stepson) and current rider Hector Aguilar. Patricia Saukko DeBernardi (Saukko's widow) was Traveler's owner and trainer until she retired following the 2002 season. She asked Joanne Asman to take over with her own Traveler in 2003 (she also trains and houses the horse for USC). She is president of Asman & Associates, an entertainment and event planning company in Burbank, Calif., and she has spent more than 20 years training and managing equestrian performers.

The current Trojan mascot is Traveler VII. Even though the breed of horse may have changed over the years — Travelers I through VI ranged from an Arabian/Tennessee Walker to a pure-bred Tennessee Walker to a pure-bred Arabian to an Andalusian — Traveler's color has always remained pure white.

In the fall of 2004, USC alumnus Bill Tilley ('61) and his wife, Nadine, donated $2 million to provide a permanent endowment to support Traveler. Bill is the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Jacmar Companies, a multi-faceted international restaurant and food service enterprise and majority owner of the highly successful B.J.'s Restaurant and Brewery. Nadine is an avid breeder of champion Andalusian horses. She and Bill hope that a future Traveler will be bred at Tilley's Andalusians, her Hemet ranch that is now known as "The Home of Traveler."

Saukko first appeared on Traveler in the outfit that actor Charlton Heston wore in "Ben Hur." That proved to be too cumbersome, so Saukko crafted his own leather costume in 1962, modeled after the Tommy Trojan statue on the USC campus (that outfit is still being used). But he still sometimes wore Heston's helmet. Interestingly, Saukko was once employed by Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Legend has it that Heisman Trophy tailback O.J. Simpson decided to come to USC after seeing Traveler on a televised football game. And Trojan faithful swear the horse has an effect on the outcome of games.

"(Former USC coach) John McKay didn't want to admit that the horse had anything to do with his success," said Saukko, "but he'd always give me a wink when he saw me waiting in the Coliseum tunnel."

Added former USC All-American defensive back and assistant coach Nate Shaw: "The horse is one of the greatest inspirational devices USC has. It definitely got the adrenaline going when I was playing and I think it still has an effect on the players. When I was coaching against USC (at Oregon State), we hated to see that horse come down the tunnel because it got USC a little more pumped up."

Traveler not only appears at Trojan home football games (and even at some away games, including the 1995 Cotton Bowl in Dallas and the 2005 Orange Bowl in Miami, the farthest Traveler has traveled), but also at other Trojan events, as well as at grade and high schools, charity functions and parades (including the past 46 Rose Parades). Traveler has also appeared on screen (including "The Asia Music Awards," "Road To El Dorado," "The Battle of the Gunfighter" and "Snowfire"), on stage (including in the Long Beach Ballet's "Nutcracker Ballet"), in commercials, in print (Vogue magazine) and at personal appearances with many celebrities (including Janet Jackson, Jamie Foxx, LeeAnne Rimes, Fabio and Fred Roggin).

Incidentally, Traveler I was not the first equine mascot for Troy. The first appearance of a white horse at a Trojan football game occurred as early as 1927, when Louis Shields began a four-year stint aboard a horse owned by a local banker. In 1948, band director Tommy Walker once had USC colors carried by a Trojan on a palomino. Then, before kickoff of the 1954 USC-Pittsburgh game, Arthur J. Gontier III, then a member of the Trojan Knights spirit group (subbing for another rider who backed out at the last moment), shakily rode a rented gray/white horse while donning a costume once worn by actor Jeff Chandler. A more accomplished rider, USC alum Bob Caswell, and his white horse, Rockazar, took over the following game and performed until retiring in 1959.

Besides these horses, USC once even had a canine mascot. A mutt named George Tirebiter I (famous for chasing cars through the USC campus) first appeared at football games in 1940. He survived a publicized dognapping by UCLA in 1947, but succumbed under the tires of an automobile in 1950. He was succeeded by George II for 3 years (1950-52), then George III for 1 year (1953) and finally George IV for 1 year (1957).

TRAVELER FUND

The Traveler Fund is used to make sure USC's mascot continues to be a prominent part of football games and other events. Whether it's $5 or $500, donations help to secure this special USC tradition for future generations of Trojans.

Donations should be made out to the "Traveler Fund" and sent to: Justine Gilman, USC Recreational Sports, LRC 101, Los Angeles, Calif. 90089-2500, (213) 740-8120. Donors will receive a beautiful picture of Traveler that is suitable for framing.

TRAVELER

Tommy Trojan

In the center of the USC campus stands one of the most famous collegiate landmarks in the country: Tommy Trojan. Since being unveiled in 1930 for USC's 50th jubilee, the statue of the bronzed Trojan warrior has served not only as a popular meeting place on campus, but as a symbol of the university's fighting spirit.

Sculpted by Roger Noble Burnham (the idea for the statue was conceived by Harry Lee Martin and Dr. James D. McCoy), Tommy Trojan cost $10,000 to build. A $1 surcharge then on season football tickets helped pay for it.

The statue is a composite of many USC football players from the late 20s, most notably 1930 Rose Bowl Player of the Game Russ Saunders and All-American Erny Pinckert.

"Burnham made more than 100 oil paintings of various football players from our squad," said Saunders, "and from them he selected the paintings of Pinckert and me. We put in a lot of hours posing, and the result you see is my head, chest and shoulders. The rest is all Erny."

Inscribed on the statue's base is "THE TROJAN" and the university's seal, with the Latin motto "Palmam qui meruit ferat (Let him who deserves it bear away the palm)." Below the seal are inscribed the qualities of the ideal Trojan: "Faithful, Scholarly, Skillful, Courageous and Ambitious."

The tradition of Tommy Trojan being painted blue and gold by UCLA pranksters was first recorded in October of 1941. Since then, Tommy has been "hit" often, but now USC maintenance crews cover him with plastic and canvas for protection during the week of the annual USC-UCLA football game.

And Tommy's sword has been stolen so often that now, instead of replacing it each time with an expensive brass one, he is given a wooden one.

By the way, where did he get the name Tommy? Of that, no one is sure!

TROJAN TRADITIONS

Victory Bell

VICTORY BELL

The winner of the annual USC-UCLA football game, perhaps America's greatest crosstown rivalry, is given year-long possession of the Victory Bell.

The 295-pound bell originally clanged from atop a Southern Pacific freight locomotive. It was given to UCLA in 1939 as a gift from the UCLA Alumni Association. For 2 seasons, cheerleaders rang the bell after each Bruin point.

At the opening game of UCLA's 1941 football season, 6 members of USC's Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity infiltrated the UCLA rooting section. After the game, they helped Bruin students load the bell onto a waiting truck bound for Westwood. But then, one Trojan quietly removed the key to the truck, and while the Bruins went to get a replacement, the Trojans drove off with the bell.

The bell remained hidden for more than a year, first in the fraternity's basement, then in the Hollywood Hills, Santa Ana and other locations. At one point, it was even concealed beneath a haystack. Bruin students tried to locate the bell, but to no avail.

The controversy died down for a while, until a picture of the bell was printed in "The Wampus," a USC magazine. This re-ignited the rivalry, as students from UCLA retaliated by painting the Tommy Trojan statue at USC and then Trojan students burned USC initials on UCLA lawns. Police had to be called several times. The conflict got so out of hand that Dr. Rufus B. von KleinSmid, then USC's president, threatened to cancel the USC-UCLA game if any further disorders occurred.

On Nov. 12, 1942, the bell was wheeled in front of Tommy Trojan and the student body presidents of both schools — USC's Bill McKay and UCLA's Bill Farrer — signed an agreement stating that thereafter the annual winner of the Trojan-Bruin gridiron clash would keep the bell for the following year. In the case of a tie, the bell would be retained by the school that won the previous year's game. The USC Alumni Association later repaid the UCLA Alumni Association for half the cost of the bell.

At the time, the arrangement might have seemed like a bad deal for the Bruins, since they had yet to defeat USC. But that first year, 1942, UCLA beat USC, 14-7.

Since the bell became a trophy, its carriage has been painted cardinal 39 times while in USC's possession and blue 29 times while in UCLA's hold (there were 4 ties). (Does not include 2 USC wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 41.)

Although the Victory Bell is one of college football's most famous trophies, it is probably the least seen. For all but 2 days of the year, the bell sits in a warehouse or a vault. The universities only display the bell during the first 3 quarters of the USC-UCLA game and on the Monday following the game, when it is delivered to the winning school's campus. Then the Victory Bell, which gained its reputation from being hidden, goes back into hiding.

Crosstown Gauntlet Trophy

To highlight the year-long all-sports competition between crosstown rivals USC and UCLA, the Crosstown Gauntlet Trophy is awarded annually to the school with the most successful athletic year against the other. Points are awarded to the winner of each Trojan-Bruin head-to-head contest and the Gauntlet is awarded to the school with the most points at year's end. USC captured the inaugural trophy in 2001-02, UCLA won it in 2002-03, the Trojans recaptured it in 2003-04, the Bruins won it back in 2004-05, it returned to Troy in 2005-06, UCLA had it for 2006-07, it returned to USC for 2007-08 and the Trojans became the first school to retain possession of it for consecutive years when they did so for 2008-09 and then again in 2009-10, 2010-11 and 2011-12 before the Bruins reclaimed it for 2012-13.

Shillelagh

SHILLELAGH I

SHILLELAGH II

A jeweled shillelagh is passed between the annual winner of the USC-Notre Dame game, perhaps the finest intersectional rivalry in college football.

A shillelagh (pronounced "shuh-LAY-lee") is a Gaelic war club made of oak or blackthorn saplings from Ireland. Those are the only woods used because, it is said, they are the only ones tougher than an Irish skull.

The foot-long shillelagh has ruby-adorned Trojan heads with the year and game score representing USC victories, while emerald-studded shamrocks stand for Notre Dame wins. For tie games, a combined Trojan head/shamrock medallion is used. On the end of the club is engraved, "From the Emerald Isle." The victor of the Trojan-Irish game gains year-long possession of the trophy.

Upon its initial presentation in 1952 by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, it was said that "this shillelagh will serve to symbolize in part the high tradition, the keen rivalry and above all the sincere respect which these two great universities have for each other."

The original shillelagh was flown from Ireland by Howard Hughes' pilot, according to legend. It was devised by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, based on a suggestion by Vern Rickard. John Groen designed it. Although the shillelagh was introduced in 1952, the medallions go back to the start of the series in 1926.

When the original shillelagh ran out of space for the Trojan heads and shamrocks after the 1989 game, it was retired and is permanently displayed at Notre Dame.

A new shillelagh — slightly longer than the original — was commissioned by Jim Gillis, a former baseball player at both USC and Notre Dame and a one-time president of the Notre Dame Club of Los Angeles, and handcrafted in 1997 in County Leitrim, Ireland. It contains medallions beginning with the 1990 game.

There are now 44 shamrocks, 34 Trojan heads and 5 combined medallions on the shillelaghs. (Does not include 1 USC win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 35.)

Origin of USC's Nickname — Trojans

USC's nickname, "Trojans," originated in 1912. Up to that time the University of Southern California teams were called the Methodists or Wesleyans, nicknames which were not looked upon with favor by university officials.

So, Warren Bovard, director of athletics and son of university president Dr. George Bovard, asked Los Angeles Times sports editor Owen Bird to select an appropriate nickname.

"At this time, the athletes and coaches of the university were under terrific handicaps," recalled Bird. "They were facing teams that were bigger and better-equipped, yet they had splendid fighting spirit. The name 'Trojans' fitted them.

"I came out with an article prior to a showdown between USC and Stanford in which I called attention to the fighting spirit of USC athletes and named them 'Trojans.' From then on, we used the term 'Trojan' all the time, and it stuck.

"The term 'Trojan' as applied to USC means to me that no matter what the situation, what the odds or what the conditions, the competition must be carried on to the end and those who strive must give all they have and never be weary in doing so."

USC commemorated the 100th anniversary of its Trojans nickname during the 2012 season.

Colors: Cardinal & Gold

Before 1895, the official color of USC was gold. The official color of the College of Liberal Arts was cardinal. The college had its own official color because it was the largest academic unit in the University. In 1895, both colors were adopted as USC's official colors.

TROJAN MARCHING BAND

The Trojan Marching Band — known as "The Spirit of Troy" — is the most dynamic and innovative collegiate band in the nation. Named among the 8 best marching bands in the country by USA Today, the band is one of USC's most visible public relations tools and provides tireless support of USC athletic teams.

Established in 1880, the band has played for 7 Presidents and appeared in numerous movies (including "Forrest Gump" and "The Naked Gun"), TV shows (including 3 times at the Academy Awards and with OutKast's Andre 3000 at the 2004 Grammy Awards and Radiohead at the 2008 Grammys, plus on "Glee," "American Idol," "Dancing With The Stars," "Scrubs," "How I Met Your Mother," "Las Vegas," "L.A. Law," "Hollywood Squares," "Good Morning America," MTV's "Rock and Jock" and the "Tonight Show with Conan O'Brien"), commercials and magazines (including in Sports Illustrated's Swimsuit issue). The band earned 2 platinum albums when it recorded the title track of Fleetwood Mac's 1979 album, "Tusk," and was on the group's live 1997 reunion album, "The Dance." It played at the 2010 Coachella music festival with Coheed and Cambria. And it has produced numerous albums of its own music (featuring the well-known "Tribute To Troy," "Conquest" and "Fight On"). It is regarded as "Hollywood's Band."

Among the many musicians who have played in the band as students was Herb Alpert of the Tijuana Brass (in the cornet section). Various famous guest artists have appeared with the band, including John Phillip Souza (in 1924), Henry Mancini, John Williams, Quincy Jones, Chuck Mangione, Leonard Bernstein, Diana Ross, Neil Diamond, John Wayne, Kenny Rogers, Tower of Power, George Clinton, KC & The Sunshine Band, System of a Down, WAR, Bozo the Clown (Larry Harmon) and The Offspring's Dexter Holland.

The band performs a new halftime show with precision drills, specially arranged music and dance routines at each home game. A typical football halftime show takes more than 100 hours to prepare. The band marches about 90 miles a year while traveling across the land supporting every USC team. In fact, it hasn't missed a Trojan football game, at home or away, since 1987 (its full band trips to the Bay Area and Notre Dame are much anticipated). The band appears at more than 350 engagements each year, including at pro sporting events and major corporate and special events throughout Southern California.

Approximately 20 percent of its members are music majors, with almost every school and department represented among the balance. Now 300-plus members strong, the Trojan Marching Band has tripled in size since Dr. Arthur C. Bartner became its director in 1970 (he is assisted by long-time arranger Tony Fox). A graduate of Michigan, Bartner brought with him a creative approach and the unique, contemporary "drive-it" style of marching.

Bartner directed the 800-member 1984 Olympic All-American College Marching Band (with 125 USC bandsmen) at the Games' opening and closing ceremonies. It was the second time the band was involved with the Olympics, as it formed the 10th Olympic Braid in the 1932 Los Angeles Games. The band has also performed at 4 Super Bowls, the 1988 World Series, the 1994 World Cup and the 2002 NHL All Star Weekend. Bartner has made 15 appearances with the Trojan Marching Band at the Rose Parade and Rose Bowl.

Bartner was also Director of Bands for the Japan Bowl in Tokyo and directed the All-American College Marching Band at Disneyland. During its summer vacations, the band travels the world as goodwill ambassadors of USC. In 1986, Bartner and 40 band members were part of the ceremonies of Liberty Weekend at the refurbished Statue of Liberty. In 1988, he brought the band to Australia to perform at festivities for that country's bicentennial and at World Expo 88 (one of five World Expositions it has appeared, along with Spain in 1992, Portugal in 1998, Japan in 2005 and Shanghai in 2010). The band also performed at the 50th anniversary of D-Day in France, toured Germany in 1990 to celebrate the fall of the Berlin Wall, played at the walls of the Roman Colosseum in 2006, on the Great Wall of China in 2004 and on Rio de Janeiro's Ipanema Beach in 2008 and in 2003 was the first American marching band to perform at Hong Kong's International Chinese New Year's Parade (it returned there in 2004). It performs each summer at the Hollywood Bowl.

The Trojan Marching Band is complemented by the USC Silks (tall flags) and twirlers, plus the world-famous USC Song Girls, who were ranked No. 1 in the nation by Sports Illustrated, and the Spirit Leaders. In 2009, ESPN.com named the band and Song Girls as the nation's best: "Nothing says 'glamour school' more than the ubiquitous presence of the USC Song Girls and the Trojan Marching Band. The Spirit of Troy brings one of the most stirring sounds in college football, while the USC Song Girls give Trojan games ones of the sport's most indelible sights."

School Songs

"FIGHT ON"

Fight On for ol' SC
Our men Fight On to victory.
Our Alma Mater dear, looks up to you
Fight On and win
For ol' SC
Fight On to victory
Fight On!

This song is usually played after first downs and touchdowns. The music for USC's fight song, "Fight On," was composed in 1922 by USC dental student Milo Sweet (with lyrics by Sweet and Glen Grant) as an entry in a Trojan spirit contest. In addition to inspiring generations of Trojan fans and players, the song has been used in numerous recordings and movies. Legend has it that during World War II in the Pacific, an American task force attacked an island held by the Japanese. As the Americans stormed the beach, "Fight On" blared from the deck of one of the transports. The U.S. men let out a tremendous roar and eventually won the island.

"ALL HAIL"

All hail to Alma Mater,
To thy glory we sing;
All hail to Southern California,
Loud let thy praises ring;
Where Western sky meets Western sea
Our college stands in majesty.
Sing our love to Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee.

The words and music to USC's alma mater, "All Hail," were composed in the early 1920s by Al Wesson, Troy's longtime sports information director. He wrote the song as a student member of the Trojan Marching Band for the finale of a 1923 campus show.

"CONQUEST"

Another famous USC song is the regal processional march, "Conquest," by Alfred Newman. It is usually played after every USC score and victory. This stirring battle cry, from Newman's score to the 1947 motion picture classic "Captain from Castile," has become synonymous with the championship tradition of USC since the Trojans adopted it in 1954 during a basketball game against Oregon State. Newman, a legendary composer of film music, was the musical director of Twentieth Century-Fox Studios.

Other Songs

"Tribute To Troy," the incessant stanza of pounding drums and blaring horns, is played after every defensive stop. "Fanfare" is the introduction to "Tribute To Troy" and is played when the band takes the field. "All Right Now" is played after USC gets a turnover. "Another One Bites the Dust" is played after USC gets a sack. The "William Tell Overture" is played at the start of the fourth quarter. "The Emperor's Theme" from Star Wars is played when USC is flagged for a major penalty.

Tommy Walker

The trumpet "Charge," heard often at athletic contests, was composed by a post-World War II USC student named Tommy Walker. As a member of the Trojan Marching Band, he was known as "Tommy Trojan," and as a USC football player, he would shed his band uniform, come down from the stands, and kick extra points (he lettered in 1947). Upon graduation in 1948, he was hired as the band's director. He later was the first entertainment director at Disneyland and then went into business as one of the world's leading creators of show business spectacles (including Super Bowl halftimes and Olympic opening and closing ceremonies). He died in 1986.

USC'S ATHLETIC HERITAGE

USC has a proud athletic heritage — and with good reason. Arguably, Troy could be the "Collegiate Athletic Program of the 20th Century." Consider:

• Trojan teams have won more national championships, 95 men's (including a national-best 82 NCAA titles) and 25 women's, than all but 2 other schools.

• The Trojans won at least 1 national team title in 26 consecutive years (1959-60 to 1984-85).

• USC won the National College All-Sports Championship — an annual ranking by USA Today (previously the Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs from 1971 to 1994 — 6 times.

• USC won the Gauntlet Trophy, a year-long all-sports competition between Troy and crosstown rival UCLA, in its inaugural 2001-02 season, again in 2003-04 and 2005-06 and then 5 straight years (2007-08 through 2011-12).

• Trojan men athletes have won more individual NCAA titles (309) than those from any other school in the nation (the Women of Troy have brought home another 69 individual NCAA crowns).

• Troy also has a long tradition of nurturing successful Olympic athletes. USC has more Olympians, medalists and gold medalists than any school. Since 1904, 419 Trojan athletes have competed in the Games, taking home 135 gold medals (with at least 1 gold in every summer Olympics from 1912), 88 silver and 64 bronze.

• Four Trojans have won the prestigious Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in America: diver Sammy Lee (1953), shot putter Parry O'Brien (1959), swimmer John Naber (1977) and swimmer Janet Evans (1989).

• Two Women of Troy athletes have won the Honda-Broderick Cup as the top collegiate woman athlete of the year: Cheryl Miller (1983-84) and Angela Williams (2001-02). And Trojan women have won 15 Honda Awards, as the top female athlete in their sport.

Along with the great accomplishments on the playing fields, USC student-athletes have received 52 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, in the Top 10 among all schools. In addition, USC has had 31 first team Academic All-Americans and 4 athletes who were Rhodes Scholars.

Here's an overview of USC's 21 current intercollegiate sports as the school celebrates 125 years of Trojan athletics in 2013-14:

FOOTBALL — Since starting football in 1888, USC has an impressive all-time won-loss record of 786-319-54 (a .701 winning percentage). In 2009, ESPN.com ranked USC the second-best program in college football history. (Does not include 14 wins and 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 800-320-54, .704.)

USC's record against Pac-12 opponents is a stellar 423-176-29 (.697). In its history, the Trojans have won 36 conference championships. (Does not include 9 wins and 2 titles vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record 432-176-29, .701, 38 titles.)

USC has the nation's fourth best bowl winning percentage (.653) among the 81 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances and its 33 Rose Bowl appearances is an all-time best. Troy's overall bowl mark is 31-16 (second for most wins nationally), including 23-8 in the Pasadena classic (does not include 1 Rose Bowl win and loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record 32-17 overall, 24-9 Rose Bowl). The Trojans were a bowl participant every year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Think about college football and USC's tailback in the I-formation, one of the most glamorous positions in the sport, comes to mind. Five Trojan tailbacks have won the coveted Heisman Trophy as college football's outstanding player: Mike Garrett (1965), O.J. Simpson (1968), Charles White (1979), Marcus Allen (1981) and Reggie Bush (2005, later vacated). Carson Palmer in 2002 and Matt Leinart in 2004 became the first USC quarterbacks to win the Heisman.

The Trojans have had other prominent award winners. Offensive tackle Ron Yary won the 1967 Outland Trophy, offensive guard Brad Budde won the 1979 Lombardi Award, safety Mark Carrier won the 1989 Thorpe Award, linebacker Chris Claiborne won the 1998 Butkus Award, tight end Fred Davis won the 2007 Mackey Award, linebacker Rey Maualuga won the 2008 Bednarik Award and wide receiver Marqise Lee won the 2012 Biletnikoff Award. USC players have been named first team All-American 160 times, with 53 consensus selections and 27 unanimous choices.

Many of those players have led USC to 11 national championships in football. Legendary coach Howard Jones (1925-40) guided Troy to 4 of those titles (1928-31-32-39). John McKay (1960-75) was responsible for 4 national championship teams (1962-67-72-74). John Robinson (1976-82), who captured 1 title (1978) in his first tenure, returned to Troy in 1993 and led USC to 3 more bowl wins. Pete Carroll (2001-09) led Troy to its most recent national crowns in 2003 and 2004, and had 5 Pac-10 titles, BCS bowl trips and 11-win seasons and 7 AP Top 4 finishes (does not include 14 wins and 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 7 consecutive Pac-10 titles, BCS bowl trips, 11-win seasons and AP Top 4 finishes). Former assistant Lane Kiffin took over in 2010.

Scores of Trojans have starred in the NFL (a national-best 480 have been drafted, including a national-best 77 first rounders and a record 5 No. 1 selections), including such greats as Frank Gifford, Lynn Swann, Anthony Munoz, Ronnie Lott, Junior Seau, Keyshawn Johnson, Bruce Matthews, Willie McGinest and Troy Polamalu.

BASEBALL — No school in the country can match the long tradition USC has in baseball. With 12 national championships in the sport, Troy is far and away the leader in that category (no other school has more than 6).

Since starting baseball in 1889, the Trojans have compiled a record of 2,501-1,390-17 (.642) against college opponents, and have captured 38 conference championships.

The incomparable Rod Dedeaux coached USC from 1942-86, leading the school to 11 of its NCAA crowns, including 5 straight from 1970-74 (no other school has strung together more than two in a row).

Trojans have been named first team All-American 43 times, with Jay Roundy, Pat Harrison, Bill Bordley and Gabe Alvarez being 2-time selections. Mark McGwire (1984), Seth Etherton (1998) and Mark Prior (2001) were national Players of the Year.

USC boasts many successful major leaguers such as Ron Fairly, Don Buford, Tom Seaver, Dave Kingman, Fred Lynn, Roy Smalley, Steve Kemp, Mark McGwire, Randy Johnson, Bret and Aaron Boone, Jeff Cirillo, Barry Zito, Geoff Jenkins and Mark Prior. In all, Trojans have been drafted 300 times, with 101 Trojans having played in the major leagues.

Dedeaux compiled a 45-year collegiate record of 1,332-571-11 (.699), making him the then-winningest coach in collegiate baseball history. He resigned after the 1986 season to become USC's director of baseball and was replaced by Mike Gillespie, whose 1998 squad won the College World Series while finishing as the CWS runnerup in 1995 and also advancing to Omaha in 2000 and 2001 (15 of his 20 teams advanced to the NCAA regionals). Gillespie retired after the 2006 season. Former Trojan pitcher Dan Hubbs became the head coach in 2013.

MEN'S BASKETBALL — Since starting basketball in 1907, USC has compiled a record of 1,514-1,115 (.576), winning 14 league championships.

Bill Sharman, John Rudometkin, John Block, Paul Westphal, Gus Williams, Harold Miner and Sam Clancy are a few of USC's 22 All-American selections. Five USC men, Sharman, Jack Gardner, Alex Hannum, Tex Winter and coach Sam Barry, are in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Barry (1930-41, 1945-50) has USC's winningest record, 260-138 (.653). Following him are Forrest Twogood (1951-66) at 255-180 (.586) and Bob Boyd (1967-79) at 216-131 (.622). George Raveling, an assistant for the 1984 and 1988 U.S. Olympic teams, took over in 1987 and led Troy into the post-season 4 times. Henry Bibby (1996-2005) got the Trojans into the NCAA tourney 3 times (including the Elite Eight in 2001). Tim Floyd (2006-09) posted 20-win seasons and NCAA berths a USC-record 3 straight seasons (his 2007 NCAA Sweet Sixteen team had a school-record 25 wins and his 2009 squad won USC's first-ever Pac-10 tourney crown). Andy Enfield is now the head coach.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL — USC is among the elite college women's basketball programs, winning 2 national championships and playing in 4 Final Fours.

USC became established when Linda Sharp took over as coach in 1977. By 1981, Troy had reached the Final Four. In 1983, Cheryl Miller joined Cynthia Cooper and twins Pam and Paula McGee to lead the Women of Troy to its first national championship. The next year, the team won the national title again. USC advanced to the NCAA title game in 1986.

Miller finished her career in 1986 as the Trojans' all-time leading scorer and rebounder. She also won her third straight Naismith Award as the outstanding player in college basketball. She returned as coach of her alma mater in 1994 and led USC to a Pac-10 title and 2 NCAA playoff appearances. She was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1995 and Cooper--twice an Olympian and WNBA MVP--was inducted in 2010.

Lisa Leslie, who became an Olympic and pro star, won the Naismith Award in 1994 (she was the MVP of the first WNBA All-Star Game). Tina Thompson was the No. 1 pick in the 1997 WNBA draft.

USC was in the NCAA tourney in 2005 and 2006 under coach Mark Trakh. Former Laker great and Sparks coach Michael Cooper took over in 2010, and now has been succeeded by alumna Cynthia Cooper-Dyke.

MEN'S GOLF — USC has one of the most successful golf programs in the nation, having produced 4 NCAA individual champions (Scott Simpson in 1976 and 1977, Ron Commans in 1981 and Jamie Lovemark in 2007), 22 Pac-12 individual champs, 23 All-American first teamers and numerous players who have gone on to successful professional careers, including $1 million-plus winners like Al "Mr. 59" Geiberger, Dave Stockton, Craig Stadler and Simpson. Troy has also been dominant in the Pac-12, winning 19 conference championships.

Legendary coach Stan Wood (1955-79) compiled a career record of 462-37 (.926) and won 14 conference championships. He also guided the Trojans to an NCAA record 51 consecutive dual match wins from 1956-59. His teams finished third in the NCAA tourney 6 times.

Under coach Randy Lein (1984-92), USC won the league title in 1986. The 1991 Trojans finished seventh at the NCAAs. U.S. Amateur champion Sam Randolph, who finished as low amateur at the Masters in 1985 and 1986, was a first team All-American 3 straight years and was named college golf's 1986 Player of the Year.

Kurt Schuette became coach in 1995 and guided USC to an impressive fifth place finish at the NCAA tourney that season, Troy's best placing in 18 years (USC was sixth in 2005). His 2001 squad won the Pac-10 title, USC's first since 1986, and Troy repeated in 2002. Kevin Stadler, Craig's son, was the 2002 Pac-10 Golfer of the Year (USC's first honoree since 1986). Ex-Trojan Chris Zambri became head coach in 2007 (Schuette remained as Director of Golf), as USC won the Pac-10 crown that year and then was third at the 2008 NCAAs (Troy's best finish since 1975) when he was National Coach of the Year.

WOMEN'S GOLF — The USC women's golf team is one of college's finest, as witnessed by the program's NCAA team titles in 2003, 2008 and 2013. USC also has 15 other Top 10 NCAA finishes in the past 27 years (second 4 times, third twice, fourth 3 times, fifth twice, seventh 3 times and ninth once). The Women of Troy won the Pac-12 tourney in 1989, 2008, 2011 and 2013 and the NCAA Regional in 1999, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013.

Cathy Bright led USC to 5 Top 10 NCAA finishes in her 12 years as head coach (1982-93). Former Trojan player Renee (Mack) Baumgartner returned as head coach in 1994 and led USC to second place at the NCAAs in her first year. Andrea Gaston took over in 1997 (with Kurt Schuette serving as Director of Golf) and has guided USC to 13 NCAA Top 10 finishes, including all 3 NCAA titles.

Jennifer Rosales won the 1998 NCAA individual title as a freshman, Mikaela Parmlid won as a senior in 2003, Dewi-Claire Schreefel as a sophomore in 2006 and Annie Park as a first-semester freshman in 2013. Other top golfers have included Marta Figueras-Dotti, Denise Strebig, Kim Saiki, Tracy Nakamura, Jill McGill (1993 U.S. Amateur champion), Heidi Voorhees (1993 U.S. Amateur medalist), Jennifer Biehn (1994 Pac-10 champ), Candie Kung (2000 Pac-10 champ), Becky Lucidi (2002 U.S. Amateur and 2003 Mexican Amateur champion), Irene Cho, Paola Moreno, Belen Mozo, Jennifer Song (2009 National Freshman of the Year and NCAA individual runnerup), 4-time All-American Lizette Salas and Sophia Popov.

WOMEN'S LACROSSE— USC began competing in women's lacrosse in the spring of 2013, coached by U.S. national team star Lindsay Munday. The Women of Troy advanced to the MPSF Tournament in their inaugural campaign.

WOMEN'S ROWING — The women's rowing team has been active since the early 1970s, but scholarships were first awarded in 1998 and USC has emerged as one of the nation's top programs. George Jenkins guided USC to national prominence during his 9 years as head coach (1994-2002). Kelly Babraj took over as head coach for the 2003 season, with husband Zenon Babraj serving as director of rowing and then sole head coach beginning in 2008.

At the 1998 NCAA meet, the Women of Troy won their first national championship race (varsity fours). In 2005, USC made its first NCAA Championship appearance as a team, placing 11th. USC finished fifth at the NCAAs in 2007, then was eighth in 2010, fifth in 2011, sixth in 2012 and a program-best fourth in 2013. USC was ranked No. 1 nationally for parts of the 2007, 2012 and 2013 seasons.

WOMEN'S SOCCER — The women's soccer team began competing in 1993. Jim Millinder (1996-2006) guided 7 of his squads into the NCAA tourney (USC won the 1998 Pac-10 title). Ali Khosroshahin made his USC coaching debut in 2007 and was the National Coach of the Year as he led his inaugural teamto the NCAA title behind the play of goalkeeper Kristin Olsen.

Isabelle Harvey, the 1998 Pac-10 Player of the Year, was USC's first All-American first teamer (in 2000). Amy Rodriguez was a 2008 and 2012 U.S. Olympian.

MEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING — USC has long dominated men's collegiate swimming.

Over the years, USC men's swimmers have made Olympic teams 136 times, winning 43 gold, 24 silver and 21 bronze medals. Gold medal winners have included Lenny Krayzelburg, John Naber, Bruce Furniss and Murray Rose. In the 1976 Games, Trojan swimmers won more golds and more total medals than any country in swimming except the United States.

Since beginning swimming in 1929, the Trojans have captured 9 NCAA championships, all under coach Peter Daland, who retired in 1992 after 35 years at Troy. USC swimmers and divers have won 115 NCAA meet individual and relay titles (including Vladimir Morozov, who won 2 individual titles in the 2013 meet) and have earned All-American honors an amazing 592 times. Under Daland, USC won 17 Pac-10 championships and amassed an impressive dual meet record of 318-31-1 (.917). Three of his last 6 squads had runner-up finishes at the NCAA meet.

Four-time U.S. Olympic coach Mark Schubert, winner of 2 NCAA titles with the Texas women, succeeded Daland (he also served as the head coach of the Women of Troy). His men's teams placed in the Top 10 at the NCAAs 12 times in his 14 years at USC. Dave Salo took over for Schubert in both roles in 2007, guiding USC to fourth in the NCAAs in 2013.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING — USC has likewise built a successful swimming program on the women's side. In fact, the Women of Troy have finished in the top 10 nationally 30 of the last 37 years — including winning the NCAA title in 1997 — and have produced 281 All-Americans in that span. They have won conference championships in 1979, 1980, 1982 and 1985.

Among USC's top women's swimmers are Michelle Ford, Sue Habernigg, Cynthia Woodhead, Sue Hinderaker, Debbie Rudd, Kristine Quance (9 NCAA titles), Lindsay Benko (5 NCAA titles), Kaitlin Sandeno (2 NCAA titles), diver Blythe Hartley (5 NCAA titles), Rebecca Soni (6 NCAA titles) and Katinka Hosszu (5 NCAA titles).

MEN'S TENNIS — USC's men's tennis legacy has produced numerous national titlists, including 20 team champions (most in the country), 15 singles champions (second in the country) and 21 doubles champs (more than any school). Steve Johnson won the 2011 and 2012 NCAA singles crowns, while Kaes Van't Hof and Robert Farah won the 2008 NCAA doubles title.

George Toley (1954-80) guided the Trojans for 26 years before resigning during the 1980 season. His career record was 430-92-4 (.821) with 10 NCAA titles. Dick Leach succeeded Toley and posted a 535-133 (.801) mark in 23 years. His 1991, 1993, 1994 and 2002 teams won the NCAA tourney (his 2002 No. 11-seeded Cinderella team was the lowest seed ever to win the NCAA title and did so a month after Leach announced his retirement) and 8 of his other teams finished fourth or better. His successor, Peter Smith, guided USC to the 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012 NCAA titles after an NCAA semifinal appearance in 2004 and quarterfinals in 2007 and 2008 (and again in 2013).

Overall, USC players have been named to All-American teams 149 times, with many also enjoying successful pro careers, including Stan Smith, Bob Lutz, Raul Ramirez and Dennis Ralston.

WOMEN'S TENNIS — The most successful women's program at USC, in terms of national titles, is the tennis team, with 7.

Those national crowns all came under Dave Borelli, who coached USC from 1974 to 1988. In duals, Borelli's record was 300-43 (.875).

Trojans have won 5 national singles titles, along with 2 doubles champs (including Sabrina Santamaria and Kaitlyn Christian in 2013) and 89 All-Americans. Prominent USC stars include Barbara Hallquist, Diane Desfor, Lea Antonopolis, Leslie Allen, Sheila McInerney, Stacy Margolin, Trey Lewis, the Fernandez sisters, Kelly Henry, Beth Herr, Caroline Kuhlman, Trisha Laux, Jewel Peterson, Lindsey Nelson and Maria Sanchez.

Richard Gallien, a successful player and coach at Pepperdine, became head coach in 1996. His 1999, 2000, 2001, 2003 and 2005 teams advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals and he got to the NCAA semifinals in 2006 and 2012.

MEN'S TRACK & FIELD — The Trojans have won an unprecedented 26 NCAA titles (including 9 straight, 1935-43) in the 92-year history of NCAA outdoor track, plus 2 indoor NCAA titles and 35 Pacific Coast or Pac-12 crowns, including a string of 15 straight (1936-55). They have had 42 unbeaten and untied seasons, including a string of 16 in a row (1946-61). Since starting track and field in 1900, USC has compiled a dual-meet record of 413-120-4 (.773).

Outstanding coaches include Dean Cromwell (1909-48), who won a record 12 NCAA titles and had a dual meet mark of 109-48-1; Jess Mortensen, who never lost a dual meet (64-0) in 11 years and won 7 NCAA titles; and Vern Wolfe, who retired after the 1984 season with 7 national titles and a dual meet record of 106-17-1 (.859). Jim Bush, who won 5 NCAA titles while at crosstown rival UCLA, became USC's head coach in 1991. His 1992 Trojans finished third at the NCAAs with only a 6-man team. Ron Allice, who won 11 state titles at Long Beach City College, took over the combined men's and women's programs in 1995. He led the men to 14 Top 10 NCAA finishes (including third twice) and 5 conference crowns. Allice retired after the 2013 season and was replaced as Director of Track by Caryl Smith Gilbert for the 2014 season.

Sixty-three USC tracksters have won 93 places on U.S. Olympic teams over the years. Trojans have won 27 individual Olympic titles and shared in 8 relay wins. Gold medal winners include long jumper Randy Williams, pole vaulter Bob Seagren, sprinter Charles Paddock and hurdler Felix Sanchez.

Since 1912, 61 USC trackmen have equalled or bettered world records, and there have been 117 NCAA outdoor individual or relay winners from Troy--including quartermiler Bryshon Nellum and intermediate hurdler Reggie Wyatt in 2013.

The Trojans also have a long history of successful distance running, including 9 Olympians and NCAA champions Julio Marin and Ole Oleson.

WOMEN'S TRACK & FIELD, CROSS COUNTRY — The women's track program at USC has developed into one of the nation's finest. The Trojans have placed in the Top 10 of the NCAA Championships 15 times, including winning the program's first-ever NCAA team title in 2001 (USC also was second twice and third 3 times).

The women's track and field heritage begins with former coach Sherry Calvert. A 4-time All-American javelin thrower at USC who participated in the 1972 and 1976 Olympics, Calvert started the program as an undergraduate and coached through 1983. In 1995, Ron Allice took over as the combined men's and women's coach. Caryl Smith Gilbert succeeded him as Director of Track for the 2014 season.

The Women of Troy have had many successful track and field athletes. Patty Van Wolvelaere won a pair of national titles in the 100-meter hurdles. Kerry Bell was an All-American heptathlete for 3 years. 1988 NCAA heptathlon champ Wendy Brown and Yvette Bates set world bests in the triple jump during their USC careers. Ashley Selman won the 1990 NCAA javelin title. Angela Williams became the first athlete, male or female, at any level to win 4 consecutive NCAA 100-meter dashes when she did so in 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2002. Natasha Danvers won the 2000 NCAA 400-meter intermediate hurdles. The Women of Troy won the NCAA 1600-meter relay in 1987 and the 400-meter relay in 2000. Brigita Langerholc took the 800 meters and Inga Stasiulionyte captured the javelin, both in the 2001 NCAAs. Natasha Mayers won the NCAA 200 meters in 2002. Virginia Powell won the 2005 and 2006 NCAA indoor and outdoor high hurdles (she also set the collegiate record in the outdoor race). Eva Orban won the hammer at the 2008 NCAAs. Nia Ali was the 2011 NCAA high hurdles champion.

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL — The USC men's volleyball team has made 14 NCAA Final Four appearances since scholarships were first awarded by Troy in the sport in 1977. The Trojans have won 4 NCAA titles (1977, 1980, 1988 and 1990) and have finished second on 8 other occasions (1979-81-85-86-87-91-2009-12).

Ernie Hix, who retired as head coach after the 1981 season, turned USC into one of the top volleyball powers in the nation. Hix's 8-year record was an impressive 146-47 (.756) with 2 national crowns.

Twenty-five Trojans have played on the U.S. National team and USC volleyballers have been named first team All-Americans 31 times. In the 1984 Olympics, Steve Timmons, Dusty Dvorak and Pat Powers helped lead the U.S. to its first gold medal in the sport, while Timmons repeated with the 1988 U.S. squad. Timmons, Bryan Ivie, Nick Becker and Dan Greenbaum won bronze medals with the U.S. in 1992. Tim Hovland, Celso Kalache, Adam Johnson, former coach Bob Yoder (a 3-time All-American who coached Troy to an NCAA title in 1988), Donald Suxho, Brook Billings, Murphy Troy and Tony Ciarelli also are key figures in USC's volleyball heritage. Jim McLaughlin took over for Yoder in 1990 and led Troy to an NCAA title in his initial year. Bill Ferguson, who took over in 2007, led USC to the NCAA Final Four in 2009 (for the first time since 1991), 2011 and 2012.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL, SAND VOLLEYBALL — USC has won 6 national crowns in women's volleyball, the first 4 under coach Chuck Erbe. Erbe, who dominated the sport during his 12-year USC coaching tenure which began in 1976, posted a career record of 310-121-3 (.718). He coached the 1976, 1977 and 1980 AIAW champions and the 1981 NCAA titlists. His 1976 team registered the first perfect season (38-0) in women's volleyball history.

Lisa Love, who coached at Texas-Arlington for 7 years, took over for Erbe in 1989 and guided USC into the NCAAs in 9 of her 10 seasons before retiring after the 1998 season. Jerritt Elliott served as interim head coach in 1999 and 2000, guiding the 2000 club to the NCAA Final Four. Mick Haley, head coach of the 2000 U.S. women's Olympic team who won 2 national crowns in the 1980s while at Texas, took over in 2001 and advanced to that season's NCAA regional final. Then, in 2002 and 2003, his teams won the NCAA crown, with the 2003 club going 35-0. USC got to the NCAA Final Four in 2004, 2007, 2010 and 2011.

Debbie Green (1978), April Ross (2004) and Alex Jupiter (2011) won the prestigious Honda Award in volleyball. Trojans have been named first team All-American 43 times and earned spots on Olympic rosters 23 times (including Green, Sue Woodstra, Paula Weishoff, Carolyn Becker, Kim Ruddins and Nicole Davis).

In 2012, USC began fielding a women's sand volleyball team, an NCAA "emerging" sport, with Anna Collier as the head coach. The Women of Troy finished third nationally in 2013, with the duo of Kirby Burnham-Stevi Robinson winning the national pairs title. Former Trojans April Ross-Jennifer Kessy were silver medalists in beach volleyball at the 2012 Olympics.

MEN'S WATER POLO — Since starting water polo in 1922, the Trojans have compiled a 1,165-504-7 (.697) record, winning 20 conference championships.

John Williams led the Trojans to national prominence since during his tenure from 1973 to 1998. Nineteen of his last 22 teams finished the season in the top 7 nationally, including the 1998 NCAA championship team and the 1987, 1993, 1994, 1996 and 1997 squads which placed second in the NCAA tourney. Jovan Vavic, who joined as co-head coach in 1995, took over as head coach in 1999. His 2003, 2005, 2008, 2009, 2010 , 2011 and 2012 teams won the NCAA championship (4 of his other squads were runners-up), with his 2008 and 2012 Trojans both going 29-0.

Twenty-one USC poloists have participated in the Olympics and Trojans have made All-American teams 183 times. Some of the prominent names in USC water polo history are Ron Severa, Wally Wolf, Charles Bittick, Greg Fults, Zach Stimson, Craig Furniss, Charles Harris, Robert Lynn, Drew Netherton, Hrvoje Cizmic, Marko Zagar, Simun Cimerman, Marko Pintaric, George Csaszar, Pedraj Damjanov, Bozidar Damjanovic, Juraj Zatovic (who in 2005 was USC's first male winner of the Peter J. Cutino Award as the National Player of the Year), Juan Delgadillo, J.W. Krumpholz (2008 Olympian and 2-time National Player of the Year) and Joel Dennerley (the 2012 Cutino Award winner), Peter Kurzeka and Nikola Vavic.

WOMEN'S WATER POLO — USC's women's water polo team began play in 1995 under head coach Jovan Vavic. Five years later, the 1999 Women of Troy--led by National Player of the Year and 2000 U.S. Olympic goalie Bernice Orwig--won the national championship in a 5-overtime victory over Stanford. USC was second in the national tourney in 2000. Then in 2004, USC--behind National Player of the Year Moriah Van Norman--turned in the sport's first undefeated season (29-0) in winning the NCAA title. USC was third in the 2005 and 2007 NCAAs and second in 2006, 2008 and 2009 before winning the 2010 and 2013 NCAA crowns (it was fourth in 2011 and second in 2012).

Eight Trojans participated in the 2008 Olympics and 7 in 2012. Besides Orwig and Van Norman, other top players have included Aniko Pelle (the 2000 National Player of the Year), Nina Wengst, Olympian Sofia Konoukh, Katrin Dierolf, Kelly Graff, Lauren Wenger (the 2006 National Player of the Year), Brittany Hayes, Erika Figge, Kami Craig (the 2009 and 2010 National Player of the Year), Kristen Dronberger and Monica Vavic.

USC NATIONAL TITLES

USC has long dominated the world of intercollegiate athletics. In fact, it could be argued that Troy was the "Collegiate Athletic Program of the 20th Century." USC men and women have combined for 120 national team titles.

Trojan men's teams are tops in the nation in NCAA championships with 82 — more than any other university. Overall, USC's men have won 95 national championships.

USC's women are also a force, with 25 national team titles, all since 1976.

From 1959-60 to 1984-85, USC put together an amazing streak. In each of those 26 years, at least one Trojan team won a national championship (including five crowns in both 1962-63 and 1976-77).

USC won the National Collegiate All-Sports Championship — an annual ranking by USA Today (previously The Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs from 1971 to 1994 — 6 times (1971-72-74-75-77-80).

TROJANS STAR IN CLASSROOM

USC is as proud of its student-athletes' achievements in the classroom as on the playing field.

After all, the Trojans not only are third in the nation in the number of national team championships (95 by the men and 25 by the women), but rank in the Top 10 in the number of NCAA post-graduate scholarship recipients (52, including 20 football players).

Also, USC athletics has had 4 Rhodes Scholars (quarterback Pat Haden, swimmer Desmond Koh, trackster James O'Toole and basketballer Reed Doucette), 31 first team Academic All-Americans (including 22 footballers, in the Top 10 in the nation and tied for tops among Pac-10 schools), 8 winners of the prestigious NCAA Today's Top Eight scholar award, 13 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, 12 recipients of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award (second most in the nation, behind Yale's 13), 2 CoSIDA Academic All-American Hall of Famers (Haden and swimmer John Naber), 2 NCAA Inspiration Award winners (swimmer Mike Nyeholt and runner Louis Zamperini), an NCAA Walter Byers Post-Graduate Scholar (soccer player Amy Massey), an NCAA Women's Enhancement Program Post-Graduate Scholar (soccer player Laura Servis), 2 NCAA Ethnic-Minority Enhancement Program Post-Graduate Scholars (footballers Dong Koo and Travis Watkins), a Luce Scholar (swimmer Dennis Scannell), 2 USC valedictorians (water poloist Craig Furniss and volleyballer Alaina Kipps) and a USC salutatorian (track/cross country's Kate Neeper). In 1988, Haden was inducted into the charter 6-member class of the GTE Academic All-American Hall of Fame and baseball star Don Buford Jr. won the first-ever Woody Hayes Academic All-American Award presented by the Columbus Touchdown Club to the top NCAA Division I male student-athlete (footballer John Jackson won the award in 1990 and volleyballer Katie Haller won the women's award in 1994). Jackson was also named a winner of the first-ever NACDA/Disney Scholar-Athlete Award in 1990, and Jeremy Hogue, Matt Keneley and Mike Van Raaphorst were 1996, 1997 and 2000 NACDA Foundation Preseason Games Scholar-Athletes, respectively (Keneley also received a NACDA Foundation Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1997). In 1997, Keith Van Horne was named to the GTE Academic All-American All-Time Football Team. Footballer Lee Webb won a Wilma Rudolph Student Athlete Achievement Award fromthe National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics in 2005. Naber was inducted into the COSIDA Academic All-American Hall of Fame in 2012.

The Nov. 1994 issue of The Sporting News examined the relative academic strength of the nation's top 25 football teams and found USC's players ranked second in high school GPA, sixth in SAT scores and third in ACT scores.

USC SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE —The Sports Information Office (director Tim Tessalone, associate Paul Goldberg and assistants Darcy Couch, David Tuttle, Jeremy Wu and Rachel Caton) temporarily is located in E201 of the University Village just north of the USC campus while Heritage Hall undergoes renovation during 2013 (the office's permanent location is the southeast corner of the first floor of Heritage Hall). It houses files containing USC athletic history, player and coach biographies, statistics and photographs. The office phone number is (213) 740-8480. The fax number is (213) 740-7584. There is a work area for media,with complimentary wireless internet access. Nearby on-campus parking is available by calling the office in advance. SID Tim Tessalone can be contacted via: USC Sports Information Office, HER 103, Los Angeles, Calif. 90089-0601, 213-740-8480, tessalon@usc.edu.

PLAYER/COACH INTERVIEWS — Please arrange all player and coach interviews through the Sports Information Office, at least a day in advance. Except for those with prior approval, all coach and player interviews are to be conducted on the football practice field immediately after practice. When Heritage Hall re-opens after renovation, please do not interview coaches, players and athletic department officials in the lobby or on the patios of Heritage Hall, or at any other locations, unless approved by USC. While at Heritage Hall, media should not linger in the lobby or on the patios; there is a media workroom in the Sports Information Office. A reminder: per NCAA rules, current athletes cannot record promotional taglines for media outlets. Coach Kiffin will give an updated injury report at the beginning of each media session, but he and his players will not address injury issues beyond that. Coach Kiffin also will be available on a conference call on Sunday evenings during the season (contact the USC Sports Information Office for details). There is not a weekly football media luncheon. A broadcast quality video with a Coach Kiffin Q&A will be posted every Monday during the season on USCTrojans.com and on USC's YouTube channel (YouTube.com/USCAthletics).

USC PRACTICES — Most Trojan practices on Howard Jones Field/Brian Kennedy Field are open to the local and national media who have been pre-approved via an online application (applications must be submitted by Mondays at 2 p.m. to attend that week's practice). Please call in advance to confirm the schedule. Media video can be shot during the first 20 minutes of any open practice. Live online posting is not allowed from the field. Media must remain on the east side of the field.

GAME CREDENTIALS — Because of space limitations, only members of the media who cover USC on a regular basis (plus media accompanying the visiting team) will be considered for credentials to Trojan home games. Media credentials for USC home games will not be mailed in advance (parking passes can be mailed). Instead, credentials will be available on game days at the Coliseum media gate (located outside the press box elevator near Tunnel 6 on the south side of the Coliseum), generally 3 hours before kickoff. Credentials are issued on a game-by-game basis (there are no season passes). Credentials must be requested online and requests must be received by noon two days prior to each game, so that the USC Sports Information Office can work with USC's Office of Athletic Compliance to review and approve requests. The online credential request form also covers NCAA compliance, personal comportment and inherent on-field safety risks. Credentials are non-transferrable. A valid identification that matches the submitted name must be shown and credentials must be picked up in person. At the media gate, media must sign an acknowledgement of the completed online waiver prior to being issued a credential. Four types of credentials are issued: Media Press Box (press box seat during game, field access during last 5 minutes of game), plus Media Field, Broadcast and Photo (all 3 provide field access if wearing USC-provided wristband, plus limited press box access with no seat). All credentials provide post-game interview room access. Television cameramen and still photographers are not allowed on the sidelines between the 25-yard lines in the team bench area.

PRESS BOX — Located on the south (Martin Luther King Blvd.) side of the Coliseum, the press box is for the use of the working media and guests of USC's athletic department only. Access is via the elevators near Tunnel 6. The upper level has seats for the working media, while the lower level houses radio and television broadcasting booths. The roof is available for cameramen and photographers. Members of USC's Sports Information Office are located in the middle row of the upper level (seats 219-223) during games. To get from the press box to the field at the end of the game (and to enable continued viewing of the game action), most media exit through either side door and walk through the stands.

PRESS BOX SERVICES — A complimentary meal is served in the press box. Game programs, flip cards and game notes are distributed before kickoff (these are also available on the field to photographers). Quarterly play-by-plays, plus halftime and final statistics, are distributed, as are transcribed post-game locker room quotes from Coach Kiffin and the visiting coach. Game action is shown on indoor TV monitors posted throughout the press box. A detailed play-by-play and Coach Kiffin's post-game press conference are broadcast over the press box public address system. USC provides complimentary wireless internet access and fax service in the press box. Several charge-a-call phones are located in the visiting press section in the first row of the upper level and available on a first-come basis. To order a telephone, contact a Coliseum phone technician at (213) 765-6353. To call the press box on game day for score updates, dial (213) 741-1341 or (213) 747-7111 (ask for the press box).

MEDIA ON-FIELD GUIDELINES — Media with credentials who are permitted on the field during the game (generally TV camera operators and still photographers) must remain outside the dotted line that encircles the field. A special "photo alley" has been drawn between the end zones and 25-yard lines on both sides of the field and behind both end zones; photographers only are permitted inside this "alley" as long as they kneel. Photographers who choose not to kneel must stand behind the alley, along with all others on the field, including USC guests. Media should refrain from conducting post-game USC player/coach interviews on the field before the team enters the locker room, unless approved by a member of the USC Sports Information Office. No one under the age of 18 is allowed on the field at any time.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS — The USC and visiting team locker rooms are located inside the tunnel at the west end of the Coliseum. USC's post-game lockerroom is closed, including to the media, in order to comply with NCAA rules that prohibit impermissible contact with recruits. After a 10-minute "cooling off" period, coach Kiffin and several players will be brought to the post-game interview room. Additional media interviews will be conducted in the tunnel directly outside the entrance to the USC lockerroom as coaches and players exit. USC's sports information staff will work with the media to expedite this process.

VIDEO SERVICES — The Pac-12 makes available to the media a weekly video featuring highlights and interviews from all league schools (call 925-932-4411).

USC ATHLETICS ON THE WEB — The USC athletic department has an official video-based home page on the web (USCTrojans.com), featuring current and historical information about Trojan sports.

Note: Records are unclear prior to Hunter's tenure. One reference source listed William Clay as "athletic manager" in 1909 and cited him as USC's first A.D. Another source listed Elmer Henderson as football coach and athletic director from 1919 to 1924. Still another source said "graduate managers" were akin to athletic directors and listed Warren Bovard, Henry Bruce, Gwynn Wilson (1921-30) and Arnold Eddy (1930 and on) in that role (that source also claimed Eddy was athletic director in 1941-44).
